

the commissioner appointed by the
of the appellant was £286, and bert Shapland Carew, Esq. M.P. ury.

important ejectment, brought by Lord large tract of land from Mr. Carew, e Judge Torrens. There had been or the defendant previously, which ourt of King's Bench. The jury for his lordship.

ere sentenced to transportation at esentments applied for at the ap-ry is £8,962.

private Braddy, 14th regiment, of stealing a silver watch from a

T. Kennedy, Presbyterian Minister, at Longford Assizes, an action of water-course, which injured a mill-ry remained in all night, and were out any verdict.

Meath Grand Jury have addressed Magistrates and Grand Juries of th, Westmeath, Kildare, and all and will follow the example this three of those Grand Juries were Meath, Louth, and Kildare.

led to mention that the gentry of address Sir W. C. Smith in con-nity offered to him by the Govern-ght to limit it to the Grand Jury, respectful to have it sent generally nty. This is just as it ought to h was called to the bar in 1778, 1782.

ions of Captain Burton M'Namara, lare have resolved to petition Parent of the river Fergus, by removwhich now impede its navigation has been very fatal at Patrick's-several deaths have occurred there.

ghbourhood of Kilfinan have such name of Cholera, that they will pital to be opened in that village.
eeding this!

an, was way laid near Tipperary ordered.

bourhood of Innishannon, county ight last week, in search of fire-

in Whyte, and John M'Donnell, ioners, have arrived in Galway,
enquiry there.

that the Fisheries are likely to be sposition felt by those Gentlemen
, should be strongly manifested by warded to parliament, as the expe-the folly of permitting the British sent state of decay, while foreign eir fishermen, which has enabled s and sell fish in our markets, to subjects; this is fully shewn by the English Fishery Commission een a parliamentary commission to e fisheries on the coast of England, ourable time than the present to
to the state of the Irish Fisheries.

all who feel an interest in this e actively engaged in getting up erford have petitioned Parliament ties.

West India sugar are to be assi-from Lord Melbourne notifies that dress of the Corporation of Water-

Legislative Union " in the most

Office department, from the 5th deprived of the injurious and ex-

the sale and circulation of York Cathedral, to Margaret, only daughter of Captain Rallett, late 4th Dragoon Guards.

DEATHS.

At Colombo, Ceylon, on the 24th October last, of brain fever, to the general regret of his brother officers, whose friendship and esteem, his honorable deportment, and gentlemanlike manners, had eminently attracted, Joseph Vincent, Esq. Lieutenant 97th, or Earl of Ulster's Regt. son of the Rev. George Vincent, of Shanagolden, in this County, and nephew of Lieut.-General John Vincent, of Dumbarton Castle. To his relatives and many friends in this Country, the death of this young gentleman is a great affliction.

At Glen, in this County, Mary, the beloved wife of Joseph Bevan, Esq.—She died rejoicing in the Lord, believing that her pardon was sealed by the redeeming blood of her Saviour, Jesus Christ.

At the residence of her father, Craves Cottage, in this County, Biddellia, wife of Edward Stokes, Esq. of Abbey-View, Kerry.

Mr. Augustine T. Moran, of Muckinish, county Clare.
Dr. R. Trumble, Surgeon to the Dromahair Dispensary.

At the Glebe House, the Rev. William Lyster, late Rector of Cloghran, county Dublin.

Of cholera, at Killard, county Clare, Mr. Medway, Chief Officer of Coast Guard, on that station.

At Mount Verdon, Emily, third daughter of John Dow-man, Esq. of Cork, Attorney.

At Rathmines, of consumption, aged 27 years, Catherine, wife of James Moran, Esq. Thomas-street, Dublin.

At Churchtown, county Cork, Mrs. Hamilton, widow of the late Rev. Thomas Hamilton.

At Malahide, Anthony Semple, Esq. many years a Magistrate of the county of Dublin.

At Bandon, Mr. Denis Quinlan—and at Dunmanway, Miss Jane Coffee.

At Finisklin, near Sligo, of premature confinement, Olivia, Lady of Captain R. Shuttleworth, R. N. and daughter of Captain Vernon, of the Sligo Militia.

At Castledawson, of paralysis, Thomas Graves, Esq.
Captain Royal Navy, aged 58 years.

At her residence, Upper Dominick-street, Dublin, Mrs.
Moore Lane, aged 53 years.

At Lisgoole Abbey, near Enniskillen, aged 86 years, Mrs.
Jones, mother of Captain Jones.

At Rothsay, Major John Campbell, formerly of the Royal Marines.

The Rev. Robert Barnard, Rector of Lightborne, Warwickshire, and Prebendary of Winchester, aged 73 years.

At Bishopwearmouth, Durham, Mrs. Fetherstonhaugh, wife of Walker Fetherstonhaugh, Esq. and daughter of the late Mr. Charles Incedon.

At Harlyn, Cornwall, William Rous Peter, Esq. Ensign in the 67th Foot, and second son of William Peter, Esq.
M. P. for Bodmin.

At Kingsfield, near Southampton, Maria Deborah, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Grosvenor, Esq. sister of General Grosvenor, and first-cousin of the Marquis of Westminster.

MONTHLY MILITARY OBITUARY.

General—John Hamilton.

Major—G. Martin, late Royal Marines.

Captains—M'Intosh, 92d; Gape, Unatt. late of 2d Drags.; Blackmore, h.p. 33d; Loftus Nunn, Unatt.; M'Intyre, h.p.
56th; Heinemann, late German Legion.

Lieutenants—Crofton, 16th Drags.; Stuart, 44th; Abell, 62d; Lamb, 93d; Parker, h.p. 1st Dr. Guards; Sir W. J.
Twysden, h.p. 7th Foot; Spooner, h.p. 21st do.; Sims, h.p.
8th do.; Ferguson, h.p. 95th; Pearce, h.p. 99th.

Ensigns—Brabazon, 54th; Ross, 72d; Priestley, h.p.
15th; Green, h.p. 87th; Dedicke, late Foreign Vet. Bat.

Paymaster—Dowson, 89th.

Quartermasters—Chettle, 15th Hussars; Scheidweiler, h.p.
1st Life Guards; Kittow, h.p. Cornwall Fenc. Cav.

Commissariat Department—Dep. Ass. Comm. Gen. Lane.
Medical Department—As. Insp. Edw. Walsh, M.D. h.p.;

Dep. Insp. Gen. Buchan, h.p.; Surgeon Murray, h.p. 2d W.
I. R.; O'Maley, h.p. Staff; J. Rose, h.p. 7th Dr. Gds.;

Assistant-Surgeon O'Neill, h.p. 6th Irish Br.; M'Math,
M.D. 57th.

NEW CLOVER SEEDS.

FRANCIS SPAIGHT has received per the Ursulla,
Tuscan, Berlin, Fancy Straw and Tissue
London House, March

SPLENDID Stock of NEW GOODS, which to consist of the most fashionable collection of

Rich Silks, French and India Shawls, Swiss Hosiery, London Printed Muslins, Foreign Lace, Gloves, Ribbons and Handkerchiefs, Goods, Bombazines, Crapes, Flannels, &c.

AND A SUPERB VARIETY OF
Tuscan, Berlin, Fancy Straw and Tissue
London House, March

NEW ARRIVALS,
18 YESTERDAY, PER "THE BRITISH"

TO WILSON'S

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL SEED
3, GEORGE'S-STREET,

HIS second supply of Genuine Garden
Seeds—two other lots expected daily and Ursilla.

WILSON abstains from large promises, but he is as good as can be had in any other house
Prices are his standard.

Is on the alert to raise Trees as fast as wanted his own grounds; Forest Trees he grows on soil, in his country Nurseries, eight miles out

Has a lovely assortment of Evergreens and Shrubs, of all sizes. Is now preparing his L (which excited so much interest last year) for

The collection comprises some new ones imported

A highly respectable active man, of moral habits, and unexceptionably trustworthy situation as Steward and Gardener,

Limerick, Feb.

Limerick Seed Ware-
8, GEORGE'S-STREET.

19 JOHN ABRAHAM

RETURNS his best thanks to the Noblemen
and the Public, for the preference

Establishment; he begs leave to say to the chasers of Clovers, Grass Seeds, and Garden season, and which gave such general satisfaction

YEAR he expects to be equally fortunate, having the very best Seeds in the Foreign and Home

his general stock of those Seeds have arrived per Captain Hannington—and he solicits an inspection be sold on fair terms.

Spring Vetches, Split Peas, Horse Beans, &c.
Early Potatoes, 90,000 Very Fine Thorn Q old.

His Establishment is well supplied with Seeds ments of the best description, both for Garden department. His Nursery is well stocked with trained and otherwise; Shrubs, Roses, Foreign Hazel for Underwood; a quantity of very fine Oak, &c. all are growing in an exposed situation remove with safety.

His Choice Collection of STANDARD
FRENCH ROSES, have arrived in good condition quantity of HAZEL NUTS. To Gentlemen have UNDERWOOD, they are an acquisition sold at 20s. per Bushel.

Gardeners and Stewards of good character
N. B.—All orders strictly attended to and sent any distance in the country without delay.

Limerick, Feb.

20 NEWS! EXPRESS

Post Office Monopoly Abolished

JOHNSTON and CO. 1, Eden-Quay, City
Dublin, NEWSPAPER and ADVERTISING

RESPECTFULLY submit to the favour tion of the Public, the following Copy

they had the honour of receiving, this morning
Grace, the Postmaster-General:—

"London, Feb. 20th 1842.

"SIR.—In reply to your letter of the 20th
to assure you that the 'Clerks of the Roads' will 5th of April, directly or indirectly, cease to
to do with the sale or circulation of newspapers

"I have the honour to be, Sir,
Yours faithfully,
John Johnston & Co.

Grace, the Postmaster-General:—

"London, Feb. 20th 1842.

"SIR.—In reply to your letter of the 20th
to assure you that the 'Clerks of the Roads' will 5th of April, directly or indirectly, cease to
to do with the sale or circulation of newspapers

"I have the honour to be, Sir,
Yours faithfully,
John Johnston & Co.