

in your power to make it to the borough. To put a resolution for the to propose an amendment. on Mr. Honan, and said nominated he wished to offer either was it because he intrude himself against the that he felt it his duty to ment, for three reasons— Vereker was the legal Weigh- be deprived of his rights— ion of persons of the highest ould not be deprived of his e he (Sir Richard) was one erved in his appointment. id, wish to create any un- slightest annoyance to the rained, under those circum- end ment "That we do not s. in further law proceedings, proposed."—(Hear.) econd the amendment. he emoluments of the Weigh- age, when estimated at £500 a e from personal experience, was not more than £200, and ver-rated. He was on the ltogether from their report, only dismissing one officer and as he opposed it at the now. following Protest, sent in by the present Weighmaster : en, and Town Council. Colonel the Hon. Charles Smyth City of Limerick, I hereby pro- which you may make to the office ds, and the duties of which he rs; and I hereby caution you ent, as law proceedings will be rference with said office, Colonel ighest legal opinions as to the men, ur obedient servant, ROBERT HUNT. or, and the appointment of a large majority, only five endment, viz.—Sir Richard ernard, Alderman Mulcahy, hos. E. Carte. Alderman Watson who was heavy cold, to state that if voted in the minority.] orn into office by the Mayor, ribed by Mr. Pigott. rated it was agreed to contri- nty Infirmary; £100 a year and £50 towards the erection eople of the Cathedral. ook place to the Tuesday after

John Stirling Napier, Esq. second son of Sir Wm. Milliken Napier, Bart. to Jane, only child of Andrew Browne, Esq. Auchintorlie.
At Holbrooke, Suffolk, Captain H. E. Austen, late 71st Regiment, son of Sir Henry Edmund Austen, of Shalford House, Guildford, to Elizabeth Mary, daughter of the late John Reade, Esq. of Holbrooke House, near Ipswich.

DEATHS.

In Dublin, in the prime of life, Eliza, daughter of the late Henry Rosslewin, Esq. The death of this interesting and truly amiable young lady has caused the deepest affliction to a very numerous circle of friends and relatives.
At the residence of his father, Hodder Wm. Roberts, Esq. Blackrock, Michael Hodder Roberts, Esq.
At Kiltrush, Mary Ann, widow of the late Mr. Thomas Peacocke, who died in this City last week, having only survived her husband about the same period.
Kate, daughter of Denis O'Sullivan, Esq. Terrace, Cork.
In Kiltrush, Mr. John M'Donnell, aged 80 years.
Mr. Bartholomew Walshe, Ormond Hotel, Clonmel.
At Rathmines, Anna, daughter of Charles Gavan Duffy, Esq.
At Lower Baggot-street, Mary, relict of Thomas Doolan, of Wingfield, county Tipperary, Esq.
Anne Chamney, daughter of Joseph Atkinson, Esq. of Millvale.
At Peter-street, Anna Maria, relict of the late Zachariah Carmichael, Esq.
At Athleague, Mrs. Mahon, relict of Thomas Mahon, Esq. of Strokestown, county Roscommon.
William Henry, Esq. of Island Bridge, the proprietor and founder of the celebrated cotton printing establishment.
At Kilmaganny, county Kilkenny, Mr. John Conway, formerly of Clonmel.
At Uxfield, Edmond Kelly, Esq. of Rookwood, Roscommon.
Valentine Irwin, Esq. J.P. county Sligo.
At his residence, Southwood House, in the ninetieth year of his age, Lieut.-General Thomas L'Estrange, of Larkfield, county Westmeath.
In Newry, Mrs. Maxwell, relict of John Maxwell, Esq. of Dundalk;
Susanna, eldest daughter of the Rev. H. C. Tuthill, Curate of Ballyshannon.
At Upper Buckingham-street, Catherine Harriet, only daughter of Mr. J. Fynamore, Inspector of Police.
At the residence of his son, Killea Glebe, Thomas Seymour, of Eyrecourt, Esq. aged 70 years.
At Haddington Terrace, Mary Ann, youngest daughter of John Hampton, Esq.
At Saville-row, aged 74, Robert Smith, Esq. brother of the late Rev. Sydney Smith, and formerly M.P. for Lincoln.
Esther, wife of Moses Montefiore, Esq. of Torrington-square.
Richard Spratt, Esq. late Captain 96th Regiment.
At Abercrombie-place, Edinburgh, William, eldest son of Sir William Maxwell, of Monreith, Bart.
At Eastgate House, Winchester, Fanny Percival, daughter of Edward St. John Mildmay, Esq.
At his residence, Gloucester-place, Portman-square, Don Manuel de la Torre y Antunano.
At Tavistock square, London, the Rev. Algernon Grenfell, M.A. one of the Masters of Rugby School.
At Well street, Hackney, William Bell, Esq. in his 84th year.
At Gibraltar, Henry Fitzgerald, Esq. Lieutenant of the Royal Artillery, and third son of Lieut.-Colonel Edward Fitzgerald, of Turlo Park, Mayo.
In Dawson-street, George Frederick, son of Alfred De Lesbart, Esq.
At Brighton, Lord Churchill, uncle to the Duke of Marlborough.
At Barnstaple, the wife of the Hon. Captain Trefusis.
At his residence, Cadogan place, Major-General Wm. Roome of the E. I. Company's service.
At Grove-end-road, St. John's Wood, Miss Selina Knight.
At his residence, Malvern-terrace, Islington, William Frederick Deacon, Esq. a distinguished writer in the periodicals.
At Rome, Lieut. Johnston, 12th Regt.

DISTRIBUTION

Two-THIRDS of the Pro Class of Policies (without for Management), are among those entitled to TABLE PRINCIPLES, viz. has contributed to that f At the First Investigation 1841, the Directors were averaging about 2 per insured, as exhibited in Table showing the additions which had been

Age when Assured under	Addi
30	£133
35	135
40	138
45	142
50	148

PARTIES EFFECTING SCHEME PRIOR TO 1ST THE ADVANTAGE OF ONE AT THE SECOND INVESTI IN 1846. Copies of Prospectus a be had on application at pany, 47, George-street, Company's Agents. By order of the

AGENT A

March 15.

MURDER A

WHEREAS, on the January last, as Foyleduff, was on his w on the road near Newpo who beat him unmerci which caused the poor o after, and which outrage pression that he was ab belonging to Mr. Philips the former occupants ha Now, in order to bring author or authors of suc offer a Reward of FIFTY sion and prosecuting to months from the date actually committed the or instigators thereof, o mation as may lead to th within said period.

Fanningtown, 8th