 A gentleman, the son of a Magistrate in the neighbourhood of Nash, was murdered last by some ruffians who were trespassing in a rabbit Warren—he went out with a gun to drive them off, and, it is supposed, in return fired at him.—The slugs struck his breast, and he was found next morning by the Gentlemen who had been hunting near the place.

with a view to put under the superintendance of a Justice, under the Peace Preservation Act, we recommend the next Grand Jury to direct their attention to the present system of Baronial Constables, and consider whether the same may not be considerably reduced, or abolished altogether, to lighten the charge which will be created on the County, by the Peace Preservation Bill."

The number of Baronial Constables is 96, and the annual salaries are £775.

The last of the unfortunate men, (fourteen in number) named David Grace, ordered for execution at the Cork Assizes, underwent the awful sentence on Saturday last. He seemed like those who previously suffered, to be extremely penitent, and met his fate with becoming fortitude. He was a
