Offensive language applied in a moment of passion was the cause of the collision. To the satisfaction of all in Court, the Jury returned a verdict of Not Guilty, in both cases.

At Tralee Quarter-Sessions, George Keays was sentenced to seven years transportation for larceny. Upwards of thirty others were sentenced to various periods of imprisonment, for riot, assault, and robbery.

The next Kerry Sessions commence at Killarney 23d June, and at Tralee the 1st July.

Lord Headly circulated an address to his numerous tenantry on leaving Killarney, last week. He praises their general good conduct, peaceable habits, and the improved cultivation of their farms, exhorting them to use great care in the choice and selection of their farm servants and labourers, as the character of those persons is of essential importance to their own private interests and the public good.

Mr. Dominick Browne, Member for Mayo, has written, to express in the strongest terms his deep regret at having been prevented from attending the late Assizes of Mayo, in order to take a lead in bearing the highest testimony to the public and private character, and judicial conduct of Baron Smith.

Mr. O'Connell has addressed a letter to the People of Ireland, which appears in first page. He expresses much chagrin at the paucity of petitions and signatures thereto, for the Repeal of the Union. He now admits explicitly that any motion towards Repealing the Union will be met by an overwhelming opposition in Parliament.

It is expected that Mr. Morgan O'Connell, M.P. for Meath, will succeed his relative, Mr. Charles O'Connell, M.P. for Kerry, in the representation of the latter County next month, at least such is believed to be the family arrangement.

Mr. D. Callaghan, and Dr. Baldwin, representatives for the city Cork, sailed yesterday to attend their parliamentary duties.

DEATH FOR LOVE.—A young woman named Mary Quin, who resided in the Old Town, had some years received the attentions of a young man named Shine, to whom she became engaged. Shine, however, had determined to break off the connection, and as the readiest means of doing so, determined to proceed to the new world. He called on his betrothed on Sunday night to state to her for the first time, his determination. The poor girl was almost struck dumb, and could barely ask him whether he purposed sending for her. The inconstant replied "he could not tell, he could make no promises." The wretched girl was stupified—she ran from the man who had despised her devotedness, reached her room, told her father that her lover was proceeding to America, flung herself on the bed, and before the evening of the next day she was a corpse!
