to an obstruction in the line about two miles from Thurles, with the result that the mails did not arrive in the city until ten minutes past two. It appears that a bridge was considerably damaged and the line was blocked by the debris which took some time to clear.

SOCIETY FOR PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO CHILDREN.

A collection took place in the city to-day in aid of the Limerick and District Branch of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. The Committee of the Society were assisted in the sale of tokens—artificially made pansies—by a number of willing lady helpers, who were most energetic and successful throughout the day. It must be remembered that the Society's motive is at all times not to prosecute erring parents and guardians, but to correct, if possible, by persuasion, acts of ill-treatment or cruelty to children. The sale to-day was well supported, and the funds of the Society should benefit handsomely from the efforts of the Ladies' Committee.

TELEGRAPHIC DELAY.

Yesterday evening telegraphic communication with Limerick was interrupted by the cutting of wires on the service. This morning the damage had not been sufficiently re-adjusted to allow of the full service being resumed.

DEATH OF MR J M GINNANE.

We regret to record the death of an old and very popular citizen, Mr James M. Ginnane, who passed away on Thursday evening in the 70th year of his age. He had been in failing health for some time past. His death will be heard of with sorrow by hosts of friends in Limerick and Clare. He was a native of Kildysart, and belonged to an old and very highly esteemed family. For very many years he was associated with commercial life in Limerick, and for a large portion of that period was manager of the "Limerick Leader." He gave two sons to journalism. Deep sympathy is expressed with his widow and family in their bereavement.

The Funeral.

The remains were interred this morning in Mount St Lawrence Cemetery. Requiem Mass was celebrated this morning for the dead in St Michael's Parochial Church. The cortege was of large proportions.

The chief mourners were—Messrs J Ginnane, P Ginnane, and Edward Ginnane (sons), and Messrs J H Moran, solicitor, and H O'B Moran, solicitor (relatives).

The clergy present were—Rev Fr Dwane, Adm. St Michael's, and Rev Fr Tracey, C.C., co. Fr Dwane officiated at the grave.
