

of that Establishment, proposed, in the most and handsome manner, to give the use of his and the attractive services of the Alpine engaged previously by him on very expensive to aid them in the sudden and unexpected into which they were thrown by the late fire; securing to them individually for a the same salaries as received from Mr. Pau-Manager of the late theatre, as well as the benefits were to have enjoyed, had the season proceeded was anticipated. It would be vain to depict the feelings expressed by the several performers for the conduct of Mr. Seymour. A vote of thanks to Seymour, Esq. was proposed by Mr. Raymond, Manager, seconded by Mr. Harrington, the theatrical director, and warmly responded to.

the following appeared in part of our last impression:
Mr. Villiers has given notice of another motion to the Corn Law question on the 12th May, by for a committee of inquiry.

The British Queen steamer arrived at Portsmouth 15 days from New-York. The President and were occupied with the Boundary question.
His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant and suite moved from the Castle, to the Vice Regal Lodge.

The standard is raised, the flag is unfurled, and Mr.
Connell has pronounced, ex cathedra, that this country shall be separated from England, and the supremacy of the British empire destroyed.—Mail.

Monday James Bardsley, a young man, convicted Yorkshire assizes, of the murder of his father at the village of Quick, suffered the extreme sentence
the law in front of York gaol.

Head-quarters of the Scots Greys, under Lieut.-Col.
Latham, will arrive in Dublin, from Ballincollig, on 15th May. Major Clarke, commanding the squad-at Cahir, will move from thence for Dublin, on the inst. with one troop, leaving at Cahir one trood Capt. Ricketts.

The head quarters of Cavalry in the Southern dis-are to be removed from Ballincollig to Cahir.
This day, four recruits left for Cork, to join the Depot at Sheerness, and three to join the 70th 14th, at Fermoy.

The opposition has ceased between the Dublin and Gow and the St. George Steam Packet Company.
They have entered into such a close compact that the company is to receive two-thirds of all the passages, and the latter company one-third. Each company to run a vessel every alternate week from Cork Dublin. In consequence of this arrangement the George company have raised the fare to £1 3s.

The Right Rev. Dr. Briggs has appointed the Rev.
Hogan, of Tipperary, archdiocese of Cashel,
the mission of Oldham.

PHILOSOPHICAL AND LITERARY SOCIETY.—On Monday evening a meeting of the committee was held, George Westropp, Esq. in the chair, at which the following attended:—Right Worshipful the Ord. R.E. Sir. Thomas Deane, W. R.
F. W. Vanderkiste, James Paine, W.
Owen, C.E. T. English, J. Kelly, and T. Fogarty, Secretaries. Several important subjects connected with the immediate working of this society, were arranged, and it was decided that the Mayor (Dr. Franklin) should deliver the introductory lecture on the 15th May. Lecturers are to be appointed on various interesting branches of science.
Lectures on various subjects of Literature and Philosophy, are to be read by the members. Sir T. gave a donation of £5, and is to present the society with a splendid seal. He stated at the meeting that he considered the formation of this society the most important occurrence in the history of Limerick, and he had no doubt that every one claiming a character for intelligence, would seek to be admitted for their own, their families, and the communities' benefit.

At Manchester, Jamaica, Joseph Blake, Esq. to Catherine, daughter of Capt. James Mullins.
At Calpee, India, Capt. W. F. Beatson, K.F. commanding Bundelkund Legion, to Marian, daughter of the late Colonel Humfrys.

DEATHS.

In Clonmel, George Frederick Fayle, Esq.
On his passage home from China, Richard O'Callaghan, Esq.
second son of Roger O'Callaghan, Esq. of Somerville, Cork.
At Ring's-square, Cove, Mr. John M'Namara.
At Mallow-lane, Cork, Jane, wife of John Buckley, Esq. and mother of the Rev. John Buckley, Church-street Chapel, Dublin.
In Mount Pleasant, Dublin, on the 15th inst. J. P. Loze Bouer, son of Capt. Russell, 20th Regt. aged four years and ten months.
At Bonavoree House, Tulla, on Saturday, William Roderick, eldest son of Mr. William MacRae, aged 4 years and ten months.
At Tralee, Samuel Sealy, son of John Weekes, Esq.
Ellen, daughter of Mr. Richard Roberts, of Corbally, county Cork.
At Hazlewood, Sligo, the twin sons of the Lady Anne Wynne.
At Hastings, Charles French, Esq. late of Farmly, Phoenix-park.
At Headford, Galway, Mr. George Cahill, schoolmaster to that laudable institution, supported by R. I. M. St. George, Esq.
On Friday, at Newtown House, near this City, Andrew We'sh, Esq. a gentleman whose life was illustrative of all the traits that ennoble human nature, and adorn the Christian character.
As a country gentleman, a magistrate, landlord, and friend, he was universally esteemed. He died amidst the tears of his numerous relatives, and the lamentations of his tenantry.
At Streamville, near Lisburn, Sarah, daughter of the late Rev.
Francis Patten.
In Athlone, George, son of Mr. Martin, Band-master 99th Reg.
Mrs. Hannah Boulger, of Dublin.
In Upper Pembroke-street, Richard Hare, infant son of W. H.
Maunsell, Esq.
At Blarney-lane, Cork, Mr. Amos Cooke, aged 65.
At Terryought, the Rev. James Browne, B.C. Curate of the parish of Old Ross.
At Kilmacrenan, Francis Lucas, son of the Rev. F. L. Molloy, of Fahan.
At Merchant's-quay, Thomas Maiden Baird, Esq.
At Ashgrove, Richard Ashe, Esq. aged 57 years, for many years an upright and active magistrate of the county Cork, universally regretted.
At Abbeyshruel, county Longford, Thomas Belton, Esq. Lieut.
of Police.
Elizabeth, wife of Cornelius Holden, Esq. of Bessville, county Lougford.
Of fever, at Ballyhaise, county Cavan, Miss Rose Fray.
At his uncle's residence, Caroline-street, Cork, of fever, Mr.
Hugh Russell.
At Abbeyleix, Lucinda, relict of Crofton Lawrenson, of Brook-lawn, Queen's County, Esq.
At Tichfield-terrace, Portland-town, Mrs. Hadden, widow of Major-General James Murray Hadden.
At New Ross, aged 95 years, Mary, wife of C. D. Fitzpatrick, Esq. of the Wexford Militia.
In Thomas-street, Cork, Alicia, relict of John Nagle, Esq. and only daughter of the late Col. Wm. Annesley Bailie, of Convamore and Green Park Buildings, Bath.
At White Church House, Kilkenny, Richard Branigan, Esq.
At Chelsea, George David Green, son of the late W. E. Green, Esq. of the Audit-office.
At Eton-house, Liverpool, aged 80, Mary, the wife of the late Dr. Crompton.
At the Vicarage, East Ham, Essex, George William, son of the Rev. William Streatfield.
In her 87th year, Mrs. Radcliffe, widow of Dr. Radcliffe, late Archdeacon of Canterbury.
At Hanbury-hall, Leicestershire, Jessie Anna Letitia, wife of Patrick Chalmers, Esq. M.P. Abldbar, Forfarshire.
At St. John's College, Cambridge, in his 71st year, the Rev.
John Palmer, B.D. the senior fellow of that society, and formerly professor of Arabic.
At the Rectory, Peacombe, Herefordshire, Louisa, daughter of the Rev. Henry Barry Domville, Rector.
In Prince's-street, Hanover-square, Mary Charlotte, wife of Findlay Anderson, Esq. Madras Civil Service.
At Great Malvern, Apphia, Baroness Lyttelton, in her 97th year, widow of Thomas, second Lord Lyttelton, who died in 1779, and whom she survived 61 years.
At Kensington, in the 83d year of his age, Sir Edward Baynes, formerly Lieut.-Colonel of the 83d regiment.
At Plymouth, Captain Charles O'Bryen, half-pay R. M.
At Plymouth, William Temple, Esq. Master.
In Wyndham-street, Bryanston-square, Capt. J. Baldwin, R.M.
At Portsmouth, Capt. Burnett, R.N. of H. M. ship Magicienne.
At the house of his uncle, Colonel Doveton, Madras, Thomas Greentree, son of Thomas Greentree, Esq. late Member of Council, in St. Helena.
On his passage from Naples to Leghorn, the Rev. Lant Carpenter, L.L.D.
Lieut.-Colonel Daniel Bissett, Royal Artillery.
In Harley-street, aged 81, Ann, Dowager Lady Rodney, widow of the late, and mother of the present, Lord Rodney.
Elizabeth Charlotte, daughter of Dr. C. Rogers, Dorset-square, Regent's Park.
At Falmouth, Jamaica, H. W. Danson, Esq. Stipendiary Magistrate.
At Vienna, Field-Marshal-Lieutenant Count Salis, Oberst Hofmeister to his Imperial Highness the Archduke Francis Charles of Austria.
At sea, on board the ship Bombay, on his passage to England, Capt. Frederick Durack, 24th Regt. Bombay N. I. and Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General.
At Kingston, Upper Canada, Lieut.-Colonel Thomas Cubitt, Royal Artillery.

All kinds of Instruments Let on Hire, Exchange, Purchased, or Repaired by the Experienced Workmen.
A Spring Van for the safe con-
PIANO FORTES and HARPS &c.

Improved Piano Forte MUSIC ACADEMY BEDFORD- MR. VICKERS

HAS great pleasure in announcing that received per the "Alarm" a magnimen of the New Grand square Piano Forte
NEW GRAND ACTION—this being the first description of Instrument ever imported of Ireland; the superiority of which both power of tone, durability of action, and extraordinary appearance, has been universally adm-a very superior COTTAGE PIANO with These Instruments from the House of Allison, Wardour-street, Soho, London specially manufactured for Mr. V. under the superintendance of the above eminent m-V. being the first to import these beautiful to this city, is determined to hold out s-ments to the Public as will insure their
From the speedy sale and great satisfacby those already disposed of, Mr. V. ha-but their great superiority will be fully ap-Mr. V. is in daily expectation of a further

Improvement IN PIANO FORTES

ALLISON & ALLISON,
SUBMIT their NEW GRAND SQUARE FORTE to Public inspection, and that their incessant efforts to bring the I-its present high degree of perfection, wciated by all to whom the mechanism Forte is familiar; and that, to those v-with its general structure, a comparison Piano of ordinary construction and tha-by A. & A., will immediately demonstrity of the New Grand Square Piano F- exclusive manufacture. Among the variments introduced by A. & A., an entirchanism, upon the principle of the "Hor-Piano Forte," has been substituted for hinge of leather and vellum hitherto emphammers and leavers, and a centre adop- an extreme elegance and finish in the is no slight claim to distinction, but wh-thorough accuracy and uniformity of incalculably advantageous in the consid-Instrument's wear and tear, as fully to win their conviction that public experieblish their claim to public confidence.
Instrument now brought to perfection i-factory, will be found to combine, with dented volume of tone, an elasticity o-durability of action, never before attain-Fortes of this description.

ALLISON & ALLISON have further to shave applied the Grand Check to Cab-and Michricordan Piano Fortes, ther-the inefficiency of touch and instability consequent upon the great vibration of so long the characteristic evils of upright and that they have succeeded in removwhich has heretofore prevented the i-these, the sweetest as well as most elegments, into general use.
An assortment of the above Instrum-Manufactory of A. & A. 49, Wardour
London, are now received by Mr.
his MUSIC ACADEMY, 3, BEL-LIMERICK.