DEATHS.

On the 28th instant, in Edenderry, Elizabeth, wife of John Brownrigg, Esq. with whom she has been a loving and faithful companion for fifty years. She was beloved and respected by the inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood—she was foremost in promoting and encouraging industry among the lower classes of her neighbourhood, and of private charity, where most found wanting. She departed this life as composed and resigned as she lived, satisfied to conviction of the mercy of her Divine Redeemer. She has left a disconsolate amiable family to mourn her removal, but the feelings of her afflicted companion are indescribable.
