

Colonel O'Callaghan Westropp—I am afraid it was difficult to avoid. We are here as the strongest Irish opponents, and it was witnesses in favour of the lifting of the embargo which Mr Henderson said were afraid to come.

Mr Talbot Ponsoby, counsel for Mr Henderson, announced that his client had never made the slightest imputation against any gentleman there. The letters he had received from farmers had to do entirely with the political situation in Ireland.

Vireoun. Finlay—Yes; I understand that to be the case, in that sense, and no other.

FUNERAL OF MR J. WALSH.

The remains of the late Mr John Walsh, Lower Mallow street, were interred on Sunday, June 19th, in Mount St Lawrence Cemetery. There was a very large and representative attendance at the funeral, which took place at 3 o'clock from St Michael's Catholic Church. The Secretaries of the Arch-Confraternity of the Holy Family acted as pall-bearers, while many members of the Confraternity, of which the deceased was a devoted member, walked in the cortege. The late Mr Walsh was very popular with all classes in the city, and this was testified by the large concourse of mourners that followed the remains to the last resting place. There is widespread sympathy with the family of the deceased in their bereavement.

The chief mourners were—Mrs Walsh (widow), Jack, Joe, and Aidan (sons), Rita and Gerty (daughters), Miss Bernie Kerr (grand-daughter), Mrs Fitzgerald (mother-in-law), Albert Kerr (son-in-law), Michael and Patrick Fitzgerald (brothers-in-law), Mrs McDonnell (sister-in-law), Mrs Liston (niece), Christy McDonnell, Michael Fitzgerald.

The clergy present included—Rev W Dwane Adm, St Michael's; Father Hayes, C.C, do; Father Tracey, C.C, do; Father O'Carroll, C.C, do; Father Potter, S.J; Father O'Mahony, S.J; Father John Kelly, S.J; Father O'Connell, S.J; Father Kennedy, S.J; Father Hauley, S.J; Father Elliott, S.J; Father Saul, S.J; Father Robinson, C.S.S.R, Director of the Holy Family Confraternity; Father O'Sullivan, C.S.S.R; Father T Hogan, President St Munchin's College; Brother Priest, S.J.

Rev Father Dwan, Adm, officiated at the graveside, and Rev Robinson, C.S.S.R, said a parting prayer before the many sympathisers left the graveside.

DEVELOPING IRISH INDUSTRIES.

At the last meeting of the Limerick Corporation Committee, Alderman J Casey, who presided, referred to an important branch of Irish trade which is developing in a fresh direction. He mentioned that Mr Clapperton, representative of the Clondalkin Paper Mills, was in Limerick last week, and informed him that the firm was extending its manufacture to cream laid, general printing, and water-marked paper. The extension would give rise to the employment of increased
