

ceed six hundred and fifty thousand in the month of January, 1803, it that they amounted to more than two an half.—Did not this exorbitant in-issue of notes abundantly account for ation, and for the unfavourable state of against Ireland, and likewise it no a very great abuse on the part of the of the Bank of Ireland, of the discreti-with which they were entrusted. To the issue of paper must also be imputed total disappearance of gold in the coun-ely a guinea was to be seen—or if gold obtained, it was only by purchasing it at premium, which alone was sufficient to the paper currency was depreciated.— that must accrue to the commerce and the country from this depreciation must to their Lordships, but what kind of ld be applied to them it was not equally over.—By the law as it now stood, the England was obliged to pay their bills in y of England; but as the currency of as now Bank of England notes, it was a, that the Bank of Ireland should be to pay their notes in English notes, at six months. The interposing of that might prevent any sudden inconvenience the mercantile transactions of the country an arrangement. It was his intention to ne clause to that effect; for he was tho-convinced that the restriction, as it now encouraged an increased issue of paper, and ed issue of paper to the enormous amount had already stated, occasioned its deprethat depreciation injured the credit ed the commerce of the country. On ds he thought himself justified in disapthe measure.

rl of Limerick, after complimenting the on the zeal which he manifested for s of Ireland, entered into a vindication duct which the Directors of the Bank of d invariably pursued—a conduct which, on, so far from having incurred any res, on the contrary, entitled to the high-His Lordship next entered into a long arguments to prove that the Bank of Ire-not issued more paper than they were in doing by the increase of their capital, e late increase in the commerce and the of Ireland. That the capital of the eland was increased about a million and had the best authority to assert, and that erce and population of Ireland had of considerably increased, was a fact with Lordships must all have the satisfaction nted with. That specie had disappeared measure from Ireland, and that the trade was at different times considerably he was not prepared to deny, but these es arose from very different causes from hich they were ascribed by the Noble the security and solvency of the Bank there could not be the smallest doubt, stood severer shocks than ever any firmiment had been exposed to. An hostile one time been moored in the harbours for nine days, the enemy at *Irish Stocks, May 9.—Gov. Deb. 5 per Ct.

 95½—3½ per Cent. Ditto 74½.
 Exchange—Dublin on London 13½.*

LIMERICK, MAY 11.

We have the pleasure to inform the public, and numerous friends of George Grady, Esq. that he is ready to be appointed Magistrate & Secretary General for Ireland, in the room of the Right Hon. John Stewart, who resigns.

Sir Charles Algill is notified officially, to command at Waterford—not Limerick, as has been commonly stated.

East Sunday, His Majesty's frigate, Jamaica, Capt. Joan Rose, sailed hence for Plymouth, with Volunteers for the Royal Navy.

The High Sheriff of this County has received an order to remove from his Jail, to Dublin, Wm.
Regan, capitally convicted at our last Assize, and respited at the Gallows, as mentioned in a former Chronicle.

On Monday last T. F. Wilkinson, Esq. Under Sheriff for this County, went to give possession of a House, &c. near Abington, to Mr. Dondon— some persons being placed in the house, observing that the Sheriff had no assistance opposed him, on which he spiritedly forced an entrance and secured two of the principal opposers, Patrick Ryan and Philip Davis, who he brought into town, without any guard, and lodged them in the County Jail.

Wednesday night last, some villains broke into the house of an aged farmer, of the name of Lewis, at Tough, near Adare, and robbed him of twenty-six guineas in gold, eight guineas in silver, a quantity of sheeting, and a piece of linen, the latter was recovered by the farmer's wife, who pursued the robbers, and, whether by design or accident, left the linen in an adjacent field.

Since last publication Mr. Watson received for the aged couple mentioned in this Chronicle, 100s.
 —from a Lady unknown, 6s. and from a Gentleman, by the hands of Mr. J. P. 11s. 4d.—and the Lady herself received from an unknown Gentleman, three Guineas.

COMMITTED.—On Monday last, by Charles D.
Oliver, Esq. to the County Jail, William and Simon Ryan, charged with having, on the night of the 3d instant, burglariously broke into the House of John O'Daniel, near Kilfinane, dragging him from his bed, flogging him on the naked back, and felonously administering an oath to him to sell his milk reasonable.

BIRTH.—Yesterday morning in George's Street, the Lady of Standish Grady, Esq. of a Daughter.

DIED.—In London, 27th ult. the daughter and only child of the late Captain Richard Gabbett, of the 66th Regiment.—Monday night, at Janes- borough, near this city, much regretted, Mr. Pat.
Dickson.

Assize of Bread, 12d. loaf, 7lb. 8oz. 6d.—6d.
 3lb. 12oz. 3dr.—4d. 2lb. 8oz. 3d.
 Wheat 15½d. to 17d.—Oats 7½d. to 8d.— Barley (Eng.) 7d. to 8½d.—Corn 5d. to 6½d.

JOHN D. WHITE'S Show of Tups will be at Springmount near Cadiz of the Interest of the H Patrick-street, of which the (c) Limerick

TO BENET
 given, a well enclosed Stone; also a Diagonal Apply to CHRIS.
 (c)

SALE AT F
Linen and Woollen Dye
Morans, Counterpane,

JOHN KENNE street, intending to char will dispose of his present at and under prime cost.
 The quality of his W exceeded in this Kingdo of the most reputed Hou Those who buy to sell encouragement.

He requests all pe order immediate payment (c) Limerick

MOSS I
 RUSSELL

Have for Sale,
 MOSS DE
Crown Memel Tim
First Brank Pipe S Laths, Spars, and Fine White Lead re Casks of on Fine Raw Newcastle
Plaster of Paris,
Fire Bricks,
Bon Raifins, and a LIVERPO

All of which they will L

To be Let, an AR
 THE large HOUSE Westropp, with C enquire at C. BOLANE
 (c) Lin

TO be Let, the Hou Demesne of White
 Weir, as heretofore ad STUART, who will el posal from a solvent T Possession.

A U C
 On To-morrow, THU
 CONNELL the Licen
 a Sale by Auction
 Hugh Biddy, Esq; Escl ture, consisting of and Tables; drawing Chairs; Bedsteads and tains; Carpets, and S Dressing Glasses; Gar
 Tall-boys; Clothes Pre
 Duff, &c. &c. 11