

shed two stones
 Sunday, which fell, side of a lady in seized in a few drunkenness.
 not likely to occur
 Lord Garvagh,
 ended the charges
 John Gore Jones,
 entary Committee and we dare him establish them."
 partial, not co-their oaths, being n by Mr. Cahill's
 (the late holder,) 13 leaps in the controversial sermon Cathedral, by the stantiation. His e men; judge ye rized version and ed, as having been rd's Supper. His as may be entirely ellectual capacity, e, which aided by nner of delivery, and convincing to course, altogether,
 ls we ever heard,
 c which has been ossible, by Roman erved ingenuity ated the Doctrine
 atiation, from the Pius's Catechism, echism authorized se, and the Church
 r from her Articles etail all the main their fullest and our and precision, persuasion in the f importance adellarmine down to y from the nature
 s, and the relation diate precedence of d not have under-the Institution of vesense, and from ll the passages in ch he reserved for ning next, at St.

At East Donyland, J. Grant Wilson, Esq. of Bristol, to Elizabeth, daughter of Captain Forster Maynard, of Donyland Hall, Essex.
 At Weymouth, the Rev. Richard C. Phelps, Rector of Cucklington, Somersetshire, to Caroline Anne, second daughter of Sir Hungerford Hoskyns, Bart. of Harewood, Herefordshire.
 At Handford, James John Farquharson, Esq. of Langton House, Dorsetshire, to Mary Anne, widow of the late John Phelps, Esq. of Montacute House, Somersetshire.
 At Glasgow, James Watson, Esq. to Christina, daughter of the late William Ewing, Esq.
 In St. Lucia, Lieut. Kepple, 36th Foot, to Isabella, only daughter of Captain Carmichael, Paymaster of the same Regiment.
 At Rome, J. Taaffe, Esq. county Louth, to Adriana, Marchioness Gabuccini, of Fano, in the Papal States.
 At Agra, Lieut. Short, 45th Native Infantry, to Lucy, daughter of Colonel Parker, R.A.

DEATHS.

At Aghnagaddy Glebe, the Rev. Dr. C. H. Ussher, Rector of Tullyaghinish, Diocese of Raphoe, and formerly Fellow of Trinity College, Dublin.
 At Kildare-street, Dublin, Captain John Keatinge Taylor, late of the 8th Royal Irish Light Dragoons.
 In Kildare-street, John Reynolds, Esq. late of Coolbeg, Donegal, and many years Captain in the Donegal Militia.
 In Eccles-street, Dublin, at an advanced age, Joseph Webb, Esq.
 At her house in Sinnot-place, Dublin, Henrietta Sophia, relict of the late Emanuel Bayly, Esq. jun. of Bath.
 At Killeagally Glebe, King's County, aged 29 years, the Rev. Henry Louis Mahon, second son of the Rev. Henry Mahon.
 Of hooping cough, at Marshall-hall, Elizabeth Mary Catherine, youngest daughter of Captain Monck Mason, R.N.
 In Kilkenny, Ellen, wife of Peter Smithwick, Esq. of that city.
 In Wexford, aged 74 years, Mr. James Furlong.
 In Broad-street, Daniel, only son of Mr. James O'Connell, leather-merchant.
 At Lapp's Island, Cork, Mary, wife of Alexander Sharpe Deane, Esq.
 At Glenfarn, Leitrim, Charles H. Tottenham, Esq.
 At Killarney, Mrs. Anne Clifford, mother of Mr. Daniel Clifford, of the Agricultural Bank.
 Of fever, Mrs. Morphy, wife of Mr. James Morphy, Governor of Tralee gaol.
 At Rathmines, in the bloom of youth, Hannah Thorp, granddaughter of the late Alderman Thorp.
 At Spireview, Rathgar-road, Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Harloe Irwin, Esq.
 At Mallow, Mr. Eugene M'Namara, late of the Grand Parade, Cork.
 In London, Mr. Joseph Anstice, Professor of Classical Literature at King's College.
 At Mile End, London, after a few days' illness, Captain Benjamin Coat, in his 60th year.
 At Grove End-road, Lieut.-Colonel Daniel Hutchins Bellasis.
 Suddenly, at Newnham-street, Edgeware-road, Commander William Heppell, R.N.
 In Bentinck-street, London, Mrs. Seton, wife of Captain B. Seton, of the Company's Military Service, at Bombay.
 Miss Hannah Burton, late of Gloucester-street, Queen-square, heir of the late Judge Burton, of the Island of Antigua.
 At Wellesbourne, Stratford-on-Avon, Cecilia Louisa, daughter of Lord C. Paulet.
 At Seend, Wilts, Emily Anna Margaret, youngest daughter of Lieutenant Colonel Hogge.
 At the Moat House, Stockwell, Surrey, Eliza Ann, wife of Mr.
 Alderman Farebrother.
 At Malvern Hill, Warwickshire, Edmund Greswolde, Esq.
 At Shyde, Isle of Wight, aged 83, Sir Christopher Sweedland.
 At Hamburgh, Lieut.-Colonel G. Wilson, late 65th Regiment.
 At Port Oratova, Teneriffe, in the 19th year of his age, Michael, the eldest son of the late Michael Murphy Collier, of Rathmines, county Dublin, Esq.
 At Hursole, Guzerat, Lieut. C. Yorke, Bombay Artillery.
 At Chunar, Matilda, wife of Surgeon White, 16th Lancers.

WILL

Lord Adare,
 Samuel Dickson
 Hon. J. P. Ver
 Very Rev. Dr. H
 Alderman Wats
 David Roche, E
 James D. Lyons
 Doctor Carroll,
 J. Keith, Esq.
 Doctor W. J. G

S.

Francis J. O'N

FUNDAME

- 1.—An Annu
 Guinea.
- 2.—That adm ballot—one bla
- 3.—That the
 Monday after St on Monday, the
- 4.—That a Co
 exclusive of the T
 of which five sha
- 5.—That the
 to one charitabl
 educating and a
- 6.—That no
 City and Count
- 7.—That no
 be admissable.
- 8.—That a ce tificate of the Orphan to be a produced before
 If the above doc
 of two credible
 facts.
- 9.—That, tog
 laid down as re Candidate prod
- 10.—That th
 forwarded to th month previous
- 11.—Orphan
 the number of successful cand shall have the g all Members vo 17th of March.
- 12.—That M

Valuable Investment.

TO BE SOLD by Private Contract for the residue of a term of 999 years, 80 of which have expired a clear