

At New York, Albert B. Seymour, Esq. of Antigua, to Fanny youngest daughter of the late John Rochfort Mayne, Esq. of Cavan, Ireland.

At Fort Beaufort, Thomas Jeffries Pratt, Esq. to Nancy, daughter of Surgeon Parrott, half-pay. Cape Mounted Rifles.

At Ahinagh Church, Lieut. Phillips, 47th Regt. to Caroline, daughter of the Rev. S. G. Fairtlough.

DEATHS.

Suddenly, in his Counting-house, South Main-street, Cork, Thomas Lyons, Esq. Mr. Lyons was the first Mayor of Cork under the Municipal Corporations Act. He was one of the most esteemed citizens of Cork, and his death is universally deplored.

On the 18th inst. at the Rev. Mr. Carey's, Kiltmorna Glebe, Charlotte, the beloved wife of John Phillips, Esq. of Spring View. The funeral cortege was highly respectable. The tenantry of her father (the late Vere Dawson Hunt, Esq. of Cappagh House, formerly High Sheriff of Tipperary,) evinced their high esteem and respect by their attendance, over 30 miles, to the family vault, at Toone Church.

Of scarletina and croup, Robert Hall Minchin, second son of John Minchin, Esq. of Rathnavogue, county Tipperary.

At Summer-hill, county Galway, Julia, wife of Henry Joseph Dolphin, Esq.

At Tramore, county Waterford, aged three years; John, youngest child of Henry Owen, Esq. C.E.

At Kiltrush, on the 19th inst. a most interesting youth, Michael, eldest child of Mr. Andrew Madigan, Iron Merchant.

At Daly's Grove, near Ahascragh, of typhus fever, taken in the discharge of his duty, Joseph A. M'Donne, Esq. Inspector under the National Education Board.

At Ccoloola, Mrs. Kelly, relict of the late Captain Kelly, Stipendiary Magistrate.

In Dingle, Mary, eldest daughter of the late Mr. Patrick M'Kenna.

At his residence, Beech Hill, county Dublin, Joseph Wright, Esq. in the 84th year of his age.

At the residence of his aunt, the Countess of Howth, of malignant typhus fever, the Rev. Arthur Burke, Curate of St. Catherine's Church, and son of Major and Lady Matilda Burke, of Quansberry, county Galway.

At Mountpleasant Avenue, Rathmines, after a brief illness, James Kelly, Esq. son of the late James Kelly, Esq. Limerick.

At Castleruddery Park, county Wicklow, Mary, relict of the late John Metcalf, Esq.

At Cullenswood-avenue, Edmund Thompson, son of the late George Thompson, of Rathfriland, Esq.

At Garville Avenue, Rathgar, Mr. Richard Sharp, watch and chronometer manufacturer, Westmoreland-street.

At Shebeg House, county Fermanagh, Henry Gresson, Esq.

At his residence, Victoria Terrace, Kingstown, Thomas P. Young, Esq. forty years a clerk in the Bank of Ireland.

At Kinnitty, King's County, Christiana, wife of Wm. Berry, Esq.

At her residence, Mespil Parade, Margaret Elizabeth, relict of the late Lieut.-General Brereton, of New Abbey, county of Kildare.

At Sanville, Banagher, Thomas Dechan, sen. Esq.

At Phibsborough, Frances, eldest daughter of the late Joseph Bourke, Esq. of Carrowkeel, county Mayo.

At Newcastle, county Westmeath, Christopher Coffey, Esq.

At Armagh, Hugh Maculla, Esq. a most eccentric gentleman.

Philip M'Cormac, of Maryborough, one of the corps of local pensioners.

Jas. Power, Esq. of Lower Baggot-street.

In Dundalk, Catherine, relict of Surgeon John Callan.

At Deer-park, near Honiton, Isabella Mary, daughter of William M. Smythe, and niece to the Earl of Wicklow.

At Cambridge, the Very Rev. John Lamb, D.D. Master of Corpus Christi College, and Dean of Bristol.

At South Lambeth, aged 81, Richard Brook, Esq. senior member of the Corporation of London.

At Leamington, aged 81, Alexander Seton, of Mounie, Esq. Deputy Lieutenant for the county of Aberdeen.

At Camden Town, Anthony Thomas, eldest son of Mrs. Lavinia Ryves, who claimed to be grand-daughter of the late Duke of Cumberland.

John Thomas Orridge, Esq. governor of Carlisle gaol, by a fall over the stair-case at night.

At Lytham, Major Wainman, late of the 14th Light Dragoons.

At Ramsgate, Henry Frederick Hodson, Esq. late Lieutenant of the 14th Light Dragoons.

At Portsea, of fever, Lieut. Mullen, 50th Regt.

At Eversley, Hants, in her 93d year, Sarah, relict of Richard Prescott, Esq.

At Lisbon, Mr. Michael Cummins, late of Cork.

At Madeira, Elizabeth, the wife of Sir Robert George Throckmorton, of Buckland, county of Berks, Bart.

At Malta, Dr. M'Donald, of the Madras service.

At Kandy, Ceylon, William Henry, son of W. H. Fortescue, Esq. of Dublin.

Saturday, at his house in Henry-street, Mr. William Randall, jun., ship agent, son of Mr. William Randall, Harbour Master of the port of Limerick.

At Duimore East, at an advanced age, Mary, relict of the late Col. M'Dermott, of the Irish Brigade.

At Raheny, Elizabeth, daughter of John Darcy, Esq.

HORSE REPOSITORY.

NOTICE

HARTIGAN'S next Great Monthly Sale of weight carrying Hunters, Chargers, Carriage Horses, Park Horses, and Lady's Nags, will take place on Saturday, 4th May next. Therefore parties having Horses to answer the above description, and entering them for sale, will please send full particulars at once as the entry closes on the 27th inst., so as to allow time for catalogues to be sent to the different Dealers, Horse Repositories, and Establishments in the three Kingdoms.

MICHAEL HARTIGAN,
Auctioneer.

N.B.—No Horse shall be offered for sale that does not appear in catalogue.

April 24.

COUNTY CLARE,

Strictly Unreserved Auction.

AT PORT,

Of Household Furniture, Horses, Cows, Sheep, Farming Implements, &c.

JOHN CHARLES RYALL

HAS been instructed by Hugh O'Loughlen, Esq. who has surrendered his Farm, to sell at PORT on TUESDAY, the 30th April inst, the entire of his Household Furniture, consisting of Parlour and Drawing-room Chairs, Breakfast, Dining, Centre, Card, and Fancy Tables, Sideboard, Loungers, Easy Chairs, Secretary and Bookcase, Piano, Cornopian and Musicstand, Scarlet and Drab Moreen Window Curtains, Chimney Glass and Ornaments, two Art Union Engravings, with other Prints, Carpets, Rugs, Fenders and Fire Irons, Barometer, Teastore, &c.

HALL—Eight-day Clock, Lamp, Table, Chairs, Stair Carpet and Rods.

FIVE BED-ROOMS—Each of which are furnished with State and other Bedsteads and Curtains, pure Feather Beds and Bedding, Hair Mattresses and Pallasses, Dressing Tables and Wash-hand Stands, Commodes, Biddets, Bedside-stands, Lowboy, Wardrobe, Chairs, Fenders and Irons, Window Curtains, Bed Carpeting. There are several Servants' Apartments, all of which are furnished with the necessaries required for each.

PANTRY AND CLOSET—Glass, Delph, China, Long Service of Dinner Ware, white and green; morning and Evening China, white and gold; Cutlery, with different articles of Plated Ware; Kitchen and Dairy Requisites in abundance.

Out-door effects consist of 1 bay Hunter, aged, weight-carrier, gentle in harness—sire, Ferimorz; 1 bay Mare, good roadster, famous hack—sire, Freney; 2 strong working Horses; 3 Cows, one newly calved, one in-calf, and one stripper; 15 Ewes and Lambs, and 3 Rams, 1 light-running Outside Car, patent axles; Tumbling Carts, Drays, Ploughs, Harrows, Jaunting Car and Cart, Harness, Rolling Stone, Winnowing Machine, with several other Farming implements too numerous for insertion; several Tons of well-saved Hay and Straw, with a quantity of Oats and Barley, threshed and unthreshed, good grain and prime seed.

Terms Cash—Purchaser to pay 5 per cent. in addition to the bidding.—Sale to commence at 12 o'clock sharp as all must be sold on the same day.

PORT is within 5 miles of Ennis, and 4 of Corofin.

JOHN CHARLES RYALL,

Auctioneer,
Church-street, Ennis.

April 24.