

officers that ever drew a vate of the 93d, threw himof Edinburgh Castle last M'Bean, 22d, Lieut. Pres-Ensign Alcock, 96th, ema this week; also, Capt.
Baynes, 60th, and Ensign ephalus.

the Scinde prize money ndia house, and they belong
gt. has presented a Sikh cent battle field in India, to he death of a distinguished Josiah C. Coghill, Bart.

L. for county Dublin, and Chief Justice Bushe. His 4th or King's Own Regt.

part of last impression.)
was read a second time on has appointed Mr. T. Walsh ster of Athlone.

rveying General Examiner,
e Limerick Inland Revenue appointment of a successor as Collector.

e of Hogan were arrested ar Kilkishen, charged with atloe, one of which they oll at Bunratty bridge.

Oulagh, neither so old as y the guard stretched across ail train was expected to the Magistrates office this esign was to seek instant fore a lingering death by rance bespoke destitution, with an admonition.

James Bennett, Esq., Copamore, on the body of an pparently strangled by its o be deplored that infan-to a frightful extent.

leaves this immediately for y, of William-street, with E., of Ennis, is to be assothis day elected valuator of alary of 235*l.* by a majority Nagle—the numbers being Mr. Nagle, 11.

ful in market baskets this lb. One cartload sold at Ballyfreen, has a field of flax gh, from fine Dutch seed, ns.

geon, of Liverpool.

John M'Farland, Esq. of Omagh, to Margaret Jane, eldest daughter of the Rev. William Henry, of Letterkenny.

At Friends' Meeting House, Bristol, Samuel John White, son of the late William White, of Waterford, to Marianna Harwood, daughter of the late Samuel Harwood, of Barton Hill.

Major Marsland, late M.P. for Stockport, to Miss Wright, of Henbury Hall, Chester.

Beverley Robinson Morris, M.D. of York, son of Rear-Admiral H. G. Morris, to Anne Robinson, daughter of the late Lieut.
George Skottowe, R.N. and grand-daughter of the late Admiral Mark Robinson.

Captain J. B. Pilgrim, late of the 11th Hussars, to Sarah Anne, daughter of the late Charles Parker, Esq. of Springfield-place, Essex.

At Congresbury, Somerset, the Rev. George R. Bigge, of Linsfield, Northumberland, to Annette Henrietta Poore, only daughter of Captain Poore, 15th Hussars.

At Philadelphia, Francis Haviland, Esq. to Maria Josephine, eldest daughter of Thomas Gilligan, Esq. late of Dublin, and niece of Dr. Flynn, of Fethard.

DEATHS.

Saturday last, at his seat, Aghamarta Castle, county Cork, Carew S. O'Grady, Esq. aged 64, youngest brother of the First Lord Guillamore, and Registrar of the Court of Exchequer under his lordship, when Chief Baron.

In Sexton-street, of fever, caught in the discharge of his ministerial duties at the Mountkennett and Boherbuoy workhouses, the Rev. James M'Donnell, Chaplain to those establishments.—Very sincerely lamented.

Yesterday, at the Sisters of Mercy Convent, in this City, after a lingering illness, Mrs. Barry, a professed member of the religious order, and a native of Tipperary.

Suddenly, at Clonmel, William Keily, Esq. Town Councillor.

At Glanworth Glebe, St. Leger Hewitt, youngest son of the Rev. John Aldworth, aged 11 years.

On Saturday last, Anne, wife of the Rev. William de Burgh, Minister of St. John's, Sandymount.

At Peasfield Terrace, Blackrock, Eliza, the beloved wife of the Rev. Edward Nangle,

At Wilton, Cork, Lucia, daughter of the late C. H. Leslie, Esq.

At Moyga, county Cork, Mr. Paul Madden, aged 84 years.

At Maynooth, Miss Casey.

At Grangebeg, Killucan, Mr. John Gibson.

Abraham, only son of William Gray, Esq. of Dundalk.

At Kenilworth House, Cheltenham, in the 78th year of his age, Sir Josiah Coghill Coghill, Bart. Vice-Admiral of the Red, of Belvedere House, county Dublin.

At Bloomsbury, Birmingham, Anne, widow of the late John Griffis, Esq. formerly Captain in the 14th Dragoons, aged 74.

At Upton-place, Essex, Miss Weld, daughter of the late Wm.

Weld, Esq. and sister of Captain Weld, R.N.

At his seat, Rock, Northumberland, Charles Bosanquet, Esq. Governor of the South Sea Company, and Colonel of the Light Horse Volunteers of London and Westminster.

Mrs. Mary Keays, widow of the late Capt. John Theophilus

Keays, of the 47th Regt.

At Brighton, Capt. H. C. Otter, R.N. to Mary Jemima, daughter of Lieut.-General John Francis Birch, C.B.

At Roslin Villa, Cheshire, Bessie Maria, wife of the Rev.

Benedict Arthure, Incumbent of Trawmese, and daughter of the late B. Dillon, of Ballyquin House, co. Kilkenny, Esq.

In the wreck of the Orion, at Port Patrick, Alexander

MaeNeill, Esq. of Ardlussa, Jura, and his wife, Anne Elizabeth, daughter of the late John Carstairs, Esq. of Stratford-green, Essex; with Cecil Anne and Hester Mary, their daughters.

At Appleby, Westmoreland, George Thwaites, Esq. M.D.

On the 23rd of April, on board the ship "Wave," on her passage to America, Anne, the beloved wife of George Adamson, Esq. late of Jones' Lake, county Westmeath. Her unaffected piety, mild, and gentle manners endeared her to all who knew her. But while her afflicted and bereaved husband and sorrowing friends deeply lament her sudden removal from amongst them, they feel consolation in knowing that their loss is her gain.—"Blessed are the dead which die in the LORD."

At Philadelphia, the Rev. John O'Dwyer, O.S.A. formerly of Kilkenny.
At sea, on his passage to Australia, Dr. MacMullin, Deputy Inspector General Army Medical Department.
At Malta, Frances Edith, daughter of Captain and the Hon.
Mrs. R. Lambert Baynes.

IN THE
For the
Est Sale of
In the matter of t
HENRY JOSEPH
Esquire, Owner
Ex-par
WILLIAM CRILL

the 30th day of J at noon, at their (unless previously which, at least, on Public) sell by P
Town and Lands
HARDING-GRO County, (though to that of Coshma ing per map and Commissioners, 35 profitable land of cupation of the ov
so that the purch
may think fit.
Dated this 14th

This is one of th same extent now i the attention of C of a convenient an investment. The and with some out sidence of a gentle vantages of excelle also in a sporting out, with an exten
at least 14 acres, p the important Mar ville, within a very way station, and v
and Port of Limer
are now being con
and Import Trade
the world, the wh Quit rent of £2 3s
annum, Tithe rent
Proposals for th the whole or any for the approval o
day of July next.
particulars, and al
be had at the Offic rietta-st. Dublin;
having the Carriag Limerick, and 63,
Worrall, Solicitor
Limerick; or W
Limerick.