

.....	9	9
.....	10	10
.....	11	11
.....	12	12
.....	13	13

of Cork and Ross will hold his two d June.

of Meath will hold his Visitation for an on the 2d June next.

Sir N. Colthurst, M. P. and Mr.
e arrived in Dublin, from London.
anismore has arrived at Convamore, Parliamentary duties.
town this day for Dublin.

Commander of the Forces, has not and, though stated in the Dublin

rs of Major-General Sir John Byng a Officer commanding the Northern 1), were removed on the 16th instant, Rotherham.

tenant-Colonel Bredon, commanding
in the Athlone district, with Captain yal Engineers, inspected the several Galway Bay, which are to undergo of new colours to the 11th Regiment, ay, by General Sir John Lambert, was mposing ceremony. Dean Burrowes delivered a suitable discourse. The uty and fashion was great beyond

ortly expect the route from Cork.

the 17th Lancers have been ordered al to Shorncliffe.

Hussars still remain at Bristol.
ment of Infantry proceeded on the 16th
port to Portsmouth Barracks.

Fusileers march in four divisions from rtsmouth, where they will arrive on the 11th of next month.

the 47th (Lancashire) Regiment of mouth on Monday last, for the Isle of the 67th Regiment of Infantry, re-h inst. from Portsmouth to Gosport.

the 59th Regiment of Foot proceeded from Portsmouth, for the Isle of achment of 300 men, belonging to the who expect to embark in the course of East Indies, arrived at Chatham.

the 33d, 50th, and 77th Regiments of
at Glasgow, from the Isle of Wight.

belonging to the 19th and 73d Regiments
th Dragoon Guards, marched on Friday

the command of Staff Serjeant Hook, r for Bristol, on route to their respective eland.

belonging to the 12th, 24th, and 43d hed yesterday from Westminster for gh Militia are to assemble at Dalkeith on e, for 28 days exercise.

ment of Light Dragoons (Hussars) was nday last, on Hounslow Heath, by his s the Duke of York, attended by his

The Marquis of Anglesea, the Colonel received his Royal Highness in front of

with a general salute. His Lordship af-ed past, at the head of the column, and al Highness: he then desired Lieutenant-hill to manoeuvre the Regiment in the eral movements were executed in a gallop, ity and compactness with which his Royal highly pleased.

of the 17th Lancers, which was to have t Monday, at Canterbury, was postponed

ay, when Lord E. Somerset will review valry Barrack Field, near that City. The

At Fruit-hill, County Londonderry, the Lady of M.
McCausland, Esq. of a daughter.

The Lady of R. H. Hutchinson, Esq. of Harcourt-Street, Dublin, of a daughter.

At Melville-House, the Countess of Leven and Melville of a daughter.

In Portman-square, London, Lady Charlotte Sturt, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

This morning, Anthony Farrington, Esq. of the Excise Department, to Mary-Anne, Widow of the late James O'Dwyer, Esq. of this City.

On Saturday last, at Ann's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. Mr. Latouche, George Gilkrist, of Rathkeale, in this County, Esq. Attorney, to Juliana, daughter of the late Mathew Blood, of Castlefergus, in the County of Clare, Esq.

In St. George's Church, Dublin, the Rev. George Hamilton, Rector of Killermogh, in the Queen's County, fourth son of the late Dr. Hamilton, Lord Bishop of Ossory, to Frances Anne, third daughter of the late Admiral Sir Chichester Fortescue.

At Aghadoe Church, the Rev. Charles Harte, of Durrow, County Kilkenny, to Barbara, daughter of Colonel Atkin, of Leadinton, County Cork.

At Ennis, Bryan Moran, Esq. of Lahinch, to Mary, third daughter of T. Dwyer, Esq. of said place.

Mr. Thomas Wright, to Mary, second daughter of P.
O'Kelly, Esq. of Cascade-Lodge, County Clare.

At Douglas Church, Cork, Maskeleyne Alcock, Esq.
to Elizabeth, youngest daughter of the late William Busteed, Esq.

At Bath, John Thomas Bland, of Blandsfort House, Queen's County, Esq. to Margaret Elizabeth, daughter of John Bond, Esq. of Stoke Newnton, Middlesex, and Cavendish-place, Bath.

William Carroll, of Cheltenham, formerly of Waterford, Esq. to Theresa, daughter of Joseph Shee, of Belmont-Lodge, Surrey, Esq.

At Eltham, John Messiter, Esq. of the 28th Regt.
to Frances Emma, daughter of the late Rev. G. A.
Thomas, L.L. D. Rector of Wickham, Hants, and Prebendary of Litchfield.

DEATHS.

On Sunday evening, in Mallow-street, of consumption, Diana, daughter of the late Richard Going, Esq.
Barrister at Law.

In Mungret-street, on Monday, Mr. Arthur Lynch.

At Crusheen, Co. Clare, much regretted, Mr. Hugh Carrig.

At Kilrea, County Londonderry, David Starke, Esq.
Richard Cruise, Esq. youngest son of the late Francis Cruise, of Belgard, County Dublin, Esq.

In Crow-street, Dublin, aged 23, Mr. John Connor, printer.

In the prime of life, Mrs. Shannon, wife of Doctor Shannon, Magherfelt.

At Harold's-cross, Thomas Clarke, Esq. late of Stephen's-green, Dublin.

In Patrick-street, Cork, Mr. James O'Hara.
Eleanor, daughter of Mr. Denis Kennedy, of Clonmel.

In Waterford, Mrs. Ambrose.

At Little Mill, Dumbartonshire, Capt. Walter Allan.
In Skinner-row, Dublin, Miss Ann Johnston.

At Marymount, near Antrim, the Rev. Wm. Stevely.
At Coolmain, the Rev. James Goudy, jun. A. M.

At Castlebar, Mrs. Morris, wife of Mr. Richard Morris, saddler.

In Waterford, the Rev. Richard Richardson, Rector of the Parishes of Faithlegg and Kil-St. Nicholas.

In London, Lady Isabella Hatton.

At Calcutta, W. Paton, Esq. Member of the Board of Revenue there.

At Tullyallan, the Hon. Mary Elphinstone.
At Bloomsbury, aged 85, Mr. Mackie Emery, father of the late celebrated comedian, the facetious John Emery, of Covent-Garden.

At Port Glasgow, John M'Murtrie, Esq. Chief Magistrate.

PRICE OF IRISH STOCKS—MAY 23.

IN ADDITION TO
FIVE BALES AND CASES
Received within the last fortnight

THE Proprietors of this Establishment observe, that, being now Importers direct enabled to Sell their Goods at

DUBLIN WHOLESALE PR

200 PIECES
OF REAL INDIA NANKE
Purchased a few days ago at the India House
4s. 11d. PER PIECE.
May

SUPERIOR LONDON BE
HATS
JUST ARRIVED.

WM FERGUS
132, GEORGE'S-STREET
HAS THIS WEEK RECEIVED PER THE LOND
A variety of the most fashionable BEAVER HATS.
He has also received, direct from the Ma
AN ELEGANT ASSORTMENT OF
CLOTHS AND CASSIME
LONDON WAISTCOATING, RUSS
NANKEENS.
N. B. Military orders particularly att
Limerick, Ma

LEGHORN AND STRAW
WHOLESALE AND RET
WAREHOUSE,
NO. 40, PATRICK-STREET.

A. JOHNSTO
From Glasgow,

MOST respectfully begs leave to inform Gentry and Public, in general, th arrived, per the AURORA, from London, LEGHORNS, a large quantity of ST
also a very fine assortment of White FEATHERS, and a great variety of
and English FLOWERS, RIBBONS,
Straw pressed Chip and Black Willow Orders from the country will attended to.

NO TIME TO BE
TUESDAY NEXT, 31st

CLUB OF LOTTERY T
C. O'BRIEN
2, CECIL-STREET

HAS opened a CLUB of 30 Subscribers
for which each Subscriber will ha
Two Halves, Four Quarters, Ten Eigh Sixteenths, in the LOTTERY to be May next.

CONSISTING OF
2 Prizes of..... £
2 Ditto.....
2 Ditto.....

O'BRIEN is induced to this by per
the £30,000 Prizes in the last Lotte
to a similar Club.