Yesterday, arrived in this harbour a large gging wherry, captured on the 17th inst. he Saltees, by the Dunleary barge, comded by Mr. Rumley, Surveyor. The caron consisting of wine, spirits, tobacco, and nan-to a considerable amount, was safely lodgin the Custom-house stores.
 Saturday last, his Excellency Lord Westarland returned to town from Colton, the ntry seat of the Rt. hon. the Speaker where Lordship, accompanied by his brother-in-law William Lowther, was on a visit. The ble guests were magnificently entertained with that genuine hospitality which has so often traced the festive board of the Right hon. Mr. offer.

Sir William Lowther and his lady have recently arrived from England, to visit their noble relations, Lord and Lady Westmorland, and to view the beauties and curiosities of this country. They reside at their Excellencies' at the Viceregal Lodge in the Park, and will, it is said, accompany his Lordship on his intended tour through the country parts of this kingdom.

A new coinage of guineas and half guineas, from dies of the present year, is now going on at the Tower to a very large amount, by an order from the Treasury; but no orders have been given, nor are there any preparations for a silver or copper coinage.

LIMERICK.

Last Friday, came on the election of Mayor and Bailiffs, for the town of Clonmel for the year ensuing, when John Luther, Esq. was chosen Mayor, and George Healy, and John Hackett, Esqrs. were chosen Bailiffs.
 Died, Last Wednesday, Mrs. Anne Scott, of this city, in the 95th year of her age, a lady of distinguished piety, benevolence, and charity.
 By this melancholy event, her friends have lost a steady and sincere friend, and the poor a constant and liberal benefactor. — The goodness of her heart, which was great, was in some measure concealed by a charity that vaunted not itself, so that they did not know her best, ever loved and will lament her more. But her virtues and graces will be clearly co-incident, when she who hath been in the world so long, shall openly. — Thursday last, in an advanced age,

Old Abbey aforesaid, and most inhumanly and
 ponent for dead, of which this Deponent hath made information more fully. Sworn before me, at the City of Limerick, this 25th Day of June, 1791. WALTER WIDENHAM.
JOHN CURTIN.

A Reward of 20 Guineas.

WHEREAS on Wednesday Morning, the 15th Instant, as JOHN CURTIN, who was employed by me, to carry two Letters, one to Wm. Hodges, Esq; of Old Abbey, one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace; and the other to Mr. John Hodges, of Coalhill, was pursued by Morry Lynch, Servant to the above Wm. Hodges, Esq; and Darby Skeahan, of or near Old Abbey, two very notorious and inho-man Villains, who in a most barbarous and bloody Manner, attacked the said Curtin, and after beating him with Hand-sticks for a considerable Time, left him on the King's High Road for dead. Now in order to bring the Perpetrators of this shameful Outrage to condign Punishment, I will pay a Reward of Twenty Guineas, for lodging any or either of them in any one of his Majesty's Gaols in this Kingdom, and prosecuting them to Conviction, within Six Months from this Day. — Limerick, 20th June, 1791.

A Man calling himself DANIEL CAL-LAN, was stopped on the Mountain road near Six-Mile-Bridge, County of Clare, on the 15th inst. with a BEAG MARE about 13 hands high, no mark but a jump on the near fore knee, and a pale CHERRY COLOURED FOAL at her side; as the Man could give no satisfactory account of himself, or how he came by them, and offered money and the mare to a couple of men who he was left in charge with, (after examination) to let him go, it is supposed they were stolen. Whoever proves property can have them, by applying to GEORGE STUR-DEAT, Kiltimon, Esq. June 20, 1791.
