

London, ... churches, is allowed, announced a splendid Cork Diocesan Scrip-Counsellor Gibson was registered for one attending.
 Natural and Commercial the invaluable services William Mitchell, Esq. d, desirous of testi-r approbation of his sound knowledge, and aided by the zealous, Dublin Board, have, is concern to a degree king business of this me and description of registry for the County the borough of Cashel, was large and well
 tion—springers were h prices; sheep and r more than remunemand, and seemed to est and most splendid be at the approaching of which the town is g, lodgings preparing,
 every other accommo-
 c.
 to market by James Lord Dunally, Kilboy, 16st. hide only 6½st. b. Second carcass, 5st. 12lb. offal 6st.—
 those oxen were offered lers at £24, and from finish this spring the er for Lord Dunally, nd from his superior to the above uncom-
 £50, leaving a profit
 in the habit of stall eding, viz. two feeds of d the middle of the day
 e hour after this feed, water as they wish.—
 swelling after drinking.

At St. Mark's, Kennington, Robert Stevens, Esq. surgeon, of Kennington, to Christiana Macdonald, second daughter of the late Major Briscoe, of the Royal Artillery.
 In St. Andrew's church, Plymouth, Captain William C. Browne, R.N. to Susanna, daughter of the late Vice-Admiral Linzee.
DEATHS.
 At Castle Park, in the North Liberties, in her ninth year, Selina, youngest daughter of Christopher Delmege, Esq.
 Wednesday morning, at his father's house, Prospect-Row, the Rev. Michael Hickey, Roman Catholic Curate of Croom, aged 30 years. The arduous duties of a laborious mission brought on an inflammation of the lungs which terminated his youthful career, and prepared him to hear those consoling words of his Divine Master, "Enter thou into the joy of the Lord."
 On Wednesday last, at his residence, Tullilase-house, county Cork, John Sullivan, Esq.—a gentleman who through a long course of life discharged the relative duties of husband, parent, and friend, and his death is a source of deep affliction to his sorrowing family and numerous friends.
 Robert Popham, sixth son of Giles Daunt, Esq. of Lapland, county Cork.
 At Castlemaine, Kerry, Catherine, wife of Francis Giles, Esq. and daughter of the late Malachy Moynehan, of Freemount, Esq.
 In Holles-street, Dublin, William Kelland, Esq. son of the Rev. Mr. Kelland, of Bideford, Devonshire. He was a Senior Sophister and Student of Divinity in Trinity College.
 At Richmond Barracks, Dublin, Romein, son of Lieutenant Burke, 12th Regiment.
 At his father's residence, Mrs. Catherine D'Arcy, daughter of John Tomlinson, Esq. of Dublin.
 At Fairview-avenue, Mrs. Bergin, relict of the late William Bergin, Esq. of the Custom-house, Dublin.
 At Newcastle, Charles, the son of Mr. John Moore, saddler, very interesting youth.
 Mr. Thomas Sheahan, founder of the Trades' Association, Cork.
 In Youghal, Mr. William Barry.
 In Bandon, Hewit Poole Baldwin, Esq.
 At Clermont, county Wicklow, Richard Adams, sixth son of John J. Leonard, Esq.
 In Mount Sion Monastery, Waterford, Mr. Richard O'Shee, one of the Brothers of the Christian Schools.
 At Clonmel, Miss Jane Shaw, of the Society of Friends.
 In Prussia-street, Dublin, Mr. John Hughes, for many years an officer in his Majesty's Excise.
 At Rathmines, Richard Behan, Esq.
 In his 82d year, the Rev. John Chambers, Curate of Leck, diocese of Raphoe, for 58 years.
 In London, Albert, son of P. Pusey, Esq. and Lady Emily Pusey.
 In Park crescent, Portland-place, Miss Margaret Cavan.
 At Newnham, near Cambridge, Louisa Andrews, daughter of the late William Neville Hart, Esq. of Acton, Middlesex.
 At Bath, in his 85th year, Henry Haffey, Esq. native of Armagh, formerly of St. Vincent's.
 In her 80th year, Sarah, wife of the late Richard Hobart, Esq. Cheltenham.
 At Bath, Eliza, wife of Lieut.-Colonel Forbes, Royal Artillery.
 At Haslewood Hall, Yorkshire, the Hon. Elizabeth Stourton, sister to Lord Stourton.
 At Gateacre, near Liverpool, Henry Roscoe, Esq. barrister-at-law, youngest son of the late William Roscoe, Esq.
 At Greenock, the Rev. Dr. John Scott.
 At Kingston, Jamaica, Captain Nenon Alexander Connor, h.p. a Special Justice. This gentleman's death, which was accelerated by the arduous duties of his office, is the sixteenth among the body of Special Justices in this Island since the 1st of August, and the twelve during the nine months.
 At Demerara, Lieut. Bristow, late of the 25th or King's Borderers.
 At Sydney, New South Wales, Mr. John Egan.
 At Montreal, Maria, wife of the Rev. A. Townley.
 At St. Andero, Lieut. G. R. Lynch, 2d Queen of Spain's Lancers.

James F. Gordon, Esq.
 James Borthwick
 Earl of Lord Viscount Str
 J. E. Baillie, Esq. M
 Lieut.-General Robe
 Vice-Admiral Sir J. P
 ford, Bart. M. P.
 Hon. A. Macdonald.
 J. Mackillop, Esq.
 Sir Peter I
 Francis Wa
 Archibald Cockburn,
 John Connell, Esq.
 W. P. Craufurd, Esq.
 John Gardiner, Esq.
 J. Irvine, Glennie, Es
 Charles Herslet, Esq.
 Henry Nelson, Esq.
 Office—No. 4, LIE
 This Company was Public every Benefit viz. :—
 1.—Rates of Prem
 most other offices act profits.
 2.—The assured m
 the extent of "two-t generally divided by same time are secured Capital of the Corpor securing a specific sur 3.—Premiums may ment, or by Annually
 4.—No entrance m
 5.—Persons insured
 and repass, in time o
 another, without losin
 FIR
 Property is insured usual Rates of Premi or Damage by Lightn Farming Stock insu
 without the average C Prospectuses, with formation, may be ob