humane consideration, our respective farm by your orders, and our rents not only sened (in many instances one half) but generously refunded the surplus paid by auspicious period of our becoming imm under so kind and indulgent a landlord.

We are, in consequence of your Hon bounty, enabled to maintain our respecti comparative comfort, a contented, happy tenantry, no longer compelled to eke ou and precarious existence by incessantly an enormous rack rent to a middleman, industry was totally paralyzed, and ou sources completely exhausted. Would the landlords of Ireland would vouchsafe t noble example set them by your Honor, merit that heartfelt gratitude with which ated, and which we shall ever entertain respected agent, THOMAS CROWE, Esq. worthy representative of our human
