

an ill-aimed shaft, how-fall harmless to the ground.
ture consideration, that it might block to some of their weaker forth, to recoil upon the Rev.
men of the Dove-like spirit and (during his Missionary labours acterize 'the Franciscan Chair that the Controversial Sermons ry week, till all the subjects of es of England & Rome shall have actorily discussed. Archdeacon Flock on Friday evening next, at tinuation of his last subject.— mediate cause.

rdcandrisk, county Wexford, is sh Division of the Royal Wes-annon Regatta for this season will dle of August. The beautiful ue 30 guineas, presented to the ants of Kilrush, for four-oared y gentlemen, held by the Sea-Limerick, has been challenged
rs. Paterson of Kilrush.

HASI—In consequence of the the handicap which was to have deferred. Friday brought but 12st. 2lb. ridden by his owner, rem, (Mr. Westropp's, Attyflin.)
; the distance three miles. The perate state in consequence of ces looked formidable indeed to eple chase horsemen; the odds ainst the 'wee mare'—they cer-rt, as Alhambra is fully 17 hands t 13 $\frac{1}{2}$ . At the word go, Mr.
ost at a tremendous pace—indeed evere at the meeting—was never Alhambra never appeared to fell back off a ditch about one is perceiving that in consequence up. This is Marjorem's seventh spirited owner deserves much her against so gallant a nag as bravely and steadily ridden by fencing surpasses description.

County of Limerick Hunt Cup y of members of the County of ach, three miles, to be ridden by ee to the post. Mr. Jameson's Mr. Leake's Fitzroy, (Mr. Locke.)
ld's Alhambra Junior, (owner.)
ace, Governor leading, the rest g about two miles, the posts haventlemen had to wait in a severe n put up, when they started, and meeting ended in favour of Gover-about a neck. Mr. Callaghan's nish; indeed it was the opinion owes as much to his jock as to good one.

's horses started; all went off in ons' white mare and rider fell eehan's horse came in, but lost not rounding the last post.
lay morning being fine, a multi-the ground before one o'clock, excellent heats run by the six ed the previous evening. This y of the whole: the horses were well jockeyed—there were several rs seriously hurt; and Mr. Keat-aking two heats of the three that an average over 15,000 persons ad not a single accident occurred, f anything like riotous conduct

At the Cathedral, Bangor, Bettsworth Pitt Shearer, Esq. to Elizabeth Mary, daughter of B. Hewitt, Esq. of the Mount, Bangor.
At Northumberland-house, by the Bishop of Carlisle, the Rev.
Edward Thompson, cousin of the Earl of Lonsdale, to Miss Ellen Percy, fifth daughter of the Bishop of Carlisle.
At St. Luke's, Chelsea, Charles Dickens, Esq. of Furnival's Inn, to Catherine Thomson, eldest daughter of George Hogarth, Esq.
of York-place, Chelsea.
At St. Paul's, Bedford, John Humphrey, Esq. M.P. to Anna Maria Jane, daughter of the late James Dyson, Esq. and niece of Colonel J. F. Dyson, of the Bombay Establishment, At Edinburgh, Antoine Baron de Struve, Councillor of Court, and Secretary to the Imperial Legation of Russia at Frankfort, to Saintclair Stuart Trotter, eldest daughter of the latter William Trotter, Esq. of Ballindean.

DEATHS.

On Monday, at Smithstown, county Clare, in the prime of life, Anthony Sheehan, Esq. jun. aged 24 years, a young gentleman sincerely regretted by his family and friends.
At the house of her son, Ann-street, aged 77 years, Catherine, relict of the late Oliver Stephenson, of Ballyvouhan, in this County, Esq.
Of measles, Cornelius, youngest son of George O'Callaghan, Esq.
of Mary-Port, county Clare.
In Stephen's Green, Dublin, the infant son of the Hon. Waller O'Grady.
Sunday, in William-street, Charles, infant son of Paul Erson, Esq.
Of decline, at his father's house, Rathbané, near this City, Samuel Merrick, Esq. deeply and sincerely lamented by a numerous and respectable circle of relatives and friends. This young gentleman bid fair for eminence in the medical profession, of which he was a student, and had nearly completed his studies. His many amiable qualities endeared him to all who knew him; and during a tedious illness, he very strikingly displayed the hallowed power of true religion, in a complete victory over the fear of death, and in full possession of the peace of God, through Faith in his Redeemer Jesus Christ.
In Great Charles-street, Dublin, Louisa, wife of George Kidd, Esq. and sister to the late Major Cormick, of Castle-hill, county Mayo.
In Dublin, Rodney Robert Peacocke, Esq. eldest son of the late Rev. Robert Peacocke, of Rosse-House, county Tipperary.
Mr. John Regan, of College-green, Dublin.
At Drommin, near Killarney, Mary, daughter of Geoffery Lynch, Esq. late of Drommin, and now of Guelph, Upper Canada.
Mrs. Heard, relict of the late Edward Heard, of Ballintubber, county Cork, Esq.
In Cove, Randal Howe, Esq.
At Castlelyons, James Fitzgerald, Esq.
At Kinsale, aged 79, William Spread, Esq. late Lieut.-Colonel 37th Regt. eldest son of the late John Spread, of Forest, county Cork, Esq.
At Youghal, of fever, Patrick Ronayne, Esq.
At an advanced age, Ellen, relict of the late Charles Gibbings, Esq.
of Ballinspittle House, county Cork.
In Buttevant, of consumption, Mr. P. Mullane, surgeon.
At Boyne-hill, county Meath, of gout in the stomach, Lieut.- Colonel Gerrard, half-pay 23d Light Dragoons.
At Courtmasherry, of consumption, Mary, wife of W. M'Creight, Esq.
Richard Higginson, Esq. of Yoletown, Wexford.
At Moorefield, county Kildare, Mary, wife of Mr. Patrick Doyle.
At Brade, near Rosscarbery, Eleanora Ferguson, daughter of Rev. Edward P. Thompson.
At Thurles, Mr. Thomas Ryan, of Rafana.
At Loughbrickland House, the infant daughter of Nicholas Charles Whyte, Esq.
At Mallow, on 11th inst. in the 27th year of his age, Mr. St. John Galwey, mate, late of H.M.S. Andromache, second son of Dr. Galwey.
In Rutland-square, aged 79 years, Mary Anne, widow of the late George Ryan, of Inch-house, Tipperary, Esq.
In Lower Baggot-street, Dublin, in the 80th year of her age, Mary Anne, relict of the late William Daniell, Esq. Receiver-General of the Stamp-office, Dublin.
At New Ross, William Stirling, Esq. Comptroller of Customs.
At Rusco, Tipperary, aged 75, Edmond Burke, Esq.
Mr. Thomas Tinsley, of Clonmel, builder.
At New Ross, Lieut. John M'Cormick, late of the Revenue Police.
In Chapel-street, May fair, London, Louisa, last surviving daughter of the late Sir Charles Rich, Bart. of Shirley House, Southampton.
In Orchard-street, Portman-square, Henry Adley Wright, Esq.
At the Exchequer Office, Whitehall-yard, William Godwin, Esq.
in his 81st year, author of "Caleb Williams."
At Poplar, Loretta, widow of Captain E. Foord, H.C.S.
At the residence of his father, Vice-Admiral Dobson, Lieut. Hyde Parker Dobson, of the Royal Navy.
In his 93d year, Thomas Jackson, Esq. of Camberwell-terrace.
At Fortess-terrace, Kentish-town, aged 79, Mrs. Margaret Bryan.
At Collumpton, Devon, Mrs. Murch, aunt to the late Right Hon.
George Canning. Mrs. Murch attained her 81st year the day she died, and also the anniversary of her marriage.
At Maid's Morton, Bucks, in the 82d year of his age, Lieut.- Colonel Bidwire, late of Aylesbury, for many years magistrate and deputy-lieutenant for the county of Buckingham.
At Hanley, Staffordshire, Mr. James Lewis, formerly a quartermaster in the 25th Light Dragoons, and present at the siege of Sringsapatam.
At Morton House, Bucks, aged 82, Lieut.-Colonel Robert Browne.
At Dittisham, Devon, Georgina Caroline, daughter of Lord Henry Kerr.
At Dawlish, Devonshire, John Cooke Yarborough, Esq. of Camps-
mount, near Doncaster.
At Cheltenham, in his 78th year, the Rev. John Davis, many years Rector of Clonallen, in the See of Dromore, and Chancellor of that Diocese.
General Lord Cathcart, Colonel 2nd Life Guards.
At Glasgow, Capt. Chas. Campbell, of Bellgrove, near Campbelton.

In the Conee-room of the Royal Exchange, the office of the Assignee, Mr. Samuel Baird chant's-quay; and of his agent, Henry W. Grac Frederick-street, or of

JOHN LITTLEDALE,
April 13. 11, Upper Ormond

THE SUPERIOR RUNNER HIGH-BRED RACE HORSE
THE DISTINGUE

WILL stand this Season at Elm-hill, Count rick, Three miles from Rathkeale, (the and 17 Miles from Limerick, all Mares Three and three shillings to the Groom, Season to co
the 1st February, and end on the 1st August.

Good accommodation as usual for Mares and excellent Hay and Grass at Eight shillings per w or Bran, if ordered, at Market price. No Mares w until the money is first paid, and any Mares remain, must have all expenses paid before th removed.

The DISTINGUE is a dark Chesnut, fifteen inches high, of most perfect racing shape and sing and is particularly well-bred, being descended fr Race Horses England and Ireland ever produced got by Waxy Pope, (bred by the Duke of G winner of the great Derby Stakes at Epsom, & whose blood is so much approved of in Eng DISTINGUE'S Dam, was the Mare Edward's Escape, (the best Horse ever bred Grand Dam Young Heroine by Old Bagot (c celebrated Horses Swindler and Master Bago Great Grand Dam Old Heroine (Tom Turf's Da (son of Cade,) Great Great Grand Dam by Snap. sister of Regulus by the Godolphin Arabian, & Thus combining Eclipse, with the stout runni King Herod, Highflyer, Cade, (Sire of Match Cade, &c. &c.) with the peculiar advantage crosses of Snap, of speedy notoriety. For furthe as to pedigree, see Stud Books. The DISTING himself the best Horse of his year in Ireland, at Two Years Old in 1829, at the Curragh Septe ing, Sweepstakes of Ten Sovereigns each, at 8st three others—on Thursday of the October M year, he won Sweepstakes of 25 Sovereigns, 20 Two years old; Colts 8st 3lb.; Fillies 8st. two course, beating Regulator and Paget, five others p 6 to 4 on him—Saturday, same meeting he w Sweepstake of 25 Sovereigns, 20 forfeit for Tw beating three others, two paid forfeit. The fol at the June meeting, he won Sweepstakes of Ten each, Twenty Sovereigns added for Three years weight to all others of his year, and at the Septe ing same year he won the Wellington Stake Sovereigns each. At the April meeting at the 1831, he again won the Wellingtons, giving weigh older than him, and carried several pounds mo other of his year; nine started for this race, seven Friday of the same meeting he won the chall Wellingtons, carrying six pounds more than weight, and the next day he won the Three year Plate of One Hundred Guineas, beating five oth June meeting same year, he won the Kirwan Sta Sovereigns each, beating Philip, Pioneer, Vat, (c Wedge) and two others, Eighteen paid forfeit;
of the same meeting, he won the King's Plate of Guineas for Four years old, beating six others, DISTINGUE, and after the heat 8 to 1 on him at the Curragh October Meeting following, he v Cup, with Sweepstakes of One Hundred Sover beating Regulator—Pioneer paid forfeit 3 to 2 o 1832, he broke down running for the Wellington been since put to Mares at the Curragh, where and Foals are considered very promising, being some and racing-like. He is only Eight years good constitution, and is a sure Foal Getter.

All mares sent to this Horse will be paid attention.

Elm-Hill,