

which the most efficient be made; but if when Parliament should ento them, very little suc-

HOBART said, he rose gentlemen whose petition present conversation, to Gentleman, whether it bring forward the names under a mistaken notion, was not transmitted, had ed the Clerk to read from of cases, in which mi-ed the House, and where n granted: arguing from both constitutional and as well as other men, to efore Parliament.

er conversation, Major as there was a paper on he could found some sur-is subject, he would not ard. Adjourned.

r, APRIL 30.

id, that in the bill which n a former part of the riend of his (Mr. Forbes) nt of pensions, there was n the bill, for excluding ertain description, from the House of Commons;
riend consented to leave instance of a Right Rev. ds withdrew his support Hon. Friend at that time should bring in a specific and as his Hon. Friend xtending his place, it fell bill. He said that this principle of assimilating eland to that of England, a similar bill to the pre-England was the brightest annals. He said it was a calculated for the prefer-

Notwithstanding rumours to the contrary, Mr. Fitzgibbon is now confidently spoken of for successor to the Chancellorship.

Last Saturday were committed to the county jail, by Walter Widenham, Esq; Patrick and Timothy Neal, charged on the oath of James and Timothy Cunnigham, with breaking into their house at Cahirconlish, and firing at them; both the Neals had their skulls fractured in the fray, and Timothy died yesterday in jail; the Coroner's inquest will be held this day, when it is hoped the cause of this dispute will appear to the jury, and the aggressors be brought to justice.

It appears by the information of the dying man that three of the Neals went to the lands of Ballyhoulane to distrain some sheep for grazing money, when they were violently attacked by the Cunnighams, who rescued the sheep, forced their arms from them, killed one of them, and the other being trepanned, is not expected to live; James Cunnigham has been lodged in jail.

Yesterday evening, there was a desperate battle fought in Castle-street between the Thomond and Garrione boys; the rioters were dispersed by the activity of Mr. John O'Brien, High Constable, and a guard of the 15th regiment who lodged one of them in Jail.

Extract of a Letter from Smyrna, dated December 2, 1788.

"I have seen Mr. Whaley. Lieut. Moore, of the 18th regiment of foot, and Mr. Wilson They are going to Jerusalem, to decide a bett of 30,000l. which the former of these gentlemen has laid with the Duke of Leinster, Lord Drogheda, and some others. They go from hence to Cyprus, thence to Jaffa, and from that to Jerusalem; and return to this place by Aleppo. They intend afterwards going to Constantinople, to take a trip up to the Black Sea, visit the Archipelago, land at Messina, view Etna, and the other parts of Sicily, and return to Old England, through Italy, Switz-er-land, and France. I hope these gentlemen will furnish the world with an account of their tour, which cannot fail of being highly amu-

Mr. OLIV
Limerick FRIEND
gaged on the NEA Obligations to the
to take the Earliest of Addressing the bable distance from he should not trou
tion, did he not th them against Rep serve—neither the Mount-

Just arrived to E
60 Chests TE
30 Hhds. Virgi
They have also
NEW AMERICA
Limerick

FURNITURE C
COUNTERP
CARPETING

AN elegant laid in by J
DRAPER, Limerick
ment of Superfine and MANCHES will dispose of on to those who favou
[One Mo

Whereas I
by JOHN
ANN BUTLER,
preserve the GAM Ballmacourty, Spit
in the County of L
the Manor of Clon
I do therefore req
or allow his Dog
Estates; Poachers
Trespassing thereo utmost severity of Kilt...