letters from Cork we learn, that tenders the impress service, for manning the Royal y, arrived in that harbour.

On Wednesday evening another desperate ay took place in the Liberty, originating om a quarrel that happened some short time nce, when a wool-feribbler was shot dead on the spot, and some others wounded. The dleness and drunkenness of the holidays seem to e presented those unhappy people with an opportunity of reviving their old disputes.

Yesterday, Mr. Agmondisham Vesey Ward, and Mr. John Walker, A. B. were unanimously elected Fellows of Trinity College, in the room of the Rev. Dr. John Waller, and the Rev. Mr.
John Stack, promoted.

At the same time the following young genlemen were elected Scholars of the house:— Messrs John Conyngham, Samuel Kyle, Thomas Wallace, William Davenport, Launcelot Dowdall, John Seymour, Dennis O'Brien, George Gorton, William Cotter, Thomas Coffey, Stephen Dickson, William Henry Pratt, Bernard Reilly, Francis Rainey, Richard Wrightson, Michael McInerney, Michael Tymons, and Hugh Donovan.

On Wednesday last, the Attorney General granted his PAT. for making out the patents for the two new Judges, in consequence of his Majesty's Royal letter ordering their appointment received from England by the preceding packet. They are both expected to take their seat on the Bench on Friday next.

The place of Receiver General of the Stamp Office, the possessor of which can neither by election or petition get into Parliament, still remains a bone of contention amongst the candidates for the favours of the court.

DIED. Mr. Garret Gaogbegan, formerly an eminent sugar refiner, in Mullinahack.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

GALWAY, June 16. Last Tuesday, the 27th (or Enniskillen) Regiment of Foot, commanded by Lieut. Col. Knight, were reviewed at Seabright's Field, by Major General Leland.—They went through their different evolutions and firings to the entire satisfaction of the General, and a great concourse of spectators, who were much gratified at the elegant appearance of the above corps.

WATERFORD, June 21. Saturday morning before, was sold for 15d. and best oats brought but from 7d. to 8d. per stone—potatoes was fold in the evening at 3½d. per stone, and as we have some new potatoes already brought in to this city, and in a few days will have a plentiful supply of them, it is thought that the old potatoes will be considerably lowered in their price.

Several people have lately been cured of rheumatism, by rubbing flour of mustard, and wearing flannel over the part.

The Hon. and Rev. Dean Crosbie, has presented the Rev. Thomas Shepherd, to the Vi-
