London Corn Exchange, April 10. Our Market was very largely supplied with Wheat this Morning from Essex, and Kent, exclusive of a considerable quantity that remained over from last week's arrivals, the demand for which was very slight, and what few sales were made were at full 2s. per quarter under the prices of this day week. The Barley trade was very heavy, although the supply was small; a few picked samples obtained last Monday's prices; but the middling qualities were nearly unobtainable, at a reduction of 2s. per quarter. Oats are 1s. per quarter cheaper, the arrivals far exceeding the demand; which is the case with Beans and Peas.

TO THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF LIMERICK. LIMERICK, APRIL 8, 1820. GENTLEMEN,

A CONTEST which parallels in the history of your City, has closed the Independent Interest has exhibited an increase of strength, which its most sanguine supporters could scarcely have anticipated. For the final establishment of your Rights, it will be necessary to appeal to the House of Commons; but claiming, as we do, our legal rights only, we cannot appeal in vain to the Constitutional Guardians of the privileges of the People. I cannot sufficiently thank you for the generous support you have given me—a support which I shall endeavour to justify, by indefatigable industry in discharging your public business, and by a firm and zealous vindication of your public Rights.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, With Great respect, Your most obedient, & humble Servant, THOMAS SPRING RICE.
