TRIBUTE TO LIMERICK POSTAL OFFICIALS.

English Pressmen, who came to Limerick in connection with the Transatlantic Flight, and who were here during the recent general strike in the city, have received the following—"Dear Sir—I am grateful to you for the letter just to hand in which you dissociate yourselves from a paragraph in an English newspaper reflecting on the staff of this office. Let me assure you that I greatly appreciate the kindness which prompted your action, and that it will give me pleasure to forward your letter to headquarters for the information of the Post Office Authorities.—Yours faithfully, M Guerin."

The Pressmen, it may be added, paid tribute to the Postmaster and his staff "for the great courtesy and consideration which they have shown us during the past fortnight."

DEFICIT ON ELECTRIC LIGHT DEPARTMENT.

At the meeting of the Corporation last night, Alderman O'Donovan called attention to an item of £1,380, to be provided out of the rates for making up the deficit on the electric lighting department. How was it that the deficit was so great?

The Town Clerk—Because the working expenses are very high.

Alderman O'Donovan—Has this department ever paid since it was established?

Mr McNamara—It has, and the Alderman knows it!

Alderman O'Donovan—I never said it paid, and the sooner you get rid of the electric light department the better for the citizens.

DEATH OF REV P McINERNEY, P.P. CASTLECONNELL.

The death occurred early this morning of the Rev P McInerney, P.P., Castleconnell, after a somewhat brief illness. The deceased clergyman, who was a great favourite with his parishioners and all classes at Castleconnell, had reached an advanced age, and was for some years in charge of the parish.

LAUREL HILL CONVENT.

Death of Lady Superioress.

The death occurred to-day at Laurel Hill Convent of Madam Xavier Blakett, who for a long number of years had been Lady Superioress of that high-class teaching institution. The deceased, who was of English birth, had recently, owing to increasing years, to relinquish the active duties of Superioress, but she continued almost to the last to evince her abiding interest in the charge under her control.

We are asked to call attention to an announcement in our advertising columns this evening to the effect that the Turkish Baths, Sarsfield-street, are now open. Patrons of the Baths, which have been in existence for over thirty years, will find their needs attended to by the management and his staff.
