

been dismissed for threatened, whilst attending a Police &c. for the recovery land, who has an in-lunatic on Monday,
 The petitioner was dwelling-houses on the were unroofed and ere ejected, which no ge.
 Chapel and Asylum for have received from the ng sums, remitted by lation of the debt due p of Salisbury, £10;
 ons, £21 12s.
 we have to announce ok place last night at ng illness of two years, ased entered the army vely engaged in foreign od of British history.
 Lord Mountjoy in the e death of that noble-regiment at the battle led. He held for many plin Militia, from which his enfeebled health.
 dinner by the citizens in the chair. The din-Hall, and the company
 on. and Learned Mem-ngham and Hull, calling their determination that ain justice in legislation. n the Bench were the y, M. Gavin and Francis rdered against Catherine for stealing 10s. from O'Shea for assaulting yons for stealing forty st Mary and Michael
 ; against James Cahill with his apprentice.—
 ch on the part of the eading to Baal's-bridge, ew flag-way raised there, ecommendation of Mr.
 cellars of all the shops in to Mr. Boyse, that they
 , and they conceived it
 , and that Mr. Walker redress the grievance, by level of the shops. Tho. sman, Esq. was fined 10s. duty. Informations were ine Slatery for assaulting kinson. Edward Collins ng.

At Tunbridge Wells, the Rev. Richard William Wake, youngest son of the late Sir William Wake, Bart. and Rector of Courteenhall, Northamptonshire, to Harriet, youngest daughter of the late Right Hon. Henry Grattan.

DEATHS.

At Carndota, county Clare, on Thursday, the wife of Richard Daxon, Esq. a lady sincerely regretted.
 In William-street, John, the infant son of the Rev. Joseph Bayley.
 In Mungret-street, on Wednesday, Eliza, daughter of John Unthank, Esq. aged 7 years.
 In Dublin, Mrs. Bradshaw, sister of Mrs. Windham Magrath Fitzgerald, of this City.
 On the 9th inst. at Kilty House, county Clare, Anne, the beloved wife of Edmond Brady, Esq. leaving a young family of nine children to mourn the premature loss of a fond and kind parent.
 On the 2d instant, at Cherbourg, France, after a long and painful illness, Thomas Chatterton, Esq. formerly Major in the 27th Regt.
 In Kevin-street, Dublin, Michael M'Mahon, Esq.
 At his father's house, North Main-street. Cork, Mr. James Levis.
 At Kanturk, Harriet, second daughter of Peter Bunworth, attorney, deceased.
 Mrs. Wade, late of Richmond-hill, Rathmines.
 Suddenly, in Kilkenny, Mr. John Kavanagh, apothecary.
 William James, only son of James Denham, Esq. of Fairwood Park, county Fermanagh.
 In Athlone, James Sproule, Esq. sen.
 In Wexford, of apoplexy, aged 75, Peter M'Gauran, Esq. apothecary.
 Mr. John M'Intire, of Derry.
 After a few hours' illness, in Ballinasloe, at the residence of her grandmother, Mrs. Carroll, Ellen, eldest daughter of Mr. Thomas Armstrong, of Loughrea, late of the 4th Dragoon Guards.
 At Ballinasloe, P. C. Weldon, Esq. Sub-Inspector of the County Galway Police.
 In Galway, Mrs. Kelly, wife of Mr. John Kelly, painter and glazier.
 At Cove, Mr. Miles M'Carthy.
 On Sunday, aged 19, at Summerville, near Mallow, Nicholas Robert, youngest son of Alderman John N. Wrixon, of Cork. The premature death of this young gentleman is a source of the deepest regret to his parents and relatives, by whom he was deservedly beloved. He was a student of the University, in which he obtained every classical honour. His removal has now left the field open to other aspirants, while he is participating in those glorious and better honours purchased and made sure to him by a Redeemer's blood.
 At the house of her son-in-law, Thomas Lalor Cooke, Esq. of Parsonstown, Mrs. Ellis Antissell, relict of the late John Antissell, Esq. and sister of the late Peter Burke, Esq. of Elm-hall, Parsonstown.
 In York-terrace, Regent's park, Captain A. Gordon Duff, late of the 14th Light Dragoons.
 In Eaton-place, London, Mrs. Branthwayt, relict of Captain Branthwayt, 2d Dragoon Guards.
 In Portugal-street, Grosvenor-square, Miss Elizabeth Mandeville, sister to Lady Rycroft, At North Bank, Regent's-park, Ann, wife of Captain Smith, late of the 2d Life Guards.
 Aged 23, Elizabeth, only daughter of George Macguire, Esq. of Walworth-common.
 In Liverpool, Mrs. Foulds, sister of Wm. Wigney, Esq. banker, Brighton.
 At Marshalls, in Standone, Herts, aged 98, John Martin Leake, Esq. of Thorp Hall, Essex.
 In Norwich, Mrs. Talbot, relict of the late J. Talbot, Esq. Wymondham, and mother of the Countess of Morley, in her 85th year.
 In the Cathedral Close, at Lichfield, the Rev. Henry White, M.A. aged 75, Sacrist of the Cathedral, Vicar of Grebsey, county of Stafford.
 In Salisbury, Eleanor, relict of the Rev. H. Good, Rector of Stockton, Wilts.
 At the house of her father, George Haigh, Esq. of Mount, near Halifax, Yorkshire, the Lady of Capt. Wellesley Ash, of the 33d Regt.
 At Ventnor, Isle of Wight, Sophia Margaret, eldest surviving daughter of the late T. M. Welsh, Esq. of Merefield Lodge, Essex.
 At Glasgow, Capt. Chas. Campbell, of Bellgrove, near Campbelton.
 At Rome, in his 18th year, George, second son of Timothy Collins, of Cork, Esq. solicitor.
 At Binbrooke, Upper Canada, John, son of Henry Benner, Esq. late of Blennerville, Kerry.
 At Van Dieman's Land, Mr. Pitcarn, son-in-law of the late M. Legge, Esq. of Garrane, county Tipperary.
 At Santander, of yellow fever, Captain Nicholas White, of the Queen of Spain's Royal Rifle Corps.
 At Bengal, Lieut. and Quartermaster Henderson, 11th Dragoons.

Season, are still being with unabated ardour a without the slightest Thursday last, I have first on Good Friday ev our beloved Redeemer; sive to the mystery of lieved in by both Church day, on the Gospel of th what inexcuseable effr dence assert that the C what is of more impor Limerick readers, it is recently made by the densely crowded Congr persons, to the effect t preaching from borrow which occurred in the p to prove it. This, I h hood, as was ever expr sincerely pity this sorr support a bad and totte tened Protestants, I pa respectable Roman Ca appeal to the candid then in the Temple
 were not my words enlightened Protestan ministers, if I am able one of their ministers, has been delivered a fe I never alluded to Ser and positively deny hav in this City, in which in my possession, and see light; it will be a fa which these so yclepe cised over the minds seek to perpetuate, fo cause of the calamitie that this was "a spec pulous accuracy, whic in) have characterized Sir, I presume it is un that when I undertook gion, characterized b idolatrous and blasphem self with the reflection and an honourable ca
 and nothing but truth the salvation of souls formed the congregati appeared in the Chair
 few tinselled, borrowe on the whirl-wind of by taunts and gibes raked up anew, by go vain, foolish, and po and always deprecate never adapted such object, I again repeat blessings of Christian dispelling the mist

| Provincial Bank | Share. | Paid. | Last Price |
|-----------------|--------|-------|------------|
| City of Dublin | 100 | 100 | 100 |