

—Michl. M'Grath, William Odell, Ballin-; Wm. M'Namara, ay, Michael Lynch, adjourned — Richard an; James Creagh, owling, Newcastle; Joan Harvnett, John amond.

It was postponed for on the points of law part of the Shannon d the insolvent's dis- e. chaps. 101 & 102, or the nonpayment of fishery laws. Mr. was indebted to the I should remain in ant's pleasure.

he owed it to his pro- e of this Court, the by cert in members to take their instruc- s previously engaged. e had been sent for County gaol, to take remained there two g sent his clerk to e was astonished to d made interest, and h he (Mr. O'Donnell) gate and prepare to e man who had acted he hoped his Worship such influence, until explain how that in-ceived a letter from- ise's hotel, stating he attend a heavy re- Mr. James Kean would at Mr. O'Donnell was himself had to com-addressing the court in whose petition was ad- said he had received on, of Clarina, stating licence, and he was tising before him.

happy to bear testi- Mr. Woodburne con- in the county prison,

Royal Artillery, only son of Lieut.-Colonel Faddy, Royal Artillery, to Albinia Harriet West, relict of Martin West, Esq. Governor of the Natal District, daughter of General and niece of Admiral Sir Charles Sullivan, Royal Navy.

DEATHS.

After a few days' illness, of small pox, Richard Cooper, Esq. of Dunboden Park, at his residence, Longford Lodge, near Kingstown, brother to Edward Cooper, Esq. of Markree Castle, county of Sligo, and son-in-law of the late Viscount Frankfort De Montmorency.

At Belmont-place, Stillorgan, aged 88, Patience, relict of Sterne Tighe, Esq. of Carrick, county Westmeath, and daughter of the late Dr. Blundell, Dean of Kildare.

At Glenfield, Kilmallock, of typhus fever, taken in the discharge of his duties to the sick poor of the union, Timothy D. M'Carthy, Esq. M.D. in the 23d year of his age.

On Toureen Terrace, Passage West, Margaret, only child of the late Capt. Robert Hall.

At Newcastle, Mr. Charles O'Grady, harness maker.

At Bellegrave, Clontarf, John, son of J. Gresham, Esq. of Temple-street.

Cornelius, son of the late John O'Keefe, Esq. of Tallow, co. Waterford.

Yesterday, in Broad-street, Mr. James Hayes, late Grocer.

At Ardnaree, Ballina, county Mayo, Simon Bredin, Esq.

At Kingsland House, county Roscommon, at the advanced age of 80 years, John Conmee, Esq. sen. for 50 years a magistrate for the counties of Sligo and Roscommon.

At Waterloo-road, Dublin, John Smith, Esq. of Annville, in the King's County.

William Henry, son of Charles Scott, Esq. J.P. of Straghery, county Tyrone, aged 18 years.

At Kingstown, Elize, daughter of the late Lieut.-General Alexander Cuppage.

At Ardskeigh, Margaret, wife of John Simms, of Cork.

Anne, eldest daughter of the late M. Ennis, of New-row, West, Esq.

At Dundrum, county Dublin, John Anderson, Esq.

At Castletlayney, Monaghan, Abigail, wife of Dr. M'Birney.

At Bray, Richard Roe, Esq. late of Johnville House.

In Derry, Alexander Monroe, Esq. C.E. Ordnance Survey.

At Clifton, on the 8th inst. after a long illness, in the 74th year of his age, James Wallace, Esq. late of Waterford, for 40 years Collector of Customs of that port.

At Barton-under-Needwood, Mary, daughter of the late Jonathan Peel, Esq. of Accrington House, Lancashire, and cousin of Sir Robert Peel.

At Paddington, Elizabeth, wife of John Thorogood, Esq.

In Kingsdown, Bristol, the Rev. William Reeve, for many years Missionary in India.

John Browne, Esq. of Salperton, Gloucestershire, D.L.

In Sussex-street, Jenima Anne, widow of the late Captain Thomas Henry Doyle, Paymaster 75th Regiment.

Sarah, wife of George Collett, Esq. of Walter's Hall, Monkton Isle of Thanet.

At Highgrove, near Tetbury, Gloucestershire, Miss Paul, eldest daughter of Walter Paul, Esq. in consequence of her dress catching fire.

Mr. Joseph Rogerson, Coroner of Wigan.

At Bayswater, Major James Anderson.

At Leamington, Joseph Whalley, Esq. of Lincoln's Inn.

Mr. James Laidlaw, one of the most extensive sheep farmers in the Highlands. The deceased was first taught his letters, when a child, by James Hogg, the Ettrick Shepherd.

At Gloucester-place, Kentish-town, John Malyn, Esq. F.R.C.S. Lecturer on Anatomy and Physiology at the Westminster Hospital School of Medicine, Surgeon to the Western Dispensary.

At Tunbridge-wells, Elias Walker Durnford, Lieut.-General and Colonel Commandant of the Royal Engineers, aged 75.

In Myddleton-square, London, Mrs. Ann Ingram, aged 76.

At Little Holland House, Kensington, George Pardoe, M.D.

At Bordeaux, Charles, son of Lieut. Clubley, R.N.

At the Pau, in the Pyrenees, the Hon. Alexander Saville, second son of the Earl of Mexborough.

George Barclay, Esq. Solicitor, Summer-hill.

Joseph Maxwell, Solicitor, North Cumberland-street.

Ladystown, Woodfield barony of Talbot Mount Neale, Wat and Highfields, situ county of Carlow; vaddy, Lower Rail biltagh, and part of of Middlethird, an Grogane, Ballymur shane, Trummer, p tersknock, holding Elley's Walk, situa Forth, and count Knockaney, Bally magh, situate in t county of Limerick Belan, Pill, and G denominations, situ Moone, in the co fifth parts of the la Carraneagh, Drum Killeronan, the To lintogher, the lands elnane, Teremoe, Ca Rathduff, Tullycus Woodfield, Laircov and their several s lands and premises erill, and county of and houses Nos. 6 the south side of S lin; all that a ce Dwelling House at held under lease fo Sold for the purpos thereon.

Now, all persons said premises, who informed that the cation which any s fore them, on notie Henrietta-street, I from the date here

And all persons on the said premises to lodge a brief sta the said office, with date hereof; and dresses, in order th time and in what tablished.

Dated this 6th

MURDOCK GRE having the carriag Dublin.