LATE MR. JOHN ROCHE, ELTON

The death took place a few days since of Mr.
John Roche, of Elton, who will be favourably remembered by many citizens as the proprietor of Roche's Dancing Academy, which for more than half a century was a very popular institution in the city. Mr. Roche, who was a great favourite, passed away at a ripe old age, and his funeral on Sunday was largely attended. The chief mourners were his sons, James, Frank, and John Roche. Father O'Connor, P.P., and Father Humphries, C.C., officiated.

DISASTROUS IRISH FIRE.

Six Horses Burnt to Death.

Damage estimated at over £2,000 was caused by

CHARGE OF ATTEMPTED MU

By Throwing from a Train

James Molloy, ship's painter, was at La to-day charged with attempting to Elizabeth Townson by trying to her, and then throwing her fr train near Carnforth. Witnesses state heard screams and the banging of the door. The umbrella indentified as Miss son's property, and the canvas bag pre in the prisoner's possession were found empty compartment.

Medical evidence was that Miss To injuries were consistent with having been and thrown from the train.
