DEATH OF MR E F MCINERNEY

Many friends in the city will regret to hear of the death, which took place this morning, of Mr E F McInerney, a member of an old Limerick family, who for some fourteen years was salesman at the Limerick Furniture Stores, Cecil-street. His genial and courteous manner made him very popular, and his demise, after an illness of some duration, has been heard of with sorrow, while sincere sympathy is expressed with his family in their bereavement. Funeral takes place at 2 o'clock to-morrow from St Mary's Parochial Church for Mount St Laurence Cemetery.

HIGHER COMMAND CHANGES.

The King, on the recommendation of the Secretary of State for War, has approved the following appointments—Field-Marshal Sir Douglas Haig to be Field-Marshal Commanding-in-Chief the Forces in Great Britain, in succession to General Sir Wm Robertson; General Sir William Robertson to be General Officer Commanding-in-Chief the Army of the Rhine.

MESSRS DAVIE & CO

proposed increases.

Mr O'Shaughnessy—And the Council stand by whatever promise the Chamber of Commerce has made.

The recommendation of the Council was unanimously adopted, the increases being retroactive from the date of the motion.

After the Council had dissolved, it held a meeting in the Council Chamber addressed by Messrs Dowling and Dwyer, who decided to give the Council a new original demand, and failing to do so, to stop the machinery on the roads be stopped.

THE IRISH HUNTER,

Interest taken in Continental countries in the horse and horse-breeding is, if anything, increasing. This is well exemplified by the public recently in the French agricultural paper, "Journal d'Agriculture," 1918, 507. The article opens by stating that in these times of economic crises, it is important to know the resources of the country, and the possibility of replacing some by purchases abroad. For this reason should bear Ireland in mind as a source of the finest breed of horses suitable for remounts. The Dublin
