

convened at the Cathedral on t arriving at any definite con- g the Established Church now another meeting in a few days. , swamped off Kildysart on saved.

in Galway. 2300, was last week stolen out county Cork.

Agricultural and Commercial D. Lombard, Esq. Manager. t Cork, is appointed Inspector Mr. Bennett, a Scotch gentle- ext month.

ion Company expect to have a splendid bay before the sum-detected in Galway by the e City and Liberties, on Mon- the Mayor, Magistrates, and entment for 1,000l. to build a of the present dangerous and a has long been the subject of ffered £50 reward for discovery helan, of Oulagh, announced a which homicide five persons riminal information has been O'Reilly, an apothecary, re- uit of Mr. Newport, the sheriff -formance of his duty.

as a Sheriff's Bailiff was sum- Meath, he was attacked by a as nearly murdered, for being nt.

happy to state, has been very Cork, Kerry, Tipperary, and with the most salutary conse- rth.

the sale of Lord Mountnorris's , are Mr. Power, the distiller , both of Dublin.

eting commences on Monday for the Kirwan stakes of £50

reen have refused the use of the l meeting, on the reason of its he purposes of law and justice. anal Company for the last half go last week for Quebec with r St. John's with 110 emigrants. ced running between Mullingar as allocated £5,000 a-year to r the support of the Earl, out ysight v. Galway, brought by to recover £17,000 penalties

DEATHS.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, on the 30th of May last, aged 79 years, deeply and deservedly regretted by her family and her numerous and highly respectable relatives and connexions, Martha, wife to Thomas Grady, Esq. of Belmont, in this County, niece to the late Dr. Arthur Smyth, Lord Archbishop of Dublin, and aunt to the Right Hen. Viscount Guillamore, late Lord Chief Baron of Ireland.

On Sunday last, at Caherelly-castle, in this county, William Hannan, Esq. a gentleman much regretted by his numerous friends and acquaintances.

In Clare-street, at an advanced age, Richard Reddan, Esq. late of Ayle, county Clare.

At Sunday's Well, Cork, Wade Foott, Esq. aged 66 years.

In Broad-street, Mr. William Connell.

In High-street, Mr. Peter Hederman.

In Wentworth-place, Dublin, Henry Aaron Baker, Esq. Honorary Member of the Royal Hibernian Academy, Master of the Royal Dublin Society's Architectural Drawing School, and Architect to the Prisons of Dublin.

In his 78th year, Edmund Comerford, Esq. of Eccles-street, Dublin.

In Harcourt-street, Dublin, William Joseph, youngest son of Barry Edward Lawless, Esq.

Maria Louisa, daughter of Captain Osborne, Upper Baggot-street.

Aged 22, Matthew, son of Mr. Matthew Costello, of Eustace-street.

At Lynn Lodge, county Westmeath, Kate, eldest daughter of Richard Swift, Esq. aged 17 years.

In Richmond-place, Middleton, wife of John Hicks, Esq. and daughter of the late Rev. Bernard Dogherty, Rector of Slane.

Margaret, daughter of Mr. Robert Kehoe, Graving-bank, Waterford.

At his residence, Nunn's Island, Galway, suddenly, Peter Ward, Esq. a very old and respectable solicitor.

At Loughrea, James Blake, Esq. second son of the late Dr. Henry Blake, of Galway.

In Mainguard-street, Galway, Mr. Dominick Frayne, grocer.

In Castlebar, Samuel, son of Edward Malley, Esq.

At Castlereah, Roscommon, Miss Eliza Carter.

At his seat, Cottlestown, county Sligo, Samuel Kirkwood, Esq.

Lately, at Kurnaul, in India, Mr. Stuart Fitzgerald, eldest son of the Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, of Balingoola, in this County. He was twenty-four years actively employed first as midshipman and after in the Company's service. He was a very fine and highly accomplished young man. His premature death is sincerely lamented by all his friends.

In Dublin, the Hon. George Sackville Germain,

At Summer-hill, Dublin, Kate, fifth daughter of the late Michael Henley, Esq.

In Blarney-lane, Cork, Mary, only daughter of the late Isaac Biggs, Esq. of Bandon.

At his residence, Atkinville, Cork, Walter Atkins, Esq.

In Waterford, Mr. Andrew Bush.

At Upper Hanover-street, Waterford, Mr. Henry Dart.

At Carrick-on-Suir, Mr. John O'Neill.

At Torquay, in Devonshire, Susan, wife of John Galwey, Esq. and daughter of the late John M. Grainger, Esq. of Causestown, county Meath.

At Maidstone, Lewis Miller, Esq. of Gorey, many years a Magistrate of the county Wexford.

In Poet's Corner, London, Alexander Thomas Grey, son of the Lord Bishop of Hereford.

In London-street, Fitzroy-square, Mrs. Maclean, widow of General Allan Maclean, aged 86.

In Milton-street, Dorset-square, London, William Babington, Esq. formerly of Oporto.

At Southampton, Frances, widow of the late General The... At Heavitree, near Exeter, Colonel Delamaire, C.B. late Com-mandant at Agra.

At Cheshunt, aged 77, Rebecca, widow of R. Frewin, Esq. At Torquay, Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the Rev. C. Tuthill, of Webbville.

At Leasingham, Lincolnshire, aged 64, Maria Louisa, wife of Colonel Watson.

At Bombay, Lieut. Latham, 6th Foot.

Elizabeth Sarah, wife of J. Crowdy, Esq. Secretary of Newfoundland. Killed at St. Sebastian, Captain Neal M'Neill, of the 6th (Scotch) Regiment, son of Captain M'Neill, of late 2d Royal Veteran Battalion.

At Inspruck, in the Tyrol, Lady Alicia Bisset, wife of W. Bisset, Esq. of Lessendrum, Aberdeenshire, and sister to the Earl of Wicklow.

PRICES OF IRISH STOCKS—JUNE 7.

Bank Stock,	203
Irish Three per cent Consols	91
Government Stock, 3½ per Cent.	98½

A fresh arrival

IN ANTIC

WHO is Clove

such prices as been discoura

Among the Rye Grass, Vernal, and has ever appe

N. B.—Th rably for man

GREAT GL

WHOL

THE No Limeric

informed tha and DELPH

ment, and w house in the

The Prop supply of De

China, from He has not s

which for ele be excelled,

description t

The GLA and other D

Butter Coole Liquer and

In the DL the houseke

To Whole from the Sta

purchased p low prices.

N. B.—A China, Glas

Hall Lam great variety

William H others,

Plain John Creag

ral others Defer