

rather meet his here they met in court-house for
 meet Mr. Steele
 )
 n's kind feeling
 like a gentleman
 n which he said
 he had resided ery object which O'Brien. (hear) d, and thanks
 ified conduct in mprovement of TURDAY.
 on, and Crips,
 nd the Satirist
 had been called
 of the Dublin
 ty. Mr. Ward,
 ed agents here,
 per, and where
 m Baker. The
 ped paper was
 n his shop £20.
 nd 54 of George
 the paper.
 Newspaper; he l be to it, and
 shall proceed no
 e paper would
 e an improper mmissioners of ublin, it would
 ates of Dublin
 ces of Limerick,
 y their duty as
 or the Dublin
 duty, is that a matter has been
 would subject
 it.
 re is the Paper,
 h) and you will
 and Advertis-

late Baron Lottus, of Nuremberg, Germany, and late of Windsor Lodge.
 At Paris, at the Church of the Assumption, Faubourg St. Honore, Baron Louis Robert Jaen de Noe, of the 5th Hussars, son of Count de Noe, Peer of France, to Louisa Helena, eldest daughter of the late John Burke, Esq. of York-place, Portman-square, and the Island of Jamaica.

DEATHS.

Suddenly, in Castle-Connell, last Sunday, James Wilkinson, Esq.
 formerly of the 44th Regiment.
 In William-street, Thomas, son of the late John Carroll, Esq. of this City,—a young gentleman much regretted by his family and friends.
 On the 5th inst. at Captain Westby Perceval's, R.N. Baggot-street, Catherine Vallancy Lysaght, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Lysaght, Esq. of county Clare, and Leeson-street, Dublin.
 The Rev. Robert Mullins Mant, B.D. Archdeacon of Down, at the Archdeaconry House, Hillsborough, after a short illness, which terminated rapidly and unexpectedly early in the morning of Wednesday, the 9th instant, in a premature death, just after he had entered the 49th year of his age. Earnest and diligent in the discharge of his professional duties, he was endeared to his parishioners for his ministerial fidelity, as he was for his domestic virtues to his personal friends.
 At his residence, Dunaveny, Sligo, Christopher Gilmor, Esq. at the advanced age of 95.
 At Ballafoyle, Queen's County, Thomas Carter, Esq. aged 92 years.
 In Dublin, in his 18th year, William, eldest son of Henry Bunn, Esq. of Great Britain-street.
 At the house of her aunt, Mrs. Knight, Patrick-street, Cork, of consumption, Miss Eliza Rogers.
 Suddenly, of apoplexy, James Mackay, Esq. of Ring, county Cork.
 In Mallow, Timothy Linihan, Esq. of Commane, eldest son of the late Cornelius Linihan, Esq. of Killura.
 At Dungiven, Hugh Boyle, Esq.
 At Clontarf, Melinda Sophia, youngest daughter of A. Murray, Esq. Mount Murray, county Westmeath.
 At his house at Arderry, county Kilkenny, Robert Thomas Carew, Esq. at the Patriarchal age of 87 years. Mr. Carew was the oldest surviving High Sheriff of that county.
 At Ballyseskin, county Wexford, Henry Archer, Esq.
 At Boyle, Mr. Costello, relict of the late Thomas Costello, Esq.
 of said place.
 Alderman William Scott, of Derry.
 In Londonderry, Mr. Matthew Roulston, at the advanced age of 75.
 At Fahan, aged 72 years, George M'Connell, Esq. formerly of Londonderry.
 At Cushendall, Londonderry, aged 76, Anne, relict of the late John M'Donnell, Esq. of same place.
 In Knightsbridge, near London, Major-General Sir Sigismund Smith, Commandant of the 3d Battalion of the Royal Artillery, and Knight Commander of the Hanoverian Guelphic Order, aged 70.
 In Grosvenor-square, London, at the house of Sir Wm. Alexander, Lieut.-Colonel the Hon. Seymour Bathurst, third son of Earl Bathurst.
 He served in the battle of Waterloo.
 In Devonshire-street, Portland-place, Jane, relict of the Rev.
 Lucius Coghlan, D.D. and mother of the late Very Rev. Sir George Bishopp, Bart. Dean of Lismore.
 At Hastings Lodge, the youngest son of Frederick North, Esq. M.P.
 At Windlesham, Surrey, Henry Cromie, aged 21, third son of Major-General De Butts, Royal Engineers.
 At Plumstead-common, Kent, Maria, widow of the late Captain George Lefebvre, of the Royal Horse Artillery.
 Awfully sudden, John Hargreaves, Esq. of Bank-hall and Ormerodhouse, Lancashire, late Colonel in the 3d Royal Lancashire Militia.
 At Norwich, Mrs. Richard Chetham Strode, widow of the late Lieut.
 Colonel Chetham Strode, of Southhill-house, Somersetshire.
 At Speen, Berks, Frederick Page, Esq. one of his Majesty's Deputy Lieutenants of the county.
 At Airdrie, John Baillie, Esq. Provost of that town.
 At Mirfield Hall, Notts, aged 87, Mrs. Frances Cartwright, of Marnham,—sister of Major Cartwright.
 At Malta, retired Commander Henry St. John, R.N.

WINE AND WILL DIS
 and CO
 in which a pro
 years been carri
 J. L. intend attend as usual
 trade) at his s
 EXACTLY

20
 JAMES
 WILL sell
 22d Inst
 50 Hhds.

21
 For s
 THE House, adjoining accommodated v
 ever can be give Application to street, Limerick

CO
 22
 FROM the fi
 be agreed o
 lately held by
 and upland se
 WILLIAM COP
 DANIEL O'GR

23
 Clonlon
 MR. RUSS
 M give imm Paddock, being within ten minu
 nearly five Ac
 stocked with the excellent order.
 Application a

24
 And possessio

Prime New Flaxseed.
 MERCE SHANNON has for Sale at his Concerns