HAN. of the EXCHEQ. in explanation that the general principle of the bill the first instance, to the prevention of etailing spiritous liquors who did not tualling houses—secondly, to the com-all retailers in the capital to pay a li-20l. per annum; all persons in the col.; in all other cities and towns 8l.; counties at large 5l.—that houses for tail of spirits shall not open before sun-the morning, nor remain open after a hour of the night—nor before the con-of divine service on Sundays—nor as a ng place for payment of journeymen or ers, to entice them to dissipate their s.—That all persons taking out licenses have the approbation, by certificate, of a istrate, as orderly and proper person, and er into sufficient bonds for the due obserce of these particulars; which bonds must lodged with the commissioners of Revenue, be by them rigidly sued for at the expence the defaulters, on the certificate of a magisate of a violation of the compact by the per-ns licenced.

He then stated several other propositions for regulating with respect to the searching of private houses, by an officer, accompanied by a magistrate—but these propositions, he observed, might be liable to objections as to their feverity, and he should, therefore, leave them for discussion whenever the bill should come before the house.

Sir J. BLAQUIERS recommended some further regulation, similar to that already adopted in the Revenue laws, which rendered the town-land or barony liable to a fine, where private were discovered, as he thought it

LIMERICK.

We have received certain information, that those wonderful productions of nature—the foreign WILD BEASTS—will most certainly be in Limerick, on Monday the 11th of April, and at Tralee, the Monday following.

Last Wednesday night, some villains stopped, a Dealing man, near the Market house, and robbed him of four Guineas and a gold Watch.

Last week, the following uncommonly horrid murder was perpetrated at Fuorovore, in the Barony of Glaneroug, County Kerry. Daniel Sullivan, being in possession of said farm, stocked it with cows, and his brother James Sullivan repeatedly carried them off. At length the latter and younger brother, insisting on building on the farm, Daniel informed him he should not; on which James carried a loaded Blunderbuss and shot his brother dead on the spot; after which he made his escape.

The Sheriff's Court, advertised in this Paper to be held at Ballyscanlan the 24th of March, is postponed till the 5th day of April; and the Court at Newbridge, till the 7th.

On Friday last, a man was committed to our county gaol, charged with the murder of a man, near Bruff, on the 17th inst.

On the 8th inst. the Revd. Deane Hoare, by a composition payment of 5l. released Patrick McMahon a city debtor, who had been confined from the 1st of last November for the sum of 14l. 9s. and on the 17th inst by a composition payment of 5l. he released Patrick Sheehan, another city debtor, who had been confined from the 27th of last November for the sum of 50l.; both by a donation of ten guineas for the purpose, from John Prendergast Smyth, Esq; and both ill of a fever at the time.

Keenan, wife of Mr. John Keenan, Master of the brig Fox of this port—her amiable disposi-on endeared her to all who had the felicity of her acquaintance.—The 12th inst. in the 89th year of his age at Dromoland, (the seat of the Right Hon. Sir Lucius O'Brien, Bart.) Nicholas McInerheny, formerly of Coonagh in the north liberties of Limerick, Esq; a gentleman universally esteemed by a numerous acquaintance.— Last Sunday, at Coolmore, near Cork, Mrs.
Newenham, wife to William Worth Newenham, Esq.—Last Thursday, Benjamin Baker, of Ballydavid, county Tipperary, Esq.

PERMIT me to express to you your Protection—I have reand I trust not unfaithfully:—Bound to you as I am, by every tie of Gratitude and Affection, if I have the good fortune to become the Object of your Choice, rest assured that the In-
