

ev. Robert Montgomery, of their affectionate respect. Dr. Thirlwell, has announced, to appear next month. so furious did the earthquake, that great damage was done to the town. At Pollokshaws, the fall of a house upon the head of John Mutters, 79 Elizabeth Brown, 19, Catherine Ryan, 13 years. reputation, was murdered Monday night, by a man with her. The miserable bed room with six fatal and the murderer, who is the savage deed. The left sticking in her body. St. Giles, the scene of this wanted by Oliver Cromwell, presents one feature of a magnificent oaken staircase. The unfortunate stout, strong woman, of dissipation had disfigured woman, but abandoned her John Tawell was hanged at subsequently received £25 in the metropolis. and John Payne, labourer, of Ditchburn, & Co. Old iron, which fell and crushed masters have resolved upon ton, on the manufacture. chapel was opened at Preston Guild, who remained up chapel all night. Derby, oil and colour man, of possession, himself and, almost certain destruction. adjacent houses, and burnt Dmer and Mr. Gregg. destroyed by tar, and sold as to avoid the 20s. duty, 50 tons per annum in England have been re- the registry Bill. They are without a certificate they entirely exhausted. have formed a defensive at the present assizes in Eng- light. ablishment has been disco- a new ink, clear as water, but n a beautiful black. geese have been added to ndsor. with oranges, was wrecked unday last. end died of apoplexy on Mon-

cery, comprised with Colonel Fitzgibbon for Office and Clerk engaged in London preparatory to and during the progress of the Bill ..	500 0 0
	130 0 0
Gross Cost, ..	£18,741 0 0

Mr. Wallace, M.P., for Greenock, has resigned his seat in Parliament from ill health, brought on by over exertion in the discharge of his duties.

The act of last session abolishing imprisonment for debts under £20, and whose operation is found very unsatisfactory in England, by large and small traders, will not be extended to Ireland.

The Shannon Commissioners are contracting for a navigable channel in the river at Boyle, stone bridges, and quay walls at Cootehall and Knockvicar, Roscommon.

The Earl and Countess of Seafield have arrived in London, and engaged a suite of apartments at the Clarendon hotel, New Bond-street.

Judges Ball and Jackson arrived in Dublin, on Wednesday night, having terminated the Cork Assizes, which held for seventeen days!

John Copley, Esq. is foreman of the Grand Jury, sworn for crown business at Rathkeale Quarter Sessions on Thursday.

On Thursday last, a meeting of the merchants connected with the Butter trade of this city, took place at their committee room, Corn-market, when resolutions for the advancement of the trade were agreed to. An adjournment took place to Monday the 28th inst. when the new arrangements, to commence from the 1st May, will be finally completed, and a committee formed.

Michael M'Carthy, labourer in Messrs. Fisher and Quinlivan's corn store, upper William-street, was crushed to death last Thursday under one of the lofts laden with wheat, which fell for want of propping up. Five other persons near at hand providentially escaped the same untimely fate.

At the annual meeting of the Limerick Turnpike Board, this week, the following were appointed Trustees under the Act:—Hon. John O'Grady, Knight of Glin, Thos. Lloyd, Richard Bourke, Wm. O'Grady, Rev. Thos. Croker, John Westropp, John Lowe, Charles Coote, George Furnell, Thos. Locke, and Wm. H. Barrington.

The Dublin mail coach arrived here a few minutes late yesterday morning, having lost a leader on the road through Naas, where a horse in harness, near the barracks, took head, dashed violently against the coach horses, and striking out the hind legs, kicked one of the leaders to death.

POOR-LAW AND REPEAL.—A numerous meeting of the Repealers of this City was held last night in the Northumberland rooms, Mr. J. T. Devitt in the chair, when a vote of censure was passed on those guardians in the above interest who were absent from the last meeting of the board, on Mr. Monsell's election as chairman; and upon the Repeal guardians who had voted for that gentleman, in preference to Mr. Powel, specifying Mr. James Clampett, Mr. Patk. Coghlan, of Singland, (who declined voting), and the Mayor (absent) whose name was received by the meeting with hideous yells and shouts of disapprobation. One of the speakers in his address said, 'they were not to be trampled on by those who, by sly villiany, stole themselves into important places in the city, and, having put the public money in their pockets forsook, those to whom they and White made a poor verdict was returned, by his death in consequence inflicted by the police, execution of their duty and Joseph Tabateau, and the remains of the friends on Thursday, en route to Duharrow, of the peasantry assembled in a cortege. The two prisoners morning transmitted to Nenagh gaol, under a party of Captain Stee Ginnane, though danger is to die, he will die 'ga confederates not in custody, inspectors Lewis and Enri and active on this occasion probe the extensive corruption which has so brutalised the extensive district. It may be Rockite, Ryan, died with Cappamore, and that the chase, placed their six guns, desiring the police to capture the intrepid men did, utter In the desperate and un- the Police shewed unda- hope their heroic conduct thing more substantial than this passing eulog

Walter Molony, Esq. and formerly of Clare, Lieutenant, to Ballina endeavour to discover the in which duty it appeared been successful.

Sir Wm. Lynar, Stipendiously in typhus fever at

Tuesday night the horse Harseleap, county Wick King's County, was at shot fired through the well was then sitting in escaped, having received found scattered about is a Repealer.

Tuesday night the d Coote, of Seynally, near party of burglars, who through the windows, carried away some property of the lands of Cool murdered.

Sunday morning, a house, Armagh, the D. D., late fellow T. of Aughalurcher, was constabulary, under J. Hill, and his party, and by the ai houses and offices were

The Hon. George O' Mr. Dvas, R.M. and