DEATHS.

On Thursday last, after a short illness, resulting from an accident, to the deep and sincere regret of his family and friends, Samuel Evans, Esq., aged 72, of Lower Mallow-street, and of South Hill, county of Limerick—a most upright and intelligent citizen, and a gentleman remarkable for the highest sense of honor and probity. His end was peaceful, for his belief in God was steadfast and fixed, persuaded that Christ, his Saviour, was able to perfect and accomplish that which, in faith, was committed to him unto the last day.
