

deceased of Sir Samuel Bradstreet.

It is said the Marquis of Downshire to be created Duke of Hildborough.—The Marquis of Waterford Duke of Waterfore.—The Earl of Oregal Marquis of Belfast.

Yesterday Thomas Green, alias Capering Tom, stood in the pillory a second time, pursuant to his sentence at our last assizes, for being a gambler and cheat.

On Tuesday next, Michael Sullivan, (not Denis) as mentioned by mistake in our last, will be executed, pursuant to his sentence, at Tralee.

ANECDOTE OF A NEGRO SLAVE.

A black being threatened with a beating for some crime he had committed, declared that he would drown himself. The captain of the vessel he was aboard, laughed at this declaration, and appointed the following morning for the execution of the sentence; but in the evening leaped into the sea. The sailors threw out a rope for him to lay hold of, but the high-spirited Indian indignantly lifting up his head above the waves, exclaimed—"I will not suffer the degradation of a blow—I defy your tyranny!"—made a violent plunge and was seen no more.

DIED.] Yesterday, in child-birth, Mrs. Howly, wife of John Howly, Esq.; of Charlotte's-quay; she possessed unaffected piety, affability and gentleness of manners; was meek and benevolent—what must her family feel, when all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, now sincerely deplore her death.—Sunday at Buckingham-square, Cork, Mrs. M'Carthy, Relict of the late Michael M'Carthy, Esq.—At Garranekeagh, near Kilmallock, in this country, sincerely and deservedly regretted, Mr. John O'Donnell, sen.

A CAUTION.

I Do hereby caution the Public, not to employ any of the under-named Stone cutters, as they have been respectively engaged by me for the entire of this Season, and have lately entered into a Combination, and acted contrary to their positive Agreement with me, for which I mean to take such Steps against them as I shall be advised, not only to punish them for the present Misdemeanor, but also to prevent the Public from being imposed upon, by those ill-disposed Men; I also think it incumbent on me to inform the Public, that the several Gentlemen concerned in public Business in the Vicinity of this City, had pledged themselves to the Commissioners of the New Gaol, that they would not at any Time, during the Continuance of the Works, employ any of the Artificers thereof, without being regularly discharged; wherefore, I hope these Gentlemen will take this Caution, in order to suppress in future, such unlawful Proceedings. Dated, New Gaol, Limerick, May 2, 1791.
