

undertook the defence of that fearful trial it be to increase the attendance, at his ch since Lent have excited little interest, in the numbers present.

orial of the Roman Catholic Prelates of the gdom to Lord Aberdeen for an increase of ins in the Military and Naval services, decines to accede to.

an Catholic provincial Synod of Armagh the decrees of the Roman Catholic Synod at Thurles; by enjoining that marriages, d confessions, shall only be had in chapels. of 97. was contributed at the Roman apels of this City on Sunday last, in aid atian Brother poor schools.

t Missionaries at Kiltrush have dedicated the Blessed Virgin Mary. p MacHale announces an Irish translation of Genesis's Douay v. rsion, with explanay himself.

or begs to acknowledge £1 from Patrick sq. Kiltrush, for the Matthew relief fund. el's Temperance society subscribed £10 on for the relief of the good Father Mathew. utland, Esq. Bray, has subscribed 10l. to w fund.

ty of St. Vincent de Paul, conference of s, gratefully acknowledge £2 from Anony- Mr. T. O'Brien.

Rev. Dr. Browne has sent 5l. from Ros- the O'Connell fund, and Mr. Bianconi, 5l.

RELIGIOUS MANIA.

ay morning, at 8 o'clock, while the Rev. R.C.C. was celebrating Mass at St. chapel, the congregation were thrown into young man, in attire of a student, having the edifice in a state of excitement, hold- o swords, and advancing, through the ds the altar where the clergyman was offi- jumped over the outer railing of the sanc- ut obstruction, but was promptly pursued, at the altar fence, seized by one of the n who leaped from his kneeling position, man meditated an attack upon the Rev.

The intruder made no resistance, but pped both swords inside the altar railing. O'Connor, of George's-quay station, who to the Chapel in pursuit of the offender, im into custody, and he was brought up at court at 11 o'clock, before the Mayor. From e it appeared that the young man's name Ryan of Newport, who had been for the last engaged at the Roman Catholic Seminary chin's, (Crescent,) as a classical teacher, ligiously disposed; that he left the school y owing to illness, and went to Newport, to his friends, who noticed that he m insanity; he came into Limerick same next morning pawned his watch and pur- swords at the shop of Kearney, a broker, e, unsheathed them, and went through the andishing the blades; he was followed by O'Connor, who came up with him at Corn- , where Ryan put himself in attitude of d cut at the policeman, who warded off with a stick which he fortunately carried in

Before striking at the constable, e the sign of the cross upon the n the top of one of the swords, and 'I call upon you in the name of St. Patrick to

At Bombay, Capt. Thomas Eyre, 3d Bombay Cavalry, to Annie, daughter of the Rev. R. B. Eyre, of the Rectory, Eyre Court, county Galway.

DEATHS.

At Mallow Castle, aged 84. Louisa, widow of Lieut.-Colonel Jephson, (formerly of the 17th Dragoons), and mother of Sir Denham Jephson Norreys, Bart. M.P.

At Kiltrush Cappa, county Clare, Richard Harris Goold, Esq. son of the late Patrick Goold, Esq. of Curraghglass, county Cork, and nephew of the late Sir John Purcell, of Altamira.

At Milfown Malbay, Mr. Mathew Hehir, at an advanced age. At Harold's-cross, Trevor Lloyd Blunden, Esq. formerly of Oakfield, county Tipperary, aged 89.

At Mountpleasant-square, Anne, wife of Wm. Henry Crawford, Esq. and daughter of the late Ephraim Hutchison, Esq. Harcourt-street.

In Clare-street, at an advanced age, Mary, daughter of the late Owen O'Brien, Esq. of Newport, county Tipperary.

At Newtown, Waterford, at a very advanced age, Miss Mary Vallance.

At Bachelor's Hall, county Wexford, Mr. Martin Pender, aged 80.

At Sligo, Mary Jane, daughter of the late John Faussett, Esq. of St. Catherine's, county Fermanagh.

At Pembroke-place, Dublin, at the advanced age of 93, the Rev. Henry Stewart D.D. Vicar of Mochell, in the diocese of Lismore, and brother of the late Sir John Stewart, Bart. who represented the county Tyrone in Parliament.

At Molesworth-street, Miss Kyle aged 74.

On a fishing excursion to Lough Neagh, Mr. Lodie Clarke, one of the Belfast Town Council, and proprietor of the Ann-street Brewery.

In Clonmel, James, eldest son of Mr. John O'Neill, sacristan in the Chapel of S.S. Peter and Paul.

Mr. Edward Campbell, hotel-keeper, Monaghan.

At Londonderry, Frederick Hamilton, Esq.

At Kingstown, Joseph Wade, of New Haggard, county Dub- lin, Esq.

At Blenheim Lodge, Mounttown, John Tagart, of Townsend-street.

In Roscommon, Mary Aloysius Kilbride, one of the Sisters of Mercy.

On Saturday, the 20th inst. at Stoke, Newington, London, at the house of his uncle, Joseph Kenny, Esq. M.D., of malignant typhus, Joseph McDonough, in the 17th year of his age, eldest son of Mr. Michael M'Danough, of Broadford, county Clare—a youth of great promise and many virtues.

At Chesterfield-street, Mayfair, the Dowager Lady Dacre, aged 87.

At Southampton, Eleanor, fourth daughter of the Hon. and Rev. Richard Fitzgerald King.

At Walcot-terrace, Henry Green, Esq. of the Sun Fire Office.

At Cambridge-terrace, Hackney, Isaac Knight, Esq.

At Liverpool, Emily Jane, wife of the Rev. Cyrus Morrall, and daughter of the late Rev. Francis Blackburne, rector of Weston-super-Mare.

At Edinburgh, John Farquharson, Esq. of Haughton, Aber- deenshire, aged 76.

At Brighton Alexander Andrew, Esq. of Old Broad-street, and Porchester-terrace, Bayswater.

At Rickmansworth, Lewis Munn, Esq. aged 83.

In Kensington, aged 84, Mr. George Clint, once A.R.A. and President of the Artists' Fund.

In Upper Wimpole-street, Henry Revell Reynolds, Esq. late Chief Commissioner of the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, in his 80th year.

At Knightsbridge, in his 86th year, Edward Wakefield, Esq. author of "Ireland, Political and Statistical."

In Manchester, Alexander Waddell, Esq. eldest son of the late James Waddell, Esq. of Lisnavane, county Monaghan.

At Mount Calverley-lodge, Tunbridge-wells, Anthony St. John Baker, Esq. many years Secretary of Legation and Consul General in the United States.

At Oakfield house Aigburth, Liverpool, Ellen Maria, daugh- ter of the late Thomas Aspinall, Esq.

At Chelsea, aged 78, Mrs. Charlotte Fletcher, late of 34, Peter's, Bedford, widow of Major Joseph Fletcher.

At Brompton, Lieut. Hooper, R.N.

At sea, on board the Gipsy, on his passage from Port Fairy to England, Dr. Andrew Wilson Hume.

At Up-park Camp, Jamaica, Selina Maria, wife of Capt. C. H. Hingston, 3d West India Regt. aged 23.

On Thursday evening, at Queen-street, Ann, relict of the late James Halpin, Esq. Charlotte's-quay.

At Larch hill, Kilkenny, Lieut. Robert Edmonds, formerly of the 27th Regt.

At Stonehouse, Devon, while on a visit to his son, S. R. Chapman, Esq. 20th Regt., Frederick John Chapman, Esq. son of the late Lieut-General Chapman, of the Royal Artillery.

At Callao, of yellow fever, Henry, son of Henry Wm. Hobbs, Esq. formerly of Bloemfield park, county Tipperary.

Lot 1 City of cotty B ficent re Arable a Limesto Offices o planted.
Lot 2 City of north of (the tw and We these La under le only onc remainin Fines an chaser o
Lot 3
City of I
the Lime good Lin
small po
Lot 4
City of I
6 miles N
The soil drainage sold subj annum,
the prese
hen life,
and is to Jointure years, an 42 years.
Lots 5
respect t a.e indus quality, v
Lot 8
Limerick
North E
East of A
can be ha
Line of E soil is cl Land, w
For Re Office of street. D
HENRY
tioner, ha
Abbey-st Messrs
and WILL Solicitors
Messrs
Blessingt WILLI cent, Lim JOHN I falgar-squ street, D
BERMI
cannon-st
MILLER
Andrew-s Dublin.