

...mer, which left Cuxhaven on the fire had been mastered, and surveyors were sent to make y destroyed.
tried in the Queen's Bench, letter to prevent a Burgess ansell in Merrion ward. He chnical legal objection.
Ballibay, was arrested in Sackfor forgery.

QUEEN'S BENCH—FRIDAY.
Charles Smyth Vereker, Mayor pleas to the information, Quo be disposed of next term.

STRATES.—This day, at three ce of reference made by Goect, the Magistrates met in the nsider the expediency of a e force of this City, as applied ouncil. The Mayor presided, gistrates were in attendance:—
Furnell, (High Sheriff,) Lieut.-
Sir R. Franklin, Wm. Howly, Crips, William Roche, Francis W. S. Tracy, Richard Kane. y discussed, and after many in-showing the danger to life and attend a reduction, a resolution ell, and seconded by the Hon. ould not be expedient or saluresent number of the Constabuunanimously adopted.

nt last, within three miles of the tchelstown, as three policemen fell in with 12 armed men. The arrest some of the party, but a was made upon them, and two dreadful manner as to leave no
! The third policeman escaped, ook off one of the party's guns which may be the means of The body of one of the fellows ant from where the conflict took s caused by a bayonet wound, e police.

on Wednesday night a dissolute grasped in her hand, assailed the of Mr. Byfield's Medical Hall, ruck at a large square of valuable s before she was successful in wicked wretch, having accomwas made prisoner, but moved of the consequence. If some of this vicious propensity is not can remove a shutter from his ll attractive. This is the fourth mitted upon this establishment. stant Master of the Cork workbeing unequal to the task. urteen cabins were totally con-of Clerihan. The fire originated sness of a cobbler who, after pipe on a bed.

s Clay's and Parkinson's compa rched in from Templemore.
are to be inspected by Sir Ed.
this day (Saturday.)
an Hyudman of Dublin is pre-ship in the Indian army.

ter of David Cram, Esq. of the Dell, Rock Ferry.
At Florence, William, eldest son of E. Fuller Maitland, Esq. of Park-place, Berks, to Lydia, only daughter of the late Colonel Prescott.
At Kurnaul, Brevet Captain James Gordon, 3d Bengal Light Cavalry, to Mary Harriet, daughter of the late Henry Loftus Tottenham, of Macmurrough, county Wexford, Esq.

DEATHS.

At Castle-Connell, on Sunday morning, Lady de Burgho Bridgeman, the beloved wife of H. Orlando Bridgeman, Esq., after a long and painful illness, which she bore with patience and resignation. Her Ladyship's loss will long be felt and regretted in that neighbourhood, and her remains, attended by a great concourse of people, were interred in the family vault yesterday in Castle-Connell.
At Blennerville, Tralee, Charles M'Mahon, Esq.
The wife of Beresford Boate, Esq. J.P. at his residence, Ducks-pool, Dungarvan.
On the 10th inst. at Parsonstown, William Manners, second son of Major Manners, late 59th Regiment, aged 3 months.
In her 89th year, at the house of her son-in-law, Joseph Gabbett, Esq. of Lower Mount-street, Charlotte Esther Litton, relict of Edward Litton, Esq. late of Helles-street.
At Tullagh Glebe, Jaspar Lucas, son of the Rev. John R.
Smyth.
At Burncourt, Tipperary, in his 84th year, Mr. P. Harney.
At Clunkeen, near Tuam, John Coneys, Esq. father of the Rev.
Thomas Devere Coneys, Professor of Irish, T.C.D.
At Nuns' Island, Galway, Patrick, eldest son of the late Anthony French, of Colemanstown, Esq.
At Clonmel, Mr. John O'Farrell.
At Anchors-bower, Athlone, Mrs. Smyth.
At his residence in Seville-place, John M'Dermott, Esq. for many years a most respectable trader of Dublin.
Bessy, wife of Mr. James Sloane, of Stephen's-green.
Margaret, eldest daughter of John T. Kift, of Ecc'es-street.
At Larkfield Lodge, county Rosecommon, Catherine, wife of Edward Larkan, Esq. J.P.
Anne, wife of Patrick Gannon, Esq. Jenkinstown, county Meath.
At Lurgan, Doctor Douglas, formerly Assistant-Surgeon in the Navy.
At Portstewart, Catherine, second daughter of P. Skipton, Esq.
At the South Terrace, Dungarvan, Anastasia, wife of John O'Grady, Esq.
Catherine, wife of Mr. P. Cuddy, of her Majesty's Customs, Liverpool.
Christian, wife of Dr. T. S. Trail, Professor of Medical Jurisprudence in the University of Edinburgh.
In Ham-street, Plymouth, aged 83, Miss Maxwell.
At Bay-place, Greenock, Jessie Hill, wife of Mr. John Nasmith, grain-dealer.
At Edinburgh, Rear-Admiral Smollett, of Bonhill.
At Glasgow, John Bell, Esq. merchant, aged 77.
At Flowerbank, aged 75, Allan Fowlds, Esq. nurseryman, Kilmarnock.
At Trongate-street, Glasgow, suddenly, Mr. Alex. Johnston.
At Tavistock, Mrs. Friend, aged 80.
At Coleby, Lydia, daughter of the late Rev. John Penrose, Fiedborough, Nottinghamshire.
Mr. James Duggan, tailor, Rose-place, Liverpool.
At Cheltenham, Arthur Josiah, second son of Fenton Hort, Esq.
At College-terrace, Islington, Mr. Joseph Pearson, late of Aldersgate-street, in his 75th year.
At Hitchin, suddenly, Joseph Margetts Pierson, Esq. banker.
The Rev. Thomas Barneby, Rector of Stepney.
Letitia, widow of Major Woodward Bidwell.
At Paris, Sarah, widow of the late William Sayer, Esq. formerly of Stratford, Essex.
At Boulogne-Sur-Mer, Margarete, daughter of Richard Warren, Esq. M.D.
On Friday night, at his house in George's-street, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with the utmost fortitude and Christian resignation, William Keating, Esq. M.D.—a gentleman not less distinguished for genius and ability as a scholar and physician, than deservedly esteemed for those amiable qualities which long endeared him to his happy and united domestic circle.
At his seat, Killeagh, county Cork, of fever, James H. B. Johnstone, Esq. late of the Rifle Brigade, Seneschal of the Manor of Inchiquin.
At Kingstown, William Robert Sherlock, Esq. of Sherlocks-town, county Kildare.
At Grange, county Wexford, Frances, relict of the late Mr.
Mathias Davis.
William, eldest son of the Rev. A. Thomas, Secretary of the Jews' Society.
Mr. James Millar, Secretary to the Clydesdale Bank.
At Stirling, Mr. Peter M'Vean, Veterinary Surgeon.
At Edinburgh, James Ferguson, Esq. formerly of Crosshill, Magistrate, principal Clerk of Session, aged 73.
At Bromley, Bow, Middlesex, Jane, wife of H. Harvey, Esq.
Commander R.N.
At Philadelphia, Right Rev. Dr. Conwell, R.C. Bishop.

hereafter decide how far th out by performance, and will not have proved as per ment here has been, and el ably abstract.

Since (to illustrate small ter mind himself, were it p placed in a similar situatio have observed nice circum of his own Iliad, and woul himself to a naked, hov proof against every prema venturing to neglect its job ously abstract; whence he he has avoided provoking t in general, without incurri whom he would influence ing other cogent reasons, more fully into particula Newspaper, especially aft significant a title, to depa course observed by him th even in approaching the int first place, from the preva subjects, entertained by readers of a public journal to escape even with the rence; while, in the next, t title and general descriptio indescribable peculiarity o itself, would have rendered

It is therefore scarcely risk that would have been so minutely into descrip credence even of the Lear posing Publisher to a cha ating the possibility of in Classical Literature;— an individual—however commensurate and increas parable from the execution at least not court; when s trious authors, basking in and honorably labored at t tive countries.

EASE AND
SHAV
Celebrated
MANUFAC
JAMES BATS, No.
STREET, DUBLIN,
of Steel, for which he has racter, and his fame is sp dom. A discerning Publi ledged his superior meth single trial will convince.
English Cutlery, he offers than any other House in Table Knives, Penknives, N. B.—Every kind of properly and expeditious
the LARGE RAZOR, (nearly opposite the Cast
Any person in th
fine Cutlery, by appoint sending a Post-office Ord tually, Carriage free.