DUBLIN, MARCH 3.
We are informed, and from such authority no doubt, that a General Election place in this Kingdom, before the n of two months.
General Meeting of the Freemen and of Dublin, held this day at the Royal e, pursuant to a requisition from the eriffs of this city, the thanks of the were unanimously voted to the Ma-both Houses of Parliament, who on a ng occasion, boldly stood forward, and confirmed the constitutional Indepen-Ireland.

Public notice from the Lord Mayor, was announced, requesting the inhabitants metropolis to illuminate their houses this n consequence of the intelligence ren the last packet of the restoration of esty's health.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.
SATURDAY, Feb. 28.
SHERIDAN presented a Bill for punish-tiny and desertion, and for the better it of the army and their quarters, within gdom, which was read a first time, and d to be read a second time on Monday also presented a copy of the appoint-of the agent or pay-master to the half-which was ordered to lie on the table.

GRATTAN moved, that the proper of-o lay before this House an account of the l saving or encrease of expence that ac-on the late change in the military esta-ment, which reduced the horse to dras and new modelled the infantry.
ad a second time the bill for the advance-of trade, the sugar bill, the French treaty the loan bill, and the tobacco bill, which committed for Monday.

Mr. CHAN. of the EXCHEQ. presented the money bill, the wine and cordage bills, ost-office, malt, and coffee bills, the bill romoting the linen and hempen manufac-by encreasing the supply of Irish flaxseed, encouraging the export of linen and sails, and the stamp-duty bill, which were a first time and ordered to be read a second on Monday.
Mr. CARRY said, there was an order of House of last sessions, for the proper offito make returns of the state of the several pitals and Infirmaries in this kingdom,— t order had not been complied with, for two Houses.

"What they have done—and their manner of doing it—is a new proof of their undiminished duty to his Majesty, of their uniform attachment to the House of Brunswick, and of their constant care and attention to maintain inviolate the concord and connection between the kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, so indispensably necessary to the prosperity, the happiness, and the Liberties of both.

"If, in conveying my grateful sentiments on their conduct, in relation to the King my Father, and to the inseparable interests of the two kingdoms, I find it impossible adequately to express my feelings on what relates to myself, I trust you will not be the less disposed to believe, that I have an understanding to comprehend the value of what they have done, an heart that must remember, and principles that will not suffer me to abuse their confidence.

"But the fortunate change which has taken place in the circumstances which gave occasion to the Address agreed to by the Lords and Commons of Ireland, induce me for a few days to delay giving a FINAL Answer, trusting that the joyful event of his Majesty's resuming the personal exercise of his Royal Authority, may then render it only necessary for me to repeat those sentiments of gratitude and affection for the loyal people of Ireland, which I feel indelibly imprinted on my heart."

Mr. Grattan moved that the Letter and the Answer to the Address, be entered on the Journals.—Ordered.

Mr. Grattan observed, that as his Royal Highness's answer was not final on the business, it would be at present unnecessary and unseasonable to enter into any Resolutions thereon.—Adjourned to next day.

DIED. At Cork, Adam Newman, Esq; senior Alderman of that city.—The wife of Mr. Joseph Merrick, of that city, chandler.— And Mrs. Bond, wife of John Bond, sen Esq;

LIMERICK

On the 2d ult. the Jant, Bate, from Dublin, for this Port, put into Lochendal, in Scotland, after shipping a sea, which washed over-board four men, and carried away every article on deck.

Last Friday night, an house took fire in the village of Knockaderry, occasioned by a Candle left lighting by a Maid when going to bed, which communicated to some straw in the room—the flames were so violent, that most part of the village was consumed with all their furniture—but happily no lives were lost.

The Aberkin, Owen, for this Port, sailed from London, the 24th Inst.
