At Poonah, in the East Indies, John Warden, Esq. to Ellen Maria, daughter of Major-General Sir Lionel Smith, K. C. B.

DEATHS.

On Thursday, at his house in Richmond Place, after a few days illness, to the unutterable grief of her family and friends, Averina, wife of the Rev. Henry Gubbins. The premature fate of this amiable and esteemed Lady, has diffused a general feeling of regret through every class of the community. In all the various relations of life, in the endearing qualities of parent, wife, and friend, the dispenser of charity, the instructress of youth, and the advocate of religion, she was eminently entitled to fill a high and conspicuous station in society. Her virtues were manifold, and not among the least was that pious resignation with which she committed her soul to that merciful Being whose will it was to call her from the bosom of a heavily afflicted husband and children—to another and a better mansion.

In Great Charles-street, Dublin, after a short illness, Louisa, Baroness Wallscourt, daughter of the Earl of Louth, and Lady of James Daly, Esq. M. P.

In Tralee, Barry, only son of Barry Leake, Esq. Mr. George Leggett, of Tralee.

At Tarbert, Bryan James, infant son of Surgeon Kennedy.

At New-market-on-Fergus, after a few days' illness, aged 66, Mr. Thomas Kendall, Architect. He was a man of strict probity, piety, and inoffensiveness.

In Margaret-street, Cork, Herbert Baldwin Shea, son of the late Dr. Baldwin, and nephew to George Shea, Esq. of truly respected memory.

At Skull Glebe House, Cork, the Rev. John A. Jagoe.

In Boat-street, Newry, Mr. Robert Henning.

At Mount Collyer, near Belfast, Christopher Hudson, Esq. in the 93d year of his age.

At Baltrasna, County Meath, Louisa, youngest daughter of James O'Reilly, Esq.

At Versailles, Dr. George Plunkett, Roman Catholic Bishop of Elphin, since 1814. He is, of course, succeeded by his Coadjutor Bishop, Dr. Burke.

In Sackville-street, Dublin, after a short illness, Alice, wife of the Rev. Dr. Thomas Smyth, at the advanced age of 85.

In Waterford, Miss Hannah Robbins.

Near Dundrum, aged seven years, Alexander, son of Benjamin Riky, of Rutland-square Dublin.

At Black Rock, Dublin, Mrs. Wadsworth, aged 56 years; and Eliza Bishop, (her only daughter by the late William Bishop, of the same place,) of a few days' illness, aged 24, both much regretted.

In Broad-street, Waterford, Mr. Patrick Mackesy, apothecary and druggist.

At Ferrybank, County Kilkenny, Mr. R. Formistal.

At Plymouth, Captain Richard John Lewin, R. N., of Cavendish-square, London.

John Butler Ford, Esq. late Lieutenant of the 9th Regiment of Foot.

On the 18th instant, at the seat of Henry W. Thompson, Esq. Stonebrook, Co. Kildare, sincerely regretted, Major Henry Harrington Wall 49th Regiment, son of the late James Wall, Esq. of Knockrigger, Co. Wicklow.

On the 24th instant, at the house of her son-in-law, Edward Meredith, Esq. of Henrietta-street, Dublin, Mrs. Holmes, relict of the late Samuel Holmes, of New Holland, County Armagh, Esq. and sister of Robert Taylor, of Mount Heaton, King's County, Esq.

NEW CHAPEL IN BRUFF.
AT a Meeting of the Committee appointed to collect Subscriptions for, and superintend the erection of a New Parish Chapel in the Town of Bruff, held on Monday, the 28th inst. the Very Rev. Andrew Ryan, V. G. and P. P. in the Chair, it was unanimously Resolved—That the thanks of the Parishioners be conveyed in the most respectful manner, to John Bourchier, Esq. of Bagginstown, for his munificent donation of FIFTY POUNDS, towards the intended Building.
Resolved—That the Committee avail themselves of this opportunity of appealing to the generous and benevolent of all classes, for their liberal co-operation in raising a House of Worship, in this populous district, the present Chapel being in so ruinous a state, as to threaten those assembled within its walls with imminent danger of their lives.
ANDREW RYAN, Chairman.
