

Meeting. The last race was for a plate officers of the King's Dragoon Guards, ant Cosby. Although the meeting was known for some years, and the running order.

the King's Dragoon Guards rode over races, by which her arm was broken. the Rev. David Quinlan fell from his horse, and no account has since been heard most vigilant search has been made by the hitherto without effect.

plundered Mr. Grubb's flower carts near Thursday, of seven bags of flour. This attack.

distress that prevails about Clonmel can those outrages on private property.—
public meeting of the inhabitants on Mon-to a subscription for relief of the numehe are now 254 persons in the Clonmel stitution.

Kerry is almost inevitable, unless some measures be taken for relief of the poor.
ption is exhausted, and potatoes are now a stone, while labourers earn but 8d a fever, the attendant of poverty, is fast ning a large ferocious dog sprung at a al's Bridge, and tore the poor animal in a . Several persons with difficulty could e from his victim. A rope was immedid the dog's neck, and he was flung into he New Bridge.

s now being cut down in most parts of the ave advanced to 6d. a stone in Ennis marntly the distress of the poorer classes hourly d its usual concomitant disease. There are Fever Hospital. Ennistimon suffers most e common necessities of life.

nty Sligo, two pound per ton hounty is e first importation of Oatmeal, and thirty n for the second importation, so great is the Tivy, Esq. has been handsomely compli-he subscribers for his management of the r Dispensary, the charge of which he has itive Wesleyan Methodist Conference will a the ensuing week at the Meeting-House, est, Dublin. The Rev. Adam Averill will ty Clare branch of the Reformation Society ay at Ennis.

rd of Cork has sentenced a female to one risonment for stealing from the apartments mpbell, 74th Regiment; Michael Lucey, a tor, was sentenced to seven years transporta-

Bentley and the Police at Cappagh-White, ent pursuit for some miles, succeeded in ap-Patrick Nolan, charged with the murder of are, last July. He was fully committed for ham Purloy, Esq.

the Mayor held an Inquest at Killonan, on James Cavane, who died in consequence of n of the brain, caused by wounds received in January last.

emarkably fine horses passed through here
the great fair of Spencil-hill, which com-day.

of Croom yesterday produced some fat sheep at fair prices; fat beef was also disposed of ging terms. Some lots of small prime fancy ought at high prices, other sort^s dull of sale.

the numerous Publications which have lately the Press, there seems to be none which has ed public attention, or secured public appre-

the Work called "First Love." The demand ed, is nearly unprecedented, as a thousand sold off in a very few days. We must own but be extremely gratified at such success in erment of the writer, especially as we under-

At Armagh, James Oliver, Esq. of Lisloony, to Letitia, youngest daughter of the late William Simpson, of Cavanacaw, Esq.

At Wonagh, by the Reverend Mr. Cole, George Maquay, Esq. of Cheltenham, and of Feddins, in the county of Waterford, to Elizabeth, daughter of Jean Mabane, Esq. of Chinchurst, county of Surrey.

Mr John Simpson, son of Mr William Simpson, of Bingley, Yorkshire, to Eleanor, second daughter of the late William Walter, Esq. of Dublin.

At St Martin's Church, Birmingham, Mr Phillip James Thomas, of Cork, to Grace, second daughter of Mr Robert Harwood of Birmingham.

At Kington, Lieut. Beebee, 6th Foot, to Anne, eldest daughter of Edward Walker, Esq.

At Berne, at the residence of his Britannic Majesty's Charge d'Affaires, C. T. Bourke, Esq. of his Majesty's 48th Regiment, to Caroline Elizabeth, daughter of the late Dr. Dickson, Bishop of Down and Connor.

DEATHS

In Dublin, Captain Mac Lean, late Adjutant and Surveyor of Works at the Royal Hospital, Kilmainham.

At Rathmines, Susanna, wife of G. Medicott, Esq. of the Bank of Ireland.

At Ardree, Frederick, son of the Rev. Wm Atthill.

At the house of her grand father, Major-Gen. Hayes, Mountmellick, of a decline. Miss Jane Hunter O'Reilly.

On Bachelor's-quay, Cork, Mr Samuel Rogers.

In Prussia-street, Dublin, Mr Richard Mullins.

John Bond, of Reenmount, County Armagh, Esq.

At Portaferry, Elizabeth, widow of Dr. Chermide.

At the Mile Tree, near Clonmel, Mrs Dawley.

At Fortlands, near Carrick-on-Shannon, Willie Armstrong, Esq. attorney.

At Longford, aged 66 Mr. Thomas Slommon, for many years Quartermaster of the 25th Dragoons.

In Duncan-street, Cork, Mrs. Mary Savage.

In Boyle, Mr Terence Purdue.

In Killarney, aged 75 years, Mrs Kelly, aunt to Edmond Purcel, of Traice, Esq.

Thomas Brooke, of Castlegrove, Co. Donegal, Esq.

In Tullow-street, Carlow, Miss Mary Muldowney.

At Windsor, on Friday evening, Field-Marshal the Earl of Harcourt.

Suddenly, the Rev Marcus A Parker, Curate of Waaborough, near Swindon.

In Portland place, London, Henry Browne, Esq.

In Grosvenor-square, aged 89 years, Sir L. Pepys, Bart. Physician to the late King, and one of the Physicians to the Army

At Bilton, near Teignmouth, Eliza, eldest daughter of Mr Serjeant Praed.

At Chatham, Charles Grier, Esq. Assistant-Surgeon to the Forces.

Near Braintree, Essex, Captain Dobbie, Royal Navy.

At Ostend, Lieut. Robert Weaver, Royal Navy.

At Tunbridge Wells, the Hon. and Rev. Miles John Stapleton, eldest son of the Right Hon. Lord Le De-spencer.

At St. Omer's, in France, Lieutenant-Colonel Peter Warren Lambert, late of the 9th Regiment of Foot.

At Islington, in his 66th year, the Rev. Joseph Patten Rose, rector of Althorne-cum-Crickcase, Essex, and minister of the Chapel of Ease, Islington.

At Pentonville, in her 68th year, Mrs. Ann Humfroy, of Bath, relict of W. Humfroy, Esq. formerly of Clapham-common.

GLIN DISPENSARY

A MEETING of the Subscribers to the Glin Dispensary will be held at their rooms Glin, on Tuesday, the 29th Instant, at noon, to examine the state of the Funds, &c, &c.

The Supporters of this Charity who may not attend the Meeting, are requested to send their contributions to Mr. WM. O'LEARY, Secy.

DUBLIN
D. S. TRU
DU BERNARD &
with LLIARD
B. is a agent in Lime
the Lime-Club. Spy
the Chron. Office, will be N. B. Full
Sale

Corragon

THOS Concerns, the RATION of LIME
tised, and ill to be Set, fo agreed to Propose in writing wi SATURDAY, the 26th in

D. F. O'MAHONY, Ch

24
Union Lodge,
Registry

THE Brethren of thi Rooms, Morning's
Thursday, the 24th Instan ancient custom, to celebr Baptist, transact the bu Officers.

Dinner on table at half Brethren are requested to Bar of the Hotel, before Signed by order

Limerick, 23d June 18

PROT

FIRE INSURA

35, OLD JEV

And 9, Cavendish-Rou

CAPITAL—E

TWO-THIRDS of th
will be Septennially
on Policies of not less th
The Rates of Insurance
Mills, Manufactories,
rich, insured on moder Losses will be settled and for Policies.

Notice is that Insurances falling d renewed within Fifteen D will become void. Recei ready.

AG

LIMERICK

Ennis,

Gal,

Cork,

Clonmel,

Protector Fire Insurance
Insurance Office,

PRIVATE

For You

PARENTS and GU

acquainted that the el

pectable Protestant Famil

gone an unexpected chang of Children, under twelve Board and Instruct in a g tion, on terms which und