DEATHS.

On Sunday, at his residence, at an advanced period of life, William Murphy, Esq. of Ballinamona, for many years a Magistrate of the county Tipperary. To a kind and amiable disposition was united the urbanity of an accomplished gentleman, endowed with all the attributes which society admires and humanity dictates, with a mind to counsel and a heart to render services when occasion required. His death is regretted by a numerous circle of friends, whose chief consolation is, that his merits, though equalled, were but rarely excelled. His remains were, on Tuesday, interred in the family burial vault of Clogher. Mr. Murphy was uncle of Mrs. Edward Kenny, of Ennis.

On Monday night, at Lakelands, Cork, after a short illness, aged 25, Arthur Crawford, Esq. son of the late William Crawford, Esq. of that city.

On the 6th inst. sincerely regretted by her family and friends, Catherine, relict of the late John O'Halloran, Esq. of this city, and sister of John Kelly, Esq.

At Claughton, Cheshire, Anne, wife of John Ludlow, Esq. and daughter of the late Samuel Hobbs, Esq. of Cork.
Her pious and exemplary life in the service of her Divine Redeemer, gained her the grace of dying in pure love of Him.

At Leeson-street, Rebecca, daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel White, of the Tipperary Regiment.

At Castlemartyr, Eliza, wife of Captain Rose, and daughter of the late John Bales, Esq. of Springfield, county Cork.

At Ennis, Quartermaster-Serjeant Grant, of the Clare Militia.
In North King-street, of decline, Mrs. Mary Teresa O'Brien, late of Douglas-street, Cork.

Martha, second daughter of the Rev. A. Sims, Harcourt-street.
In Waterford, of decline, Mr. Ord, one of the equestrian company of Mr. Batty.

At Upper Gloucester-street, Mary Anne, eldest daughter of the late John Gannon, Esq. of Sara.

Brinsley Euseby, son of the Rev. Calvert F. Moore.
At Fitzroy-square, Daniel Beale, Esq.

At Winchester, Lieut. James Ramsay, of the St. Helena Regt.
In Liverpool, Lieut. John Street, formerly Adjutant of the 5th (or King's Own) Regt.

At Glasgow, Capt. N. M. Burt, late of the 3th Madras Cavalry.
At Rothsay, Mr. John Macintosh, merchant.

At Edinburgh, John Robertson, Esq. merchant and stockbroker.
At West Crosscauseway, Edinburgh, Miss Walker, sister of the late Colonel Walker, Royal Marines.

At Potter-row, Edinburgh, Mr. John Menzies.
Mr. David Forbes Grant, of the General Post-office, Edinburgh.

At Stobo Manse, the Rev. Alexander Kerr, Minister of the parish, in the 85th year of his age, and 55th of his ministry.

At Leith, William Lindesay, Esq.
In Arundel-terrace, Kemp-town, Brighton, Benjamin Brooks, Esq. aged 84.

William Dickenson Nethersole, Esq. of Essex-street, Strand.
At Brighton, Dr. Kelly, aged 86.

In Chapel-street, Belgrave-square, Col. T. H. Elliot, of Braes Castle, Perthshire, son of the late Right Hon. Hugh Elliot.

At Dinapore, Frances Augusta, daughter of Lieut. Wm. Francis Ring, 21st Fusileers.

At Moulmein, Mr. Wm. George Hariman Steward, 50th Regt.
At Fort William, Lieut. C. E. Steel, 61st B.N.I.

At Calcutta, Mrs. Mayne, wife of Quartermaster Mayne, 49th Regiment.

At Hastings, on the 31 inst. aged 10 years, Martha Henrietta, daughter of Donough O'Brien, Esq.

At Philipstown, Mr. William Scully, jun.
At Triton Lodge, Susan Louisa Theresa, daughter of F. P.
Laye, Esq. late Captain 25th Regt.

At Paris, John, second son of Thomas Farrell, of Merrionsquare, Esq.

On the 31st ult. at Newcastle, county Limerick, in the 74th year of his age, to the deep regret of every individual who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, Justin, eldest son of the late Denis McCarthy, Esq. M.D. To his friends he was affectionate and sincere—to his associates gentle and unaffected. His urbanity and good nature will be long remembered by those who knew him intimately, and his many excellent qualities held in dearest recolection by his afflicted relatives.
