

ment of M. Villequier; and that we might not be perceived, we went separately, and at some distance of time from each other.

(Signed) "MARIE ANTOINETTE."

The declarations being read, M. Tronchet said, "The King is desirous to have a duplicate of these declarations—without doubt the Assembly will authorize us to deliver them."

The Assembly complied with the request, and ordered the declarations to the committee which shall be appointed to make a report on this affair.

The Assembly then proceeded to the discussion of the penal code, and decreed several articles.

PARIS, June 30. Yesterday, and the day before, it was industriously reported, that the King had become so outrageous as to break the looking glasses and furniture in his apartments—that he had struck several National soldiers, and even given M. la Fayette a box on the ear. It does not, however, appear, that these reports are well founded.

It was on Saturday reported, that the Emperor had demanded his Sister's liberation, and had delivered, through his Ambassador, a representation against the late proceedings of the National Assembly, in which he intimated his intention to assist the King of France in the recovery of his prerogative, and signified that in this design he was joined by many Princes of the Empire, and several of the Crowned Heads of Europe.

Among a variety of reports respecting the nature of the dispatches brought by Mr. Hammond from Madrid, it is generally understood that repeated applications having been made to Count Florida Blanca, to appoint commissioners to settle those articles of the convention which required a reference, he had in the most positive terms signified, that the King, his master, meant to take his own time, and would not be dictated to by any power in the universe.

A gentleman arrived in town from Calais, informs us, that before he quitted that place, intelligence had been received from Spain, giving an account, that on the day in which the Grand Tribunal of the Inquisition holds its court, the officers being present, the people, with one accord, declared they would no longer endure wardstown, near this city, Richard Price, of the city of Waterford, Esq.—Last Wednesday at Ennis, David England, Esq.;—a gentleman of many amiable qualities, which makes his death much lamented by a numerous acquaintance.—Last week in an advanced age, Richard Blenerhasset, sen. Esq.; of Bally M'Prior, co. Kerry.—At Ower, co. Galway, Mrs. Burke, wife of William Burke, Esq.—At Menlo, near Galway, Lady Blake, relict of the late Sir Thos. Blake, Bart.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

COUNTY OF LIMERICK.

Sir John Honeywood, Bart.
the Rev. John Andrew, clk.
and the Rev. Thos. Clack,
Executors of Lord Viscount
Courtney, deceased.

PLAINTIFF.

John Douthatt,

DEPENDANT.

BY Virtue of his Majesty's Writ of Fieri Facias in this Cause to me directed, I will, between the hours of twelve and two o'clock, on Wednesday the 20th Day of July instant, at St. Francis' Abbey, set up and sell by public Cant, all that, the Defendant's Interests in the Mills, Waters, and Water-courses, situate at Newcastle in said County:—Also, some Cloathing Utensils, the Property of said Defendant, whereof all Persons concerned, are to take Notice. Dated July 11, 1791.

CHA. S. OLIVER.

THOMAS O'BRIEN,

WOOLLEN DRAPPER,

BROAD-STREET, LIMERICK,

HAS arrived to him from BOURDEAUX, a few Tons of

Choice CLARET,

which he will sell, by the Ton or Hoghead on pleasing Terms; those who chuse to for READY MONEY, will find it much their interest to call on him.

He is, as usual, well supplied with every Article in his Line of Business—a Fresh supply of Best BLANKETS, of all Sizes.

June 27, 1791.

The Limerick Mail Coach,

Wm. C. H. A. R. D.