EDUCATION.

19 No. 3, HENRY-STREET.
MR. NUNAN,
Professor of Penmanship.

IN compliance with a paramount duty returns sincere thanks to the discerning Citizens Limerick, for their approbation of his institutio He shall not sound the clarion of egotism by amusin the Citizens with a wanton expatation on his profession attainments, which have been long recognis and appreciated by his judicious countrymen. F has witnessed, with delectation, the laudable pr ficiency of most of his present pupils, whose manu freedom and systematic execution, cannot be t highly lauded by the admirers of useful Penmanshi who have evinced their zeal in the promotion erudition, by the generous patronage extended him. He need scarcely inform the citizens, that h instructed some of the most respectable families England, Ireland, and Scotland, and taught in som of the most distinguished Seminaries in Europe.

Mr. N. is preparing for publication a Treatise o Penmanship, by the sole aid of which any person proper application may acquire a complete knowledg of this useful accomplishment.

The course of Education comprises Reading, Un versal Penmanship, Arithmetic, Geography, Englis Grammar, practical and philosophical; Book-keepin theoretical and practical; Geometry, Algebra, Me suration, &c. &c.

Respectable friends anxious to receive propri instructions in Writing and English Grammar, shoul gladly embrace the present excellent opportunity.

Gentlemen and Clerg in respectable establishmen are invited to attend at his Residence after scho hours, to receive lessons in mercantile Penmanship.

The instructions in English Grammar are accom panied with suitable explanations admirably calculat to develop the latent powers of the juvenile min and mature it for the reception of sound logical in formation.
