

the necessity of re-constituted, and which this county. The man- no tax the well dispo- t with more cheerfulness of the Police force at their protection they sheep, horse, or fowl el Furnell, Esq D.L. se- sq. it was unanimously he force be made.

er the county at large portion of the expense of Baronies of Glenquin, Costlea. The majority rates of those districts rce, the rate-payers of ht to be liable to taxa-oposed and Mr. Furnell expense be spread over s negatived.

Lieutenant refuses to ter Lord Loudonderry's esbyterian ministers of landlord and tenant.

y under the Encumbered nsisted simply of the sioners, whose signatures him (E. Byrne) the land to hold same, and to his At the foot of the deed urchase money had been d.

Q.C., (not Mr. Thomas s the candidate announced

H revenue, in this city, are eyance.

Locke, who has lately t of Clare, that the pea- large breadth of land ato or Lumpcr, which is

The ground selected for ; and, in the Western dis- iciently drained, is pre- certainly the best calcu- r. L. observes, that the so small, and the germina- crop of potatoes of a good potato peel (according to esenting a vigorous sprout tturn than a tuber about Samples of the seed have the past year as to enable its contributors to make a good report to the public at the ensuing annual public meeting on the 4th of April, when the Lord Bishop has kindly promised to preside.

12th, Caherconlish; 15th, ilballyowen; 22d, Castle- uff; 28th, The Kennel. he 14th at Maryfort; 19th Knockanira.

The Rev. Godfrey Massy thankfully acknowledges £4 from Mrs. Euraght and Miss Ellen Massy, for the Orphans, including £1 each from those benevolent Ladies, and £1 from Sir H. D. Massy, Bart., for the sermon; also £2 from Miss Jefferys, by Miss Mayo, and £1 from Miss Armstrong, for the P. O. Society. He also gratefully acknowledges £9 from the Summer-ville family, per Rev. Joseph Gabbett, for Bruff branch, whose account closes 31st inst.

Archbishop Murray confirmed 2000 children at St. Nicholas' Chapel, Dublin, on Tuesday.

The society of St. Vincent de Paul, Kilrush, thank- fully acknowledge £2 from Hugh Purdy, Esq. Water- ford, per Matt. Kelly, Esq. manager National Bank, for the starving poor.

The Association in Ireland for the Propagation of the Roman Catholic Faith, received from the 4th of February to the 4th of March inst. £199, including Rev. John Brahan, P.P., St. Mary's, Limerick, £1.

His fellow citizens are indebted to their worthy Mayor, for the great attention he has bestowed in abating nuisances in the streets, and particularly on Arthurs-quay, where there was one of long standing. Several large clamps of turf allowed by forestallers to encroach on the public passage, and this nuisance was the cause of much immorality at night. These have been removed to the great satisfaction of the well disposed inhabitants. There is much praise due to the Inspectors on the turf quay, for their promptness and attention at all times in seeing justice done the citizens in the sale and filling of turf.

The City Grand Jury have unanimously agreed to apply to the Inspector General of the Constabulary for transfer of Constable Thomas Hardy from New- castle to Limerick, where his services had been most useful, and are now more requisite.

John Graham alias Dickson, the Bank note forger, under sentence of transportation for life at the City assizes, had been a shopkeeper at Dublin.

On Thursday night last, a man named Michael Kielly, from Croom, when returning from this city, in state of ebriety, was attacked on the road near Ballinacurra, and beat so severely that he died after he arrived in Croom. No cause can be assigned for the murder.

Thady Cusack died in hospital last night of the in- juries he sustained by the fall of a bag of Indian corn at a store in Mallow-street.

Samples of dressed hemp, and of rope yarns made from it, the produce of the crop grown last year at Castle Oliver, in this county, were exhibited at the last monthly meeting of the Royal Society, for pro- motion of the growth of flax in Ireland.

Coffers, a carrier at Carrick, and Simon Haskins, labourer, at Clonmel, were accidentally killed on Monday.

Patrick Corbett swor knows Toonagh; reme live to Toonagh in 184 1849; often saw the workmen at Toonagh; Toonagh to Deerpark there from Deerpark;

The case having clo Mr. Butt contended liable for the rent of

The Judge said the that, were they able to

Mr. Fitzgerald calle jury to return a verdict

Defendant's counse them to go into a rebv O'Halloran, jun. was James O'Halloran, th fused on the ground t the defendant's case, in the first instance.

His Lordship said Toonagh was equiva would return a verdict

The jury found a v to be turned into a ve appear to the court Culhane was due to in right of his wife.

Patrick M'N

Mr. Clarke opene Fitzgerald stated the pass, brought to rec by plaintiff, in conse Apjohn, barony cess rates, and to satisfy ing oats, barley, and Morty Keogh swo defendant, Mr. Apjo the 10th Sep., when Caldwell came there M'Namara was not and Caldwell proceed pull a few blades Coote; they went a

Thomas Walshe s when a conversation Apjohn was it by hi barley, and meadow it was; knew Kiely Apjohn.

Cross-examined b before they were cut

John Ryan swo M'Namara's land; there were about price for oats at the allow 200 stone to t half an acre of barle stone; the meadow

For the defence