DEATHS.

In Dublin, on Sunday last, Mr. Joseph Bull, formerly Captain in his Majesty's Prince of Wales Fencible Regiment, and father of Mr. Thomas Bull, Saddler, of this City. He was the first officer taken by the French, when they appeared in Killalla Bay, who took him to France, where they detained him a prisoner for nine months.—
He was afterwards stationed in this City with his Regiment. He has left a numerous family to lament his loss.

On Saturday, very generally lamented by his numerous rush, County Clare, a very active and zealous Clergyman.
