

raw out the programme of a Church, and whether they with the Church reformers at authoritatively communicat- with the Bishop of London, 's sanction and command? " Chaplains of the Archbishop Dublin, did most certainly London, and that I shall shew who chooses to call on me, and the answer received. Its object was to state some d to enquire of the Bishop influential Clergy, of his y plan, by which ill-advised rters, might be successfully n, not authoritatively, nor y, but simply professed to ose names were specified. offered do suggestions; but It was evidently unnecessary to the propriety of writing wever, would be far from a proceeding, because in a e Archbishops and Bishops recommended that the Irish p without consulting their e that there are few circum- d into pernicious falsehoods. re seek for correct informa- circulation to any report shall be happy to give him as I have said, the letter to shes for information with es, who are candidates for o show him, or any other which has taken place on op of Dublin and those to ns," (or "Clericus Acade- of this proposal, and still , to make assertions which true, he must be fully con- erva.

your obedient servant,
CHARLES DICKINSON.

ty tax returns that the e to the state more than he manufacturing and description united.

tian act.

" When the Registrar, who is at present absent from Limerick returns, I shall give him directions to have a license made out in the same form as that which the late Archbishop of Dublin gave to Mr. Matthias, of the Bethesda Chapel, and Mr. Lloyd, of the Molyneux Asylum, and I most earnestly wish that the Gospel trumpet may be sounded within the walls of your beautiful chapel, long after the bodies of us who are here assembled, shall be mouldering in our graves, and our spirits shall have taken their flight to those mansions of eternal rest, where no jarring contentions or difference of opinion shall prevail, but all shall be harmony, all peace in the fruition of His glorious presence, who is emphatically styled the Prince of Peace, and who bequeathed it to us as his best legacy, as he was about to leave this earth."

BIRTHS.

At Doocastle, county Mayo, the Lady of Joseph Myles M. Esq. of a son.

In Great Denmark-street, Dublin, the Lady of William W. M.D. of a daughter.

The Lady of the Rev. John Clarke Crosthwaite, Virgemont, Dublin, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

In Cork, James Quinlan, Esq. to Louisa, youngest daughter of the late Captain Edmond Fitzgerald, 87th Regiment.

At the Cathedral Church, Bangor, Somerset Gore D'Arcy, son of Gorges Marcus Irvine, Esq. of Castle Irvine, county Fermanagh, to Susanna, eldest daughter of Abram Hargrave, Esq. of Ballynecottage, county of Cork.

Sir John Edward Honeywood, of Evington, Kent, Bart. to Mary, second daughter of the Rev. Chas. Hughes Hallett, of Higham, Kent.

At Plymouth, Mr. Linzee, son of the late Admiral Linzee, to Miss Margaret Scales.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday, at her son's house, Newtown, county C. very advanced age, Mrs. Walsh, relict of the late Andrew W.

At Castle-CConnell, on Tuesday, after a long illness, John of James Fisher, Esq. of this City, aged 10 years.

At Curriglas-house, Cork, Henry C. Gumbleton, Esq.

In Dublin, Charles, second son of the late Michael Bushe, Ormond-street, London.

At Rathmines, of consumption, in her 16th year, Catherine daughter of John Paisly, Esq.

At the residence of his relative, Major Fitz-Gerald, John Dowling, M.D.

At Summerhill, county Galway, in the 58th year of his age, and universally and most deservedly lamented, Anthony James Dolan, Esq.

In Enniskillen, of malignant cholera, in his 28th year, Mr. William Murray, printer.

At Carrick-on-Suir, Jane, wife of Surgeon William Shea.

At Kilree, near Kells, county Kilkenny, Edmund, third son of late Mr. W. Pollard, of decline, caused by overgrowth, being 2 inches in height, and only 16 years of age.

At the Mayor's-walk, Waterford, Mrs. Aylward, relict of the late Mr. James Aylward, of that city.

LIMERICK;

PRINTED AT THE CHRONICLE OFFICE,

No. 2, RUTLAND-STREET,

For the Proprietors.

[SUBSCRIPTION TWO GUINEAS PER ANNUM, IN ADVANCE.]