

apply at the Limerick Chronicle Office,
by hand, on the grounds.
April 9, 1825.

WANTED,
Parish, a person qualified to fill the PARISH CLERK and SCHOOL- -ing man, without incumbrance, would the Chronicle Office, where reference can April 9, 1825.

TO CONTRACTORS.
S to be received by the Rev. WILLIAM Castle-Connell; JOHN PHILLIPS, eld; or Mr. JOHN SPARLING, of ring the Roof of the Church of KILand the inside work thereof.
April 9, 1825.

BOG AND ASTE LANDS.

to purchase several large tracts of BOG STE LANDS—Persons wishing to dise requested to send full particulars, statuation, price, and, if Let, whether on hands of the Proprietor, to WILLIAM Abbey-street, Dublin. If by Letter

NOTICE.
to purchase between ten and fifteen of Meadow Land, with a Farm House, of Limerick or Tipperary. Application
ne Rev. JOHN LATIMER, Limerick.
April 9, 1825.

TO BE LET,
ices and Twenty-one Years concurrent,
Subject to redemption,
THE LANDS OF LOUNLUSK.
by Mr. MICHAEL LANDERS, and his under tenants,
CONTAINING 229 ACRES, ate of the Right Honourable the EARL of LISTOWEL.
ads are situate in the barony of Coonagh,
y of Limerick, and are within 6 miles of 12 of Limerick.
writing (post paid) will be received by LEAR, Patrick-Street, Cork, who will nt when the value is offered.
April 9, 1825.

SPRITE.
iful high bred strong HORSE. will his Season, at the NEW ROAD upper NE-STREET, Limerick, at the low price EAS, bred Mares, and ONE GUINEA and thers, Groom's fees included, to be paid
e is led out; it may be necessary to ob-Horse takes after his Sire's Blood—He versee, own Brother of the celebrated Smolensko, (who he very much resembles) ing by Sir Peter.—SPRITE, is a beauti-with Black legs, 15½ Hands High, un-g and swift, having proved it by beating Horses in Ireland, many of them the ng's plates, (see Racing Calendar) and consequence to those who wish to make g fine Horses, is, that Sprite's edly as fine and as promising as any ever and for Strength, Symetry and Beauty, en equalled. Any person wishing to be fact, have now an opportunity near this

At Solisborough, County Wexford, the Lady of the Rev. Solomon Richards, of a daughter.
At Blackrock, Cork, the Lady of Colonel Middlemore, of a daughter.
At Lymington, the Lady of H. T. Roberts, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

At Kiltalla Church, County Kerry, Lieut.-Colonel Frederick Jones, 25th Regiment of Foot, to Arabella, daughter of the late Richard Bienerhasset, Esq. and niece of Lord Vestry.
In Dublin, William Fahy, Esq. of Dorset-street, to Eliza, daughter of Edward O'Dwyer, Esq.
Anthony Brabazon, Esq. of Drogheda, Collector of Excise, to Catherine, daughter of the late H. Eustace, of Carlow, Esq. formerly Major in the 4th Dragoon Guards, and relict of the late F. W. Hopkins, of Pos-seltown, County Meath, Esq.
On Monday evening last, at Gloucester Lodge, the Earl of Claricarde, to Harriet, only daughter of the Right Hon. George Canning. The ceremony was performed by the Lord Bishop of London.
William Betty, Esq. of Enniskillen, to Jane, only daughter of E. Jackson, Esq. of Fitzgibbon-street, Dublin.

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, at his seat, Ballyvoeen, in this County, deservedly lamented, Edmond Bourke, Esq.
In Cornwallis, on Thursday, rather suddenly, Mr.
James Nolan, for many years the Proprietor of a respectable Classical Academy in this City, and whose death is On Tuesday morning, at the Deanery-House, where he came last week on a visit to his Curate, the Very Rev.
George Stevenson, Dean of Kilsenora. This Gentleman's residence was at Westcourt, near Callan, in the County of Kilkenny, on a Living in the Gift of the Ormond Family, of the estimated value of between 2 and 3,000l. yearly. The value of the Deanery of Kilsenora, was comparatively small. He was esteemed as a most exemplary Clergyman and a good man.
At Littleton House, Mrs. Grady, wife of the Rev.
Thomas Grady, sister to the late and aunt to the present
Earl Dunraven. A Lady most universally and deservedly esteemed while living, and equally lamented on her decease. Her remains were deposited on Wednesday last in the Family Vault at Knockany.
In Dublin, Major J. F. Rolleston, of Frankfort, near Dunkerrin—a gentleman much esteemed and sincerely regretted.
In London, Cornelius Gavin, Esq. formerly a merchant of this City.
In Killaloe, aged 81 years, Mr. John M'Cormac.
In Charlemont street, Dublin, aged 82 years, Forward
Rumley, Esq. forty-two years Surveyor of Dunleary.
At Ballinamona, County Waterford, Lady Alcock, relict of Sir John Alcock, and sister of Mrs. Poulter, whose death we noticed in our last.
In Cork, Andrew, youngest son of Wm. Lucas, Esq.
In Great Britain-street, Dublin, Mrs. C. White.
In Killarney, Lieut. John Lawlor, half-pay 36th Foot.
In Athlone, Abigail, wife of A. Fleming, Esq.
In Dublin, Mrs. Woodroffe, relict of Abel Ram Woodroffe, of Gorey, County Wexford, Esq.
Aged 15 years, Margaret, daughter of Doctor Beatty, of Molesworth-street, Dublin.
On Patrick's-hill, Cork, Henry Duggan, Esq.
On the Brickfields-road, Cork, Mr. N. Peterson.
At Eton, of fever, Charles, youngest son of the Rev.
Doctor Woodward, of Glanworth. It is intended by the Provost, to raise a monument, at Eton, to his memory.
In Dublin, Mr. W. Howard, Inspector of coal meters.
At Piershill, Maria Lucy Jane, daughter of Colonel Pipon, 6th Dragoon Guards.
In Ceylon, Lieutenant Felix O'Hara, of his Majesty's 16th Regiment of Foot.
At Rangoon, on the expedition against the Burmese,
Major James Lewis Hill, 41st Regiment.

THE MARKETS.

Altho' the receipt of Corn from the country is limited,