

the discharge, on Maher, and Patrick
 barbarous murder of stant farmer.
 the last Controversial
 by the Rev. Godfrey course. On which Scripture, by which
 s attempt to support
 gels—will clear the worship, from the
 is vainly eluded—ubims—explain the
 , and sum up both
 Rome of Idolatry,
 charitableness—and e, progress, &c. of ness of heart which
 q. are well known
 numerous tenantry nstance of this feel-
 at a recent meeting
 of a sail-boat belong-Beagh Castle, with a Advertisement.
 last impression:—)
 suits, who must be
 ears of age—unmaromising lads under en, on reference to l be required. The Beggar's Bush Bar-
 Belfast, to replace first division of the ngford for Cork.
 niment leaves Ennis-and on Thursday the
 is ordered to the rshall, R.E. to the er has been fixed for lin.
 has been pleased to Burgessbeg, county
 ,(Domestic Chaplain
 cant by the death of van is expected to Cathedral.
 l, took up his perk.
 the Printing Office
 Journal, Ennis, fell
 d by the carelessness
 candle against one of arose. Most provi-
 the adjoining dwelling ensued.
 belonging to John

Foot, Hall Hayes House, Sampford Arundel.
 At Great Staughton, Huntingdonshire, Nevile Day, Esq. of St. Neot's, to Sophia, eldest daughter of General Onslow, of Great Staughton House.
 At Epsom, Eskricke Phillips, Esq. of Bushbury Hall, Stafford, to Louisa, daughter of the late Captain de Teissier, of 50th Regiment.
DEATHS.
 In William-street, at the house of her brother-in-law, Mr. Michael Cleary, apothecary, Miss Prendergast, of a painful and protracted illness, which, from the principles of religion and virtue with which she was deeply imbued, she bore with the fortitude and resignation of a Christian for whom death had "no sting." A life well spent made the hour of her dissolution one not of terror but of triumph, in the humble but ardent hope that it would conduct her to the enjoyment of eternal bliss.
 At Bellville, near Killarney, of malignant fever (caught while administering relief to the children of some of his domestics), Dominick Cronin, Esq. youngest son of the late Daniel Cronin, Esq. of the Park.
 On Sunday evening, at Baggotstown, in this county, aged two years, Susan, the beloved and only daughter of John Bouchier, jun. Esq. of same place.
 In Dublin, Frances, the beloved wife of the Rev. T. Lanauze.
 In Marlborough-street, Dublin, Miss Jane Shine, aged 21 years.
 At Camden-street, Dublin, Captain George Taylor.
 In Elephant-lane, Dublin, Susan, the wife of Mr. James Hyland.
 On Thursday last, at Millview, county Cork, Mary Anne, wife of Edward Lloyd, Esq. Seldom indeed has it fallen to our lot to record the death of a Lady more deeply and deservedly regretted by a large family and extensive acquaintance. Truly may it be said, she lived beloved and died lamented.
 At Clarence-street, Blackpool, Cork, Mr. James Murphy, aged 71.
 In Roscrea, Captain R. J. Latham, barrack-master of that district.
 Robert Carty, Esq. of Wexford.
 Jane, daughter of the Rev. Thomas Logan, Presbyterian Minister, Warrenpoint.
 In Newry, of apoplexy, W. Creek, Esq. merchant.
 At Newpark, county Sligo, Robert K. Duke, Esq.
 On Saturday, in Nelson-street, Mr. Edmond M'Hugh, builder.
 On Merchant's-quay, Mrs. Margaret Wilkinson.
 On the North Strand, aged 15 months, Margaret, youngest daughter of Mr. John Bassett.
 Eliza Jones Kelly, grand daughter of Captain Jones, Tipperary.
 At Clonliffe-House, John H. Smith, Esq. solicitor, third son of the late Rev. Wm Smith, Vicar General, of Elphin.
 At Rathmines, John Smith, Esq. of Henrietta-street.
 At Kingstown, Mr. John M'Coy.
 Anthony, third son of Peter Cockburn, Esq. Great Brunswick-street, in his 21st year.
 The Rev. James O'Brien, P.P. of Kilwatermoy, county Waterford.
 In Grosvenor-square, London, Lady Louisa Clements, daughter of Robert and Elizabeth, Earl and Countess of Leitrim, in her 63d year.
 In Park-street, the infant son of Lord and Lady Arthur Lennox.
 In Park-street, London, Lady Elizabeth Talbot, relict of the late Dean of Salisbury, and eldest daughter of Henry, the fifth Duke of Beaufort.
 In London, of scarlet fever, George William, the only child of Dr. Shean, Royal Fusileers.
 In Chandos-street, Cavendish-square, William Young Knight, Esq.
 In Sloane-street, Mr. Robert Sands, late of the War-office.
 At Stonehouse, Lieut. D. H. Sullivan, R.N.
 At Cheltenham, Charlotte Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Abel Ram, Esq. of Ramsfort Park, county Wexford.
 At Richmond, Yorkshire, Captain Richard Yeoman, R.N.
 At Tunbridge Wells, aged 23, Edward Henry Finley, Esq. M.R.C.S.
 At Bury, aged 76 years, William Gould, Esq. Lieutenant-Colonel of the Third East Norfolk Militia.
 At Carlton Hall, Yorkshire, Miles Stapleton, Esq.
 At Hayes, Kent, Caroline, daughter of Colonel Fraser, of Castle Fraser, N.B.
 Crawford Dick, Esq. Surgeon of the 12th Regiment, aged 33.
 At Castlehill, Ayre, Colonel Kelso, of the Royal Ayrshire Militia.
 At Cheltenham, where he had gone for the recovery of his health, Lieutenant-Colonel J. Jordan, Inspecting Field Officer of the Northern district.
 Colonel A. Stewart, of the Bengal establishment.
 At St. Petersburg, Count Mussen Bruce.
 At Neuwied-on-the-Rhine, the Prince de Wied, in his 59th year. He was a General in the Prussian service.

Loungers, Round Pa
 Tables, Work Table,
 Mahogany Furniture
 Loo and Dressing
 carved from solid Pedestal Sideboards,
 Writing Desk, Wing
 Curtains, Piano For
 Chairs, Music Stools
 Hangings, Feather B
 Press, Dressing Glas
 &c. &c.
 Sale, at 12 o'Clock

 May 11.

 Catherine Creed, } Plaintiff. }
 William Creed, }
 James Creed, }
 and others, } Defendants. }

 to the highest and years pending the c
 the Lands of BALI
 containing 35 Acres
 All also, that part
 Charles Connor's ho
 20 perches, also sit

 Dated 10th May,
 For particulars a
 receiver, Glenfield,
 Esq. his Solicitor, N
 Esq. Solicitor for P

 MR. E. SOLO
 Her Grace the
 don Royal Eye Infi
 &c. &c. No. 30, Co
 RYAN'S, No. 32, treet,) LIMERICK
 sive patronage recei
 of informing the Pu
 tively take place on time any Lenses tha
 be replaced, or alte
 chased of him, ma purpose Mr. S. will years will elapse ere N.B.—Those ye
 have still an oppo
 are submitted the advertisement not file of numerous do
 "I have much p

Amateur Theatricals.
 ON MONDAY NEXT 16TH MAY 1836