City.

There are forty prisoners in the county for trial at the approaching assizes, including eight for murder, and twelve for the Whiteboy crime of assaulting habitations, and seizing fire-arms by day and night.

This day, Lord Viscount Gort laid the foundation stone of the Poor law workhouse of the union of Gort, in that town, attended by Mr. Assistant Commissioner Burke and the Guardians of the union.

The remains of the late Mrs. Ralph Westropp, of this City, were interred in the family vault at Tulla, county Clare, to-day.

The Address from this City to the Queen has been elegantly printed on pink satin, and encircled with a wreath of Limerick lace, beautifully figured, representing the rose, shamrock and thistle, with the Royal Crown over head. This handsome piece of workmanship was designed by Mr. Leicester Graves, and executed by his operatives.

Two new born infants were exposed—one at a hall door, another at a shop door, in Rutland-street, this week, and immediately after abandoned by their unnatural parents or guardians.

We have been favoured with a reading of Miss Isabella Jackson's sublime poem, on the happy occasion of her Majesty and Prince Albert's nuptials, which had been forwarded for presentation by the kind influence of Sir David Roche, M. P. A letter has been received on the subject from the worthy Baronet, which reflects honor on the disposition from which it emanated.

The wheat landed this week from the Baltic, per the Leveret, for Sir David Roche, was deposited in the Queen's bonding store; also another cargo of same, per the Elizabeth, for J. N. Russell. This grain if now taken out for manufacture, would be subject to the duty of 18s. 8d. per quarter.
