

Limerick, April 7, 1791.

SPRING ASSIZES, 1791.

Members of the Grand Jury of the co. Clare: James Macnamara, Moyrielsk, foreman; hon. Burton, William Daxon, Poole Hickman, ph Pencocke, Francis M'Namara, Doolen, mas Arthur, Poole Westropp, James Moloch, Charles M'Donell, Thomas Morony, Will-

Stracpoole, Edenvale, Thomas Crowe, Irew Creagh, Cornelius O'Callaghan, Boyle deleur, John Arthur, Thomas Studdert, ry Brady, Samuel Spaight, George Stud-

Clonderlaw, Christopher James O'Brien, rge Studdert, Kilkishen, ir Nicholas Conway Colthurst, Bart. and pson Stawell, Esq; have, at the request of ny respectable friends, declined standing canlates for the county of Cork.

The following truly melancholy accident hapned on the 29th ult. at Killarney, co. Kerry:

Woman was brewing ale, and three of her children were standing with her, one a boy of 7 years old who had just come in from school.

When the wort was boiling, by some unfortunate accident the pan overfet, and the four unhappy bystanders were more or less scalded.

The boy died in about an hour, a most miferable victim; but the mother and the other two childred are not in danger.

Extract of a letter from Tralee, April 2.

"We have authority to assure the public, that Sir Barry Denny, Bart. is speedily to be created a Peer. His Peerage will be first announced in this kingdom. A vacancy for a Knight of Shire for co. of Kerry, will confe-quently take place.

A few days ago was committed to jail, in consequence of surrendering himself to justice,

Mr. James Sullivan, for the murder of his brother, Mr. Daniel Sullivan, in Glanerough, a short time since, as mentioned in a former paper. A sister has administered to the property of the deceased, which is considerable.

"Sameday Christopher Byrne, the deputy constable, who shot John Duggan, of Rathkeal, the 30th of September last, as he was making his escape, was committed to jail, having surrendered himself to justice, to take trial for said murder."

Tuesday night a young man was stopped near Baali's bridge, and robbed of a gold watch:— and same night another person was knocked down, and would probably have been murdered, had not some people come to his assistance, on which the villains fled. There is every reason to believe that these nightly depredators, are the sanguinary gang, who, a few nights before, are supposed to have put an end to the existence of an honest, industrious man (Mr. John Quilty, hatter) by knocking him down, and throwing him over the bridge. It is hoped, that speedy and effectual means will be used to apprehend this nightly banditti, and prevent their prowling on the unwary passenger.

MARRIED.] Last Sunday, by special licence, at the church of Athlacca, by the Rev. Samuel Maunfell, Robert Hyde Holmes, of Killgorave, Esq; to Miss Carpenter, eldest daughter to James Carpenter, Esq; of Evergeen, near Cork.

by a Canal 30 Feet wide, and 100 divided by eleven Inclosures. The House most commodious, the Offices truly compleat, the Gardens walled and planted with the best Peach, N. Orange, Apricot, Cherries, Pears, Plumbs, &c. &c. that England or Ireland could produce, all in Full-bearing, and in a most flourishing state; in short is unnecessary to say any thing in recommendation of the place, as it cannot in any Country be excelled in beauty of situation, and its continuity to sport of all kinds, Fire, Water, and every other matter that renders a Country Habitation really of value, sufficiently denotes it to be most desirable.—Proposals will be received by RICH. EVANS, Esq; at Doon, until the end ing Allizes of Ennis, when the Tenant or Pu-chaser will be declared, and immediate possession given. N. B. The Furniture (which is well cho-
