

early hour for want of sunners.

Thursday last the Mail arrived in this city, by the coach, the first time:—The passengers who came in the carriage, expressed the greatest satisfaction at this mode of travelling, as the cattle, through the entire journey, are of the most capital kind; the coachmen perfectly sober and attentive; the carriage, itself, so well constructed, that the passengers are as free from the inconvenience of night air, as they would in their bed-chamber. Much praise is due to the Agents and Contractors for their polite attention to passengers and care in procuring so safe and agreeable a mode of travelling from the Western part of this province.

A mine of lead, extremely valuable, has been lately discovered in the co. Kerry, on the estate of Colonel Blenerhasset.

This morning, departed life, at Adare Farm, GEORGE FOSBERY, Esq;—gentle and amiable in his manners, he conciliated the esteem of all who knew him;—the affectionate husband, the indulgent father, the kind relation, the warm friend; all these connections have suffered by his death an irreparable loss.

BIRTH ] At Taunton, England, the Lady of John Fitz-Gerald, Knight of Glin, of a son and Heir.

DIED.] Last Thursday, in Creaghlane, most sincerely regretted by his friends and acquaintance, Mr. Thomas Meade formerly an eminent Haberdasher.—Friday last, at Ed-threw the Prelimies. Limerick

CAUTION.

WHEREAS, JOHN KENNEDY, my dented Apprentice, eloped from Business on the 6th of June Inst. and feloniously stole his Indenture, and Bond of Performance for 10l. from me—I therefore caution all Carpenters not to employ him, as I mean to punish him, or any person who shall harbour him.
DENIS HANRAHAN, Carpenter.
Rathkeal, June 26, 1791. (c)

TO BE LET,

For such term as shall be agreed upon.
THE HOUSE, GARDENS, and a considerable Lot of GROUND belonging there, in which the Rev. Mr. JONES now lives and keeps the Diocesan School; and a HOUSE and Lot of ROUND joining to it, and behind it, containing nine feet, in front of the new Road, leading from the Turnpike Road, to Shannon. Proposals to be received by the BISHOP of LIMERICK, who will give a good Tenant, as soon as the Valuation of the temporary School House will be made the 10th of August next, and the same to be let immediately.

Ja