

Esq. Barrister at law, and pose, presided at the Court-ate the claims of the tithes ose of the Rev. F. Conyers, Rev. Thomas E. Hiffernan, allowed, without opposition.
 lected President of the Royal rrent year; Poole Hickman, of the Club; and the Vice y the Galway division of the n the 25th inst. Among the e Club is the Earl of Orkney.
 Western Yacht Club have ing resolution to their active s O'Connell, Esq.:—"Re-powerfully the inestimable ary," and fully conscious that eared assiduity in discharge a Yacht Club could not have ng the sailing Clubs of the o testify those sentiments by e with a suitable device and a subscription list for this Wallace's, Patrick-street, in laloe presented a very ani-ding the unfavourable weae of people assembled at the th of the new steam-vessel oe and Shannon-Harbour—accustomed ceremony, gave ansdown," and immediately he best possible stile without uption, notwithstanding her om stem to stern. We can-Lient. Tully, of the Royal skill and superintendence se zeal and exertions in proand Navigation Company in itting. Many of the visitors y entertained by him in the ce in Killaloe. We cannot exertions of that praiseworthy Esq. President of the Steam endeavours to benefit this very thing conducive to her rests must, in the opinion of ty, be crowned with success.
 Advertisement respecting the and Household Furniture on ve already supplied their y, Mail-Coach Office, with Lottery; this drawing will a circumstance which the only to secure the sale of to produce a great advance
 . S. & Co. appear to have payment of prizes; Mr. nts of some Gentlemen who fortune favored in the late ainners of this City for Reply omitted until next post, For the perpetrators of the of the Flanerys in the sershill, near Kilmallock.—

of Captain White, R. N.

Robert M'Dowell, Esq. of Carlow, to Jane, daughter of Benjamin Hodgens, Esq. Supervisor of Excise, Clonmel.

DEATHS.

In Clare-street, Catherine, daughter of the late James O'Brien, Esq. of Quinpoole, near this City.

On Monday, at Dunmore, co. Clare, Mr. George Brew.
 At Dromaneen, aged 17 years, Eliza, daughter of Mr.
 Thomas Bolster, of Cork.

The Rev. James Murphy, for 36 years Parish Priest of Ballinascun, and Dean of the diocese of Derry, aged 80.

Aged 28 years, Holmes, second son of John Russell, of Newforge, county Antrim, Esq.

At Ballinterry, county Cork, Anne, wife of the Rev. W.
 Ryder, Prebendary of St. Michael's, in the diocese of Cork.

At Bonmahon, William Barron, of Castletown, count
 Waterford, Esq.

George Cottom, Esq. Alderman of Waterford.
 Mathew Deane, son of the Rev. Richard D. Freeman.

Captain John Daly, Galway Militia.

At her nephew's house, at Rathfarham, where she has long resided, Mrs. Margaret Cusack, aunt to Sir William C. Smith. Though she lived to the advanced age of 84, some will have it that Mr. O'Connell's motion hastened her decease. She was of the Roman Catholic Religion.

At Mount Jessop, county of Longford, Robert B. Jessop, Esq. aged 61. Mr. Jessop is succeeded in his estate by Francis Jessop, Esq. Lieutenant of the 60th Rifle Corps.

Mrs. Montgomery, wife of George Montgomery, Esq. of Mitchelstown.

At Silver-row, near Boyle, Michael M'Dermott, Esq. for many years Coroner of the county of Roscommon.

In Belfast, Samuel Campbell, Esq.

At Quebec, Richard, son of Assistant-Surgeon Griffin, 32d Regiment.

At Woolwich, of paralysis, Robert Bartholomew Lynch, Esq. late Major Royal Marines.

At Yarmouth, Lieut. George Dallas Barclay, R. N.

At the Cape of Good Hope, Philip Yorke Lindsay, Esq.
 of the Bishop of Kildare.

At Stapleton, near Bristol, of a brain fever, George Ho-Sharpe, Esq. This melancholy event was accelerated his being deprived, in a single day, of a beloved wife and his twin children.

At the Cape of Good Hope, Neville Somerville Cameron, Esq. of the Hon. East India Company's Civil Service, and of Lieut.-General W. N. Cameron.

After a protracted illness, at Bergany, Sir H. Dalrymple, Hamilton, Bart. aged 60 years.

In Pentonville, aged 71, Elizabeth, widow of Richard Caunter, Esq. of the Royal Marines.

At Calcutta, George Theophilus Collins, eldest son
 the late General Collins, formerly resident at Lucknow.

Aged 16 years, Evina Laura, second daughter of Nicholas Westby, Esq. of York-gate, Regent's-park, London.

In Bengal, Colonel Samuel Pidding Bishop, command 27th Regiment Native Infantry.

At Florence, Robert Plampin, Esq. Vice Admiral of the White, aged 79.

At Dum Dum, East Indies, Captain Morland, of the Bengal Artillery, son of the late Sir S. B. Morland, Bart.

In Lisbon, of fever, Mr. Edmund Grace, aged 27, Ensign in the Pedroite service, and son of John Grace, Sheffield, in the Queen's County, Esq.

At Dnas, in Bombay, Creighton Williams Sharpe, Esq.
 late Secretary to the Charitable Donations and Bequests.

At Liverpool, Lieut. Shipp, Author of the celebrated Memoirs. He was Governor of Liverpool work-house.

2154,

5547,

10,428,

All issued from THEIR luck 1759) announce the present

£16,000—£10,

THE LAST TO

They trust that the success distinguished their Offices w
 THEIR Tickets and Shares o

JAMES O'S

respectfully reminds the Pu Sale is the last to be ever d pleasure on the peculiar go purchasers of Shares at his hopes that in the present Lot a disposing of a large propo

The annexed acknowle Papers of last month from s

Prizes from him, prove "th ner" in which SWIFT & Co.

without deduction for Inte pretence whatever:—

(£1187 10s.)

SIR—I feel it due to Mess acknowledge the prompt and have been paid IN CASH

ONE HUNDRED, AND EIGHT

LINGS, Sterling, the amount became entitled in the late d

Sir, your most

To Mr. James O'Shaugh
 Mail Coach Office.

George's-street, Lit
 Messrs. SWIFT & Co.

Gentlemen—I beg to than me IN MONEY, TWO HUND

SEVENTEEN SHILLINGS, AND
 tion of a Prize in the Lottery

Gentlemen,
 (£296 17s. 6d.)

Messrs. SWIFT & Co.
 Gentlemen—I am obliged paid me through your Agent (Mail Coach Office) my sh

TWO HUNDRED AND NINE
 SHILLINGS AND SIX PENCE

Gentlemen,
 (£296 17s. 6d.)

J. O'S. has just received s and recommends an immediate

RATES.

This being the last I Prices will certainly be shor

fidently expected that long b Ticket or Share will be left u

PRESENT LO

Whole Ticket £14 2s

A Half, . . . . . 7 15

A Quarter, . . . . . 4 2

An Eighth, . . . . . 2 1

A Sixteenth £1 1s.