Proposed by Mr. Richard Raleigh, seconded by Mr. Jeremiah Forrest: Resolved-That a vacancy having occurred in the Representation of our city, and the present being a time when it becomes the imperative duty of all classes of Irishmen, but most particularly of the Citizens of the Violated Treaty, to embrace every opportunity and use their most strenuous exertions for the restoration of national independence, and that no situation of trust, honour, on emolument, in the power of the Irish people to bestow, should be given to any but an honest, consistent, and unshrinking Repealer.—Such a one do we take James Kelly, Esq. to be, and we hereby pledge ourselves to give him our honest and undivided support, and to use every exertion in our power to secure his port, and to use every triumphant return.

P.oposed by John F. Releigh, Esq.; seconded by Francis John O'Neill, Esq.:

Resolved—That we, the Election Committee, hail with the utmost satisfaction the opportunity which was this evening afforded as of meeting our incorruptible patriotic fellow-citizens the Congregated Trades. That we recur with evultation to the invaluable assistance they have given to the establishing the Independence of our City, and we look to them confidingly for their continued aid in sustaining it.

Proposed by Mr. Richard Rajeigh; seconded by Mr. John O'Flaherty: mark our respect for Resolved-That in order to James Kelly, Esq. we, the Congregated Trades, do accompany him with banners, &c., the Hustings, on the day of the approaching election.
