

prevails in getting the southern and chamber of Commerce and a letter has been ford, M.P., in reply annex a copy :-

Picadilly, March 1.

the receipt of your

tile Marine Bill shall

ut, with great respect

merce, I must venture

ty ought, in justice

own members attend

erests.

nt.

TUS STAFFORD.

W. M. DOWNES.—

s, we apprehend, last

try, must be favorably

his other literary pro-

adicated great merit,

the lyric department,

dered "from grave to

That Mr. Downes is

le genius his early de-doubt. Several of his

the pages of some of

nglish classical educa-

may be found in the country, where honor-uthor. His profound fully equal to that of

ly developed, but there

icious in every phase

the spirit of Nationality

pure as the fountain of

Mr. Downes' recent express desire of the

at the "child of song"

ed reformation in Ire-

in so short a time to

eme of total abstinence,

this and future genera-

ge. The ancient "vis

naturally prominent in

with peculiar force the

roduction "The Exile,"

lves by an opinion upon arable from a National

is probably destined to

mply because, as a work

Mr. Downes' very best

s a reluctant farewell to

est affection, to sail in tes of America.

Irish University Ma-

t article on Absentee-

er's recent paper, read,

s a theme, and which

ck Chronicle) took a

Stronge, of the King William's Town, British Carrara, Wynnam Wm.

Knight, Esq. 1st Batt. Rifle Brigade, to Henrietta Frances, daughter of Lieut.-Col. Armstrong, Cape Mounted Riflemen.

DEATHS.

At Guernsey, of heart disease, Dunbar J. Massy, Esq. Ensign 16th Regt. son of the late Hon. Wm. Massy, of Belmont, in this County.

On Monday morning, at her house, High-street, Dublin, Anne, wife of Mr. John Alley, and daughter of the late Mr. Richard Jackson, of this City.

Saturday last, in Wickham-street, Mr. James Russell, grocer, at the Deanery, Leighlin-bridge, on Friday night, the Hon. and Very Rev. Dr. Bernard, Dean of Leighlin.

Of scarletina, at Eglishe Glebe, county Tipperary, Edward, son of the Rev. John Exshaw, aged seven years.

At Belgrave Place, Cork, Robert, son of R. C. Hickson, Esq. Fermoy, co. Kerry.

At Church Ville, Queen's County, Martha, wife of John F. Harte, Esq. M.D.

At Mount Daniel, county Waterford, Mary, relict of the late Richard Daniel, Esq.

Letitia, wife of Mr. Robert N. Gibton.

At her house in Mullingar, at the age of 85 years, Christian Mary, relict of the late James Nugent, Esq. of Mornington.

In Ballinasloe, Kate, daughter of Mr. Thomas Hyde.

At Waterford, William Shearman, Esq. fourth son of the late William Shearman, Esq.

At Clifden, John Geoghegan, Esq. of Maryville, Galway.

Maria, wife of Richard Maunsell, of Oakly Park, Celbridge, Esq.

In Sligo, aged 78 years, Mr. Francis Allingham.

Mrs. Beere, wife of Edward Beere, of Bushfield Avenue.

At Smithfield, Mr. John West, of Kilmemanagh, co. Dublin.

John O'Hagan, Esq. of Inniskeen, county Louth.

At Longford, of typhus, Edward Burke, Esq. son of the late Dr. John Joseph Burke, of Dublin.

At Armagh, Fanny, wife of Jacob Barrett, Esq. Solicitor.

At Charlemont-street, Mr. Cornelius M'Guire, of Leixlip.

Thomas Coates, Esq. solicitor, late of Ballinafa, co. Kildare.

At Cavanreagh, near Draperstown, at the age of 100 years, Martha, relict of the late William Philips, Esq. and mother of Rev. James Philips, Presbyterian Minister, Fivemiletown.

Police Constable Francis Walsh, of the D division of the Dublin metropolitan police, late of Castlegar, county Galway.

At Taunton, aged 13, Jane Anne, daughter of Wm. Hickie, Esq. J.P. of Killeton House and Janemount, Cork.

In London, aged 82 years, T. Martin, Esq. of Limerick.

At Leonard-place, St. John's-wood, B. S. Jones, Esq. assistant secretary to the India Board, aged 82.

The Rev. Edward Bickersteth, Watton Rectory, Hertford.

In his 73d year, Captain George Delaney, late of the 49th Regiment, and previously of the Scotch Brigade.

At Clifton, Major-Gen. Alured Dodsworth Faunce, C.B. formerly of the 4th (the King's Own) Regt. aged 74.

In Bartholomew's Hospital, London, aged 66 years, Mr. David Stewart, journeyman printer. He was known as the author of a popular series of papers, descriptive of a sailor's life, which appeared in Blackwood's Magazine.

At Cromarty, Frances, daughter of the late Major-General Robertson, of Strowan, C.B.

Isabella Adamson, eldest daughter of the late Lieut. William Bryson, 3d Royal Veteran Battalion.

At Clifton, aged 78 years, the Rev. John James, Rector of Penmaen, Glamorganshire.

At Bath, Robert Thomas Crucefix, Esq. M.D.

In Clifton, Mary Lawrence, relict of William James Stevenson, Esq. Receiver General of Jamaica.

In London, Thomas Martin, Esq. of Liverpool, aged 82.

At Nevill-park, Tunbridge-wells, Caroline, widow of the late Colonel Hinuber, aged 70.

At Pentonville, Captain William Macdonald, of Inverness.

At Douglas, Isle of Man, Lieut. William Riddock, late 4th Regiment.

At Aberystwith, Mr. David Lewis, deputy harbour-master, alias "The Old Commodore." He fought under Nelson, on board the Conqueror, 74, at the battle of Trafalgar.

At Quebec, Mr. William Fraser, Engineer, a native of Morayshire, Scotland.

At Montreal, Kenneth MacKenzie Walker, Esq. aged 78 years, one of the oldest British inhabitants in Montreal.

At Nevis Cottage, aged 68, Colonel Alexander McMillan, formerly Captain in the Glengarry Light Infantry.

In Montreal, Henry Delmage, aged 30 years.

At Simla, Emma Elizabeth Augusta, daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel Havelock, K.H. 14th Light Dragoons.

Saturday, at his residence in Roche's-street, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. James Parker.—A lady much regretted by her family and friends.

Dinner Ware, handsome serving every requisite en suite Sheffield Plate, in good order and Table Linen, of prime quality &c., &c.

THE BALI contains 9 Window Curtains Satin, with Gilt Cornices; Rugs, 2 Moveable Grates, Brilliant Ceiling Lustres, in 40 Swiss Chairs, Curious Wood Sofas, in Crimson Brocade Grand Piano-forte, by Colla of surpassing Tone and finish.

THE WINE contains a Hogshead of delicate with about 80 dozen of brands, viz., Champagne, Malmsey, Sherry, Paxaret, dy, Mareschino, Cyder, &c.

THE SLEEPING APARTMENT The principal ones HIS LATE MAJESTY KING are superbly furnished, with Chalis, and Brocaded Satin, exquisite, combining elegance THE STUDY AND MANY PR are well furnished with Tur Book Cases and Secretarie Chairs, Work and Sofa ties, Billiard Table, Bath some few good Paintings, Double and Single Guns makers, Rifles, Pistols, Tardors, Matts, Hall Bells, Bath, Clocks.

MISCELLANEOUS London-built Britska, 2 Treshing Mill, Boiler, Steam Mangles, Laundry Utensils Coppers, House Presses, Garden Chairs, with a choice the "Rarest Green-house PROGRAMM Thursday, the 14th March of Dining Parlour, Ball-room 6 medium do. Friday, the 15th—The Cellar, George the IV Rooms. Saturday, the 16th—Bill Sitting Rooms, and remainder The Library, containing Book-cases, will be sold on Sale each day at 12 o'Clock The commission chargeable The Castle will be opened the 13th March, by tickets had at Messrs. SADLER'S street, Dublin; Mr. I BOURKE, Mitchelstown; or of the Auctioneer, JAM 96, George Who will forward cards of and attend to all Cash Co